THE Four following Addresses on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

JAMAICA, &c.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Council and Assembly of Jamaica.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Assembly of Jamaica, beg Leave to tender our most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with the Princess Caroline of Brunswick; an Event which, as it must contribute highly to your Majesty's domestic Happiness, is truly interesting to us, and cannot fail to diffuse universal Joy throughout that Empire, which has experienced so many real and substantial Benefits under the mild and happy Government of the illustrious House of Hannover.

We humbly return our Thanks to your Majesty for your paternal Attention in appointing to the Government of this valuable Island a Nobleman of distinguished Abilities, eminently adapted to fill, at this critical Period, the arduous and important Office committed to his Charge; whose Zeal and Activity for the Preservation and Prosperity of the Island endeared him to its Inhabitants before their Representatives had an Opportunity of meeting him in Assembly; who, by the Vigour and Promptitude of his Measures, in detecting and resisting a most unnatural, unprovoked, and unexpected Rebellion of the Maroon Negroes of Trelawny Town, has saved the Country before he could well be said to have seen it; but which essential Services could not, in our Opinion, have been effected, without the immediate Application of the Forces then embarked for Saint Domingo, as well as of those in the Island, to the Attack of the savage and ferocious Enemy with which we have to contend; and who has opened his Administration with such strict Purity and Disinterestedness in Office, that it is with heartfelt Satisfaction your Majesty's faithful Council and Assembly augur the most auspicious Consequences to the Militia, and to the general Interests of the Island.

With Gratitude we assure your Majesty, that it is our most fervent Prayer, that you may long live to confer Marks of your gracious Favor and Condescension on a loyal, faithful and attached People.

Passed the Assembly this 26th Day of September, 1795.

BARBADOES.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, Council and Assembly of this your Majesty's most ancient and ever faithful Colony, humbly beg Leave to offer our united Congratulations to your Majesty on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales with a Princess of the most amiable Character, and of the illustrious House of Brunswick; an Event which, as it insures the greatest Happiness to His Royal Highness, must, in a proportionate Degree, augment your Majesty's domestic Comforts, and spreads an universal Joy through every Part of your Dominions in the Hearts of Subjects, long accustomed to participate in all the tenderest Sensibilities of your Royal Bosom, as the Father of your People; nor is your People's Joy confined upon this eminent Occasion to the Emotions of the present Hour; they indulge the fondest Hope, that, under a benign Influence from Above on these auspicious Nuptials, the brightest Prospect opens to their View of having all these inestimable Benefits, the peculiar Rights of Britons, perpetuated to the Realm under a Race of Monarchs, who, formed by your Majesty's great Example, may found their chief Glories on the unbounded Love and Attachment of a free and happy Nation.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Members of your Majesty's Council of the Island of Grenada and its Dependencies, and of the Representatives of the People thereof, in General Assembly convened.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and Assembly of the Island of Grenada and its Dependencies, beg Leave to take the earliest Opportunity to approach your Majesty with our most sincere and dutiful Congratulations on the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Though far removed from your Royal Presence, and labouring at this unfortunate Moment under all the Horrors of internal Rebellion, yet partaking of your Majesty's paternal Care and Goodness, and, firmly attached to your Person and Family, we participate in the general Joy which has been diffused, by this happy Event, through every Part of the British Empire; and we sincerely hope, that through the Divine Goodness, which has been so far extended to your Majesty, your Royal and beloved Consort, and your numerous and accomplished Offspring, that this Addition of a Princess, with such bright and amiable Accomplishments, descended from the ancient Stock of the illustrious House of Brunswick, may add still new and lasting Splendour to your Majesty's Dominions, and transmit to future Ages a Record of that mild yet firm Establishment which is the Boast and Glory of every Briton.

That your Majesty may long reign the Head of the freest and best Governments in the Annals of Mankind, that your Reign may be glorious and happy, that the Restoration of Peace on a firm and lasting Basis may be added to all the Domestic Comforts which your Majesty now enjoys, and that your Throne may descend, through a long Succession of Princes of your Royal Race, emulous of your Virtues, and, like yourself, enthroned in the Hearts of the People, of which His Royal Highness promises to be an illustrious Example, is the sincere Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

IMPRESSED with the most lively Attachment to your Majesty's illustrious Race, we your Majesty's loyal and obedient Subjects, the Council and General Assembly of Tobago, beg Leave to offer our dutiful and sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the late Event of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales's Marriage.

Every-

Every Circumstance which tends to secure a long Continuance of that mild and happy Government which we experience under the House of Brunswick, becomes of Moment to all your Majesty's Subjects; and, independent of the general Interest we feel in your Majesty's domestic Happiness, we deem it, in a political View, highly flattering that His Royal Highness should have made the Object of his Choice a Person so nearly connected with his own illustrious Parents, and whose amiable and admired Qualities, united with those Talents and Virtues which characterize His Highness, will ensure a successful Imitation of those bright Examples taught from your Majesty's Throne.

We trust your Majesty's Efforts to secure our Constitution against the Attacks of that savage and destructive Enemy with whom Necessity has driven you to War, will, notwithstanding the Treachery of those who give them temporary Encouragement, be eventually crowned with Success. And may your Majesty long wield that Sceptre, that has hitherto bid Defiance to every human Power.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Elgin.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers of the Presbytery of Elgin, fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, beg Leave to approach the Throne with our sincere Congratulations on the providential Escape your Majesty lately experienced from the daring Outrage offered to your Royal Person, in passing to the House of Parliament.

Such Licentiousness and Insult penetrate us with the deepest Sorrow, as we are persuaded, that internal Peace, a cordial Attachment to our envied Constitution, a due Subordination to the Laws, together with Respect to your Majesty's Person and Government, ought to be the Sentiment and Endeavour of every British Subject.

We sincerely pray, that that God, by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Justice, may long preserve your Majesty to reign over a free and affectionate People; and that your Majesty's Descendants may enjoy the British Crown to latest Posterity, uniformly promoting private and public Freedom and Happiness.

Signed, in Name, Presence, and by Appointment of the Presbytery of Elgin,

John Grant, Moderator.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Gentlemen of the County of Moray, in public Meeting assembled, having heard with Indignation of the Outrage offered to your Royal Person, in your Way to and from your Parliament, beg Leave to offer our most hearty Congratulations for the Escape your Majesty has made from such a daring Attempt. We are truly sorry, that any of your Majesty's Subjects, however insignificant, should so far forget the Blessings they enjoy under such a happy Constitution, as to attempt to deprive us of a Sovereign whose Government is so mild, and whose paternal Affection for his People is so eminent upon all Occasions; We trust that the Offenders will be brought to Punishment, and that the Measures which the Wisdom of Parliament are now adopting will effectually prevent, in future, any Attempts of so heinous and atrocious a Nature.

That the Supreme Director of the Universe may long preserve your Majesty to reign over us, is our sincere Prayer.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,

George Abercromby, Preses.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgesses of the Borough of Bewdley, in the County of Worcester, in Common Council assembled, humbly presume to offer our warmest Congratulations on the providential Escape which you lately experienced from the Attack made on your Person and Government in passing to the House of Parliament, and to express our Indignation and Abhorrence at so daring and atrocious an Outrage, by which your Majesty's Life was endangered, and the Laws of our Country most grossly violated.

Fully sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Government and our most excellent Constitution, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will on all Occasions exert our utmost Endeavours to defend your Royal Person, to preserve the public Peace, and to support that Constitution on which the Security of our Lives, Liberty and Property depends.

That your Majesty may be free from all such wicked Attempts in future, and may long continue to reign over us, is our most sincere and ardent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall in Bewdley aforesaid, this 12th Day of December, 1795, by Order of the Corporation,

W. J. Roberts, Deputy Recorder.

We, the Gentlemen, Clergy and principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bewdley aforesaid, do most cordially unite with the Corporation in the above Address.

[Transmitted by the Right Hon. Lord Lyttelton, High Steward and Recorder of the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Town Council of the Borough

Burgh of Peebles, deeply impressed with Abhorrence at the late daring Outrage against your Majesty's Royal Person, when in Discharge of Duty to the State, thus beg Leave to offer our most sincere Congratulations on the happy Escape of your Majesty from such atrocious Attempts of a furious and misled Mob.

When we view the distracted State of some other Nations, great Cause have we to venerate the present happy Constitution of this, and to dread the Machinations of ambitious and designing Men, who artfully stir up the Turbulent and seduce the Unwary by plausible Declarations against Grievances and Oppressions never once thought of or felt before.

That the Wisdom of Parliament will devise some effectual Check to the now too evident Designs of some Societies for unhinging our present Establishment, is most devoutly to be wished by every Friend to his Country; and though our Influence or Exertions are but trifling in the great Scale, yet in Loyalty and Attachment to the Constitution we will yield to none.

In Presence, and by Order of Council,

James Reid, Provost.

Peebles Council Chamber,

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects and Servants, the Volunteer Corps of Dingwall, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty, with the most respectful Humility, our heartfelt Congratulations on your Escape from the Effects of the late disgraceful and lawless Violence attempted against your Royal Person. Embodied for the Purpose of serving your Majesty, to assist within a narrow Circle in defending our Country at once from foreign Invasion and internal Faction, we beheld with the utmost Indignation an Outrage which, if successful, would have facilitated the one, and tended to render the Designs of the other successful. We presume to assure your Majesty, that had our Exertions been necessary on this Occasion, we would, one and all, have been ready to do what lay in our Power towards the further Security of your Majesty's Person, the Restoration of Order, and the Bringing of the unprincipled and atrocious Offenders to condign Punishment.

May your Majesty live long happy in your Person, blessed in your Family, and successful in every Part of your Government, to the Welfare of your People.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Corps of Nigg Volunteers, full of Gratitude to Almighty God for your Majesty's late providential Escape from the daring Attempt made upon your sacred Person, and through that on our happy Constitution, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne with our warmest Congratulations and Expressions of our sincere Love, and determined Resolution of protecting your Royal Person and Government from every Attack, whether foreign or domestick, with our Lives and Fortunes; and sincerely pray that your Majesty's Life may be long spared to reign over a free, a loyal, and happy People.

Unto the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Heritors, Gentlemen, Volunteer Band and whole Inhabitants of the Parish of Canisbay, humbly crave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty, and of the most sincere Attachment to the Person, Family and Government of our august and beloved Sovereign, more especially to make known to your Majesty our Grief and Indignation at the late atrocious and treasonable Outrages to which your Majesty has been exposed, while engaged in the Discharge of so important a Part of your Royal Function as that of meeting your Subjects by their Representatives in Parliament. We regard not only the Dignity of the British Empire, but the very Being of our happy Constitution, and the dearest Interests of all your Subjects, as connected with the Inviolability of your Majesty's Person from Danger, Threat or Insult from Man or Men. We lament such monstrous Depravity in British Breasts as durst manifest itself in Acts of Violence or Indignity against the best of Kings and first of Constitutions that exists or has existed in any Age or Country; but we hope that in the Detection and Punishment of the Guilty the Laws will speedily triumph in the Crush and Extinction of such nefarious Machinations. These are the Sentiments we hold and inculcate on all with whom we have Connection; and we are happy in assuring your Majesty that we believe them to be universally prevalent in these Northern Parts of your Dominions. With every Sentiment of loyal Congratulation on your Majesty's Escape from Danger, we pray Almighty God that He may ever have your Majesty under his Divine Protection, that you may long reign in the Hearts of a loyal and united People, and that the Sceptre of these Realms may continue in your illustrious House through the remotest Periods of Futurity.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted or delivered to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, have been by him presented presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The dutiful and humble Address of the Adventurers in the British White Herring Fishery, Merchants, Traders and Heretors, residing in the Royal Borough of Rothelay.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Adventurers in the British White Herring Fishery, Merchants, Traders and Heretors, residing in your Royal Borough of Rothelay, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, to offer our warmest Congratulations for the happy and providential Protection which your Majesty lately experienced in the Disappointment of the atrocious and daring Attempt made against your Life and Royal Person, and to express the strong Indignation we feel against those wicked and unprincipled Wretches who dared to make such Attempt.

Your Majesty's Government has ever been uniformly mild towards all loyal and dutiful Subjects, whose Lives, Liberty and Property have been protected and defended; their Trade supported and nourished by Means wisely calculated for that Purpose; from all which we, in common with other good Subjects, feel ourselves deeply impressed with the highest Sense of Gratitude and Thankfulness for the many Blessings we calmly enjoy under the best of Kings and mildest of Governments.

We sincerely hope that the determined and necessary Measures, ordered by your Majesty, and adopted by your Ministers, will have the most happy Effect of overturning and disappointing every Intention of promoting Sedition or disturbing the Peace of the Country; and that whatever audacious and wicked Person, or Party, may presume to offer an Insult to your Majesty's Royal Person, or attempt to endanger your precious Life, may be utterly disappointed in all their wicked Intentions, and at last be brought to suffer that Punishment and ignominious Death they so justly deserve.

That your Majesty may long live happy over a free and loyal People, and be preserved to continue a Blessing to these Kingdoms, is our most ardent Prayer.

Signed, in Presence, and by Appointment of the Meeting, by John Robertson.

Impressed with these Sentiments, we cannot, without Indignation and Sorrow, reflect on the audacious and treasonable Attack lately made on your sacred Person: Nor can we forbear congratulating your Majesty, as well as expressing our Gratitude to Heaven, on Account of your Majesty's Escape and Safety.

In these Sentiments, we assure your Majesty, we are joined by that Part of your Majesty's Subjects under our Care, in whom we shall ever deem it our Duty to cherish the highest Reverence for your Majesty and the Laws.

May the King of Kings continue to defend your Majesty from all your Enemies, and long preserve to these Lands the Blessings of your Administration. And may Princes of your illustrious Family sit upon the Throne of these Kingdoms to latest Ages.
