WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff, Burgesses and Commonalty of the Town and Liberties of Wenlock, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, with the most dutiful and affectionate Sentiments of Veneration and Respect, to express our Horror and Indignation at the daring Assault and abominable Outrage offered to the sacred Person of your Majesty in passing to and from your Parliament, at a Time too whilst your Majesty was in the Exercise of the Duties of your Crown, and performing your Part of our invaluable Constitution.

Whilst we lament with heartfelt Concern that wicked and seditious Principles could have gone such a Length as to endanger your Majesty's Person, and expose to imminent Danger the Blessings which under Providence we owe to our unrivalled Constitution, and your Majesty's paternal Regard and Affection for your People, we sincerely congratulate your Majesty and the whole Nation upon your providential Escape from the daring Attempts of a tumultuous and treasonable Conspiracy. And we look up to Parliament with a most earnest Wish that by it's Wisdom such Measures may be devised as will hereafter render such traitorous Designs abortive, and afford an infallible Security against Attempts so truly alarming, and at the same Time both dangerous to the publick Tranquillity and in direct Violation of the glorious Constitution, of which your Majesty forms so important a Part.

With us it shall be our vigilant Care to inculcate upon constitutional Principles an inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person, a dutiful Submission to your Government, and a watchful Solicitude for the Preservation of a Constitution, under which, by the Aid of Divine Providence, we reap every Blessing that can be enjoyed by a free, happy and loyal People.

With the above Impressions we humbly implore the Divine Being (who upon all Occasions has manifested his Protection of this Kingdom, and more especially in the extraordinary Instance of the Preservation of your Royal Person) to continue to us the great Blessing of your Majesty's Life, so absolutely necessary to the Welfare of our most excellent Constitution, and the Happiness of all your Subjects.

Voluntarily united as we are in the Cause of good Order and Peace, we are at all Times ready to sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes in the Protection of a Life.

Life so justly dear to us as your Majesty's, in defeating the Attempts both of foreign and domestic Enemies, and in Defence of the established Constitution of this Kingdom.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Commissioned, Non-commissioned Officers, and Privates of the Helston Volunteer Corps, beg Leave to express to your Majesty our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late most atrocious and violent Attack upon your sacred Person.

Pledged to support our most excellent Constitution against all it's Enemies, we have only to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ready, at all Times, to exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power in the Defence of your Majesty's Person and Dignity.

Signed at the unanimous Request, and on the Behalf of the Corps,

Wm. Johns, Major Commandant.

[Presented by Charles Abbot, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Peterhead Volunteers.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and faithful Subjects, the Peterhead Volunteers, embodied for the Defence of our excellent Constitution, beg Leave humbly to congratulate your Majesty on your late providential Deliverance from a daring and flagitious Attack on your precious Life.

That such an Outrage could have been offered to your Majesty's Person, sacred by the Laws of the Land, and dear to every Briton whose Heart is alive to the Sense of Gratitude and to the Esteem of Goodness, was a Degree of Atrocity incredible, till the horrid Fact appeared.

To deprefs Principles that could lead to such enormous Wickedness, we will strive by all the Powers that Heaven has bestowed upon us; and we humbly trust, that such legal Measures shall be adopted by the Wisdom of Parliament, as may effectually protect your Majesty's Person against all future Insult; and preserve inviolate, to Posterity, that inestimable Constitution which is the Glory and Blessing of Britain, and of which your Majesty is the Head and the faithful Guardian.

presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Magistrates, Town Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Borough of Wigtown, impressed with the deepest Feelings of Sorrow and Indignation at the late Insult offered to your Majesty's sacred Person by some misguided Individuals, the Instruments of designing and turbulent Men, are desirous of joining the general Voice of the Nation in Congratulation on your Majesty's Safety.

While we live in Tranquillity and Security, under a Constitution the best that ever was framed, protected in our Lives and Properties by known and equitable Laws, we observe with Satisfaction the Measures pursuing by Parliament for the better Preservation of your Majesty's Person and Government, and for preventing the Dissemination of Sedition, Measures rendered necessary, we lament, from the present Spirit of the Times.

A Monarch endued with every publick and private Virtue, and a People possessing every Degree of rational Liberty, has long been the Boast of the Empire; and it is our ardent Prayer that this Boast may continue, with equal Truth, to be made by every Briton to the latest Ages.

Signed, in Presence and by Appointment of the Meeting, at Wigtown, this 11th of December, 1795, by
