Published by Authority.

From Saturday December 26, to Tuesday December 29, 1795.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th of December, 1795,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit on to serve board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of this instant December; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirty-first Day of this instant December to the Twenty-eighth Day of February, 1796, inclusive: Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Costrell.

St. James's, December 26.

THE following Addreses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addreses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Addres of the Magistrates and Town Council of Dingwall, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

KNOWING the many Virtues which distinguish your Majesty in Character, as much as you are raised in Power above the other Sovereigns of the Earth, and sensible of the Blessings which these Kingdoms have enjoyed from the mild and just Government of your Reign, we heard with Indignation, equalled only by our Astonishment, of the as dangerous as atrocious Violence lately attempted on your Royal Person. Upon this Occasion we, with one Mind, felt the Wish, that your Majesty might ever in the same Way escape the Machinations of your foreign and domestic Enemies; that the Perpetrators of the foul Deed should be brought to the Punishment which their Atrocity deserved; and that every possible constitutional Method should be adopted to prevent the Repetition of so dangerous and disgraceful an Outrage.

May your Majesty live long a Blessing to your Family, and a Source of Happiness to your People.

Signed in Name, in Presence, and at the Appointment of the Magistrates and Town Council of Dingwall, the 8th Day of December, 1795 Years.

Pat. Hay, Baillies.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Privates of the New Romney Company of Cinque Port Volunteers, associated for the Purpose of defending and supporting the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Deliverance from the late daring and atrocious Attack on your Royal Person, whilst in the Discharge of the most important Functions of your exalted Station; assuring your Majesty that we feel the utmost Indignation at so unmerited an Outrage.

Permit us, Sire, to avail ourselves of this Opportunity of declaring, that the same Motives which first induced us to arm at the Appearance of threatened Calamity from the boasted Invasion of a Foreign Enemy, or the seditious Conduct of some of your Majesty's deluded Subjects, will stimulate us with the Zeal of Britons, whenever the Protection of your Majesty's sacred Person and Family, or the Laws and Constitution of our Country may render it necessary.

Signed by us,

John Skeve Loftie, Captain.

St. James's, December 29.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Ministers of the Presbytery of Stranraer.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stranraer, met on the Occasion, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the sincerest of Loyalty and Attachment to your Person and Government, and with the warmest Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Escape from the late daring and atrocious Attempt against your sacred Life, and to express the high Indignation we feel at the unprincipled Insults offered to your Person in your Way to and from Parliament.

Deeply sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and equitable Government, we daily offer up our most fervent Prayers to God, that your Majesty may be long preserved to reign over a free, loyal and happy People; that mutual Love and Confidence may ever subsist between you and your Subjects; and that your Descendants, to latest Posterity, may fill the British Throne, and ever prove the faithful Guardians of Religion, Liberty, Law and the Constitution: These are the daily fervent Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful and most obedient Subjects,

The Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Stranraer.

Subscribed in our Name, Presence and by our Appointment, by Henry Blain, Moderator.
