St. James's, December 26.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy, of the Diocese of St. Asaph.

THAT a Prince who hath been for a long Series of Years the Father of his Country, the strenuous Supporter of it's just Rights and Liberties, and hath uniformly adorned the high Station he fills with the Practice of every Virtue, publick and private, should be openly attacked and insulted by a desperate Gang of Assassins, must raise in every British Breast the keenest Emotions of Abhorrence.

At the same Time, under pious Impressions of Gratitude to that kind Providence which hath interposed to defeat the wicked Purpose, and rescue from imminent Danger a Life in which the Cause of Religion and Liberty, and the common Happiness of all Ranks among us is involved, we, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, and Clergy of the Diocese of St. Asaph, presume to offer to your Majesty our unfeigned Congratulations on the Safety of your Person and Government.

We farther add our most fervent Prayers to Heaven, that under the same Almighty Protection and Guidance, having become the blessed Instrument of composing those Troubles that now convulse the World, you may see the Love of social Order and Harmony revive among all Nations; and continuing to maintain, unshaken, the Principles of our own unrivalled Constitution, both in Church and State, long reign in Peace and Honour over a loyal, affectionate and religious People.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, the Bishop and Clergy of your Majesty's Island of Mann, in Concert with your other loyal Subjects, beg Leave to approach your Throne with Sentiments of sincere Concern and Astonishment at the Outrage lately offered to your Majesty's sacred Person in passing to your House of Parliament.

It is with great Regret and Abhorrence we hear that there should exist in your Majesty's Capital even a few Individuals daring enough to avow Principles and perpetrate Acts subversive of all Order and Subordination, and which menace the Dissolution of all political Union.

With the late Occurrences in our View, we cannot help humbly remarking to your Majesty, that in civil Society, when the established Decorums of Life begin to be interrupted, when due Respect is withheld from Personages not more eminent for their Rank than for their Virtues, when the Sovereign Himself becomes the Object of Insult and Menace, Events like these form an awful Period in the Annals of a Kingdom.

Under these Impressions we are anxious to learn that the Disturbers of your Majesty and the Nation be speedily detected and punished; and we shall not fail to solicit the Author of Peace and Lover of Concord to prevent every Return of such alarming Paroxysms of Licentiousness.

We beg Leave most cordially to congratulate your Majesty on your providential Escape from the sanguinary Assaults of malevolent Men, and with all the Ardour becoming our Order we commit your Majesty to God's gracious Guidance and Protection, beseeching Him, by whom "Kings reign, and Princes decree Judgment," that in our Days "He quench not the Light of Israel."

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop of Bath and Wells, the Dean and Chapter of Wells, and the Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese, approach your Majesty, impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Duty and Respect, to express our Abhorrence and Detestation of the outrageous Violence lately offered to your Royal Person.

It is with the utmost Concern and Astonishment we observe (under our happy Constitution of Government, and your Majesty's wise and just Administration of it) certain factious and malignant Spirits taking Advantage of the unhappy Pressure of the Times to poison the Minds and inflame the Passions of the Ignorant and Unwary, in order to introduce a dreadful Scene of Anarchy and Confusion.

Our Duty to your Majesty and our Country loudly calls upon us to exert our utmost Endeavours to counteract the Poison disseminated by these infamous incendiaries; and we will give a watchful Attention to the Manners and Principles of the People committed to our Care and Instruction, and impress it constantly upon their Minds, that the religious Duty of fearing God is not completely discharged without honouring and reverencing the King, and paying due Obedience to the established Laws; and we shall daily offer up our humble Addresses to Heaven to preserve your Majesty's valuable Life and lengthen your Days, and that you may transmit to Posterity our excellent Constitution entire and unimpaired, not subverted or weakened by the Efforts of democratic Faction, but enriched and strengthened by the several Acts passed during your Majesty's auspicious Reign for the further Protection and Security of that Liberty which is it's brightest Ornament.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The Address of the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons and Clergy of the Diocese of Durham.

SIR,

WHILE we congratulate your Majesty on your recent Deliverance from the atrocious Attempts of daring and unprincipled Men, we congratulate ourselves and our Country that it's Constitution, which has been wounded by the Attack on the sacred Person of your Majesty, still remains free.

We reflect with the strongest Sensations of Horror on the fatal Consequences that must have ensued to all Ranks of Society among us, had not a gracious Providence averted a Blow, which might have involved this Island in Anarchy, Confusion and Blood.

In common with all your Majesty's Subjects, the Clergy feel the Blessings of a mild and equal Government; but the Exercise of their Profession more peculiarly enables them to appreciate the Value of the Virtues which adorn the Throne, and their great Importance to the Interests of Morality and Religion; and they are fully sensible of the beneficial Effects which a Sovereign's sincere Belief in Christianity, illustriously displayed in his Conduct, is calculated to produce on the Manners and the Habits of the Community at large.

Under the liveliest Impression of Gratitude for the great National Blessings which we enjoy, our most fervent Prayers are offered up to the Almighty for their Continuance, by the Prolongation of your Majesty's Life, by it's Preservation from secret Conspiracy and open Violence, as the most certain Means of ensuring the present and perpetuating the future Happiness of these Realms.

May the Crown long flourish on your Majesty's Head, with all that Dignity which is essential to the Safety of our glorious Constitution! And when, at a distant Period, you shall be called upon by the King of Kings to resign it, may it be worn unsullied by the Princes of your Royal House! And may they, like you, enjoy the Fruits of their Virtues, and their Labours for the Public Good, in the genuine Affection of a free and a grateful People.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bishop, Dean and Chapter, Archdeacons, Prebendaries and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Diocese of Exeter, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne with our sincere Professions of Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person and Government.

Beholding, as we have ever done, with Veneration and Delight, the many public and private Virtues which so eminently distinguish your Majesty's Character and render your Person dear to all good Men, and your Life of the highest Importance to the Happiness to your People, we regard the late atrocious Outrages offered to your Majesty, in your Way to the House of Parliament, with equal Astonishment and Detestation; we consider so daring an Insult to your Majesty as an open Violence done to the Nation; an Assault on our own Lives, Liberties and Properties, of which your Majesty is the constitutional Guardian and Protector.

As Ministers of the Gospel of Peace we have seen, with the deepest Concern, the Introduction and Progress of political Principles and Theories most adverse to public Tranquillity and good Order; their Tendency we abhor, their Effects we deprecate; and while we pledge ourselves, both by Doctrine and Example, in our several Stations, to inculcate upon those committed to our Charge the great Christian Duties of Reverence for Magistrates and Obedience to Authority, we declare our firm Resolution to devote our Talents, our Lives and Properties, to the Preservation of your Majesty's Life, the Support of your Throne, and the Maintenance of our admirable Constitution in Church and our State. We are your Majesty's most dutiful and most obedient Subjects.

[Presented by his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Major-Commandant, the Officers and Corps of the Hull Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, approach your Throne with most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from the late daring and atrocious Attack on your sacred Person, aggravated as it was by having been attempted when your Majesty was exercising that Branch of your Royal Prerogative, which constitutes the firmest Basis of the Liberties of your People.

Having taken up Arms under a solemn Engagement to defend our invaluable Constitution against every Invasion both of its foreign and domestic Enemies, permit us at this Time to renew our Professions of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty, and to express our Sorrow that any Part of your Majesty's Subjects should have been rendered so blind to their own Welfare and Happiness as to meditate their Country's Ruin by aiming a Blow at the Life of a Monarch who hath so long reigned in the Hearts of a grateful People.

Christopher Macbell, Major-Commandant.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, Lord Lieutenant of the East Riding of the County of York, and Town and County of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle, in the County of Cumberland.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of your ancient City of Carlisle, beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on your recent Escape from the traitorous and unparalleled Attack made on your Majesty's sacred Person; a Circumstance which we hold in the greatest Abhorrence and Indignation.

Permit us to assure you, most gracious Sire, of our most faithful Attachment to your Royal Person; that we shall be ever attentive, with our utmost Vigilance and Exertions, to preserve and defend it, and to support and maintain inviolate the happy Constitution established by the Wisdom and Perseverance of our Ancestors.

We implore the Divine Providence to protect your Majesty against all the Attempts of your Enemies, and to preserve you for many Years to reign over us.

Given under our Common Seal, at the City of Carlisle, the 18th of December, 1795.

Morris Coulbard, Mayor.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Boston, and of the adjacent Hundreds of Kirton and Skirbeck, in the County of Lincoln.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, most cordially rejoice in the happy Escape of your Majesty from the violent and atrocious Attack made upon your Person by evil-minded Men, on the first Day of the present Session of Parliament.

We are thankful to the Divine Providence for this further Instance of Protection and Favour towards your Majesty and this Nation, and we implore the same Protection for your Majesty in all future Events of your Life.

With the profoundest Respect and Gratitude we acknowledge that your Majesty's Reign over us has been just, mild and paternal, and that your Majesty has uniformly exhibited to your Subjects a religious and moral Example highly deserving of our Imitation.

Our Minds being deeply impressed by these Sentiments, and by a strong Attachment to our happy Constitution, we earnestly hope that effectual Measures will be taken for preventing in future all Attempts against your Majesty's Person and Government, which we solemnly engage to defend with our Lives and Fortunes; and we will endeavour, in our respective Stations, to promote, among our Fellow Subjects, a Spirit of Loyalty to our Sovereign, of Obedience to the Laws, and of Moderation, Harmony and Peace amongst each other.

[Presented by Sir Peter Burrell, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Warden, Six Assistants, High Steward and Town-Clerk of Louth, in your County of Lincoln, and the Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the same

Town and Neighbourhood, with Sentiments of profound Veneration and Attachment, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your Escape from the daring Outrages lately offered to your Royal Person. Sensible of the Advantages we derive from our admirable Form of Government, and your Majesty's just and mild Administration of it, we have, with equal Astonishment and Abhorrence, viewed the licentious Insults and atrocious Acts of Violence recently shewn to our amiable Sovereign, our Laws, and Constitution, in the Support and Preservation of which we feel our Interest and Happiness to be intimately concerned. By your Majesty's vigilant Exertions, and the prudent Interposition of the constitutional Authority of Parliament, we trust the malignant Attempts of inconsiderate and turbulent Men will be ever counteracted, and public Order and Tranquillity secured to us and our Posterity. And we supplicate Heaven that your Majesty may long continue on the Throne of these Realms the Guardian of our Laws, the Protector of our Liberties, the Friend and Father of a free and happy People.

[Presented by Sir Joseph Banks, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Corporation, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough, Town, and Parish of Westbury.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Corporation, and other Inhabitants of the Borough, Town, and Parish of Westbury, assembled, most humbly beg Leave to offer our sincere and hearty Congratulations to your Majesty on your late Preservation from the flagitious and horrid Insults offered to your Royal Person, when passing to and from Parliament; and at the same Time beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of those most daring Outrages, earnestly wishing that the Authors and Abettors of Crimes so atrocious may be discovered and receive such Punishment as the Laws have wisely decreed; and also desire humbly to express our steady Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person, and Readiness to defend it, on all Occasions, from Hurt or Insult, as well as Willingness to come forward for the Support of your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; and that it is our ardent Desire and Prayer, that it may please Almighty God to protect your Royal Person in all Safety, and that your Majesty may long reign over a People truly sensible of the many Privileges and Blessings they enjoy under their revered and much-beloved Sovereign.

While we lament that Britain contains Wretches capable of so execrable a Crime, we console ourselves with the firm Belief that their Number is insignificant in the extreme, when compared to the great Body of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, who ardently wish for the Preservation of your invaluable Life.

Associated for the Purpose of maintaining good Order, and assisting the Civil Magistrate in the Discharge of his Duty, we assure your Majesty that we will execute the important Trust reposed in us by our Country at the utmost Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Aberbrothock, beg Leave to approach the Throne with profound Respect, to express our most sincere Concern and Indignation at the daring Outrage and Insult lately offered to your Majesty's Royal Person, in passing to and from your Parliament; an Attack the more flagitious, as being made on the Person of a Sovereign, whose public and private Virtues have long endeared him to the Love and Esteem of his Subjects.

Highly sensible of the Wisdom, Justice and Mildness of your Majesty's Government, and of the Protection and Happiness we enjoy under it, we beg Leave to offer our hearty Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape from such imminent Danger, and we earnestly pray that your Majesty's Life may be long preserved as a Blessing to your People, and for the Security our happy Constitution.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Presbytery of Meigle.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Members of the Presbytery of Meigle, in the County of Angus, having viewed with Astonishment and Abhorrence the late daring Attack on your Majesty's sacred Person, by a licentious and desperate Mob, do humbly beg Leave to offer our most cordial Congratulations on the providential Preservation of your Majesty in that alarming Juncture, and to give your Majesty the strongest Assurance of our inviolable Attachment to your Person and Government, and our firm Resolution at all Times to inculcate the same good Principles upon those committed to our Care.

When the Spirit of Disaffection hath manifested itself in an Attempt so atrocious, and when seditious Meetings are held to cherish Sentiments or broach Doctrines treasonable in their Nature and subversive of all social Order, we trust the Legislature will timely interpose its Authority, that the Constitution, both in Church and State, may remain unimpaired, and that your Majesty's Reign may be long, undisturbed and glorious.

Our daily Prayers are offered up for the Welfare and Prosperity of your Majesty and your Royal House.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of the Liberty of Havering Bower, in the County of Essex.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy and Inhabitants of your ancient and chartered Liberty of Havering Bower, anxious to express our Detestation and Abhorrence of the late atrocious Attack upon your sacred Person in your Passage to and from Parliament at the Opening of the present Session,

Humbly present our sincere and heartfelt Congratulations upon the providential Escape of your Majesty from the manifest Designs of domestic as well as foreign Enemies, tending to destroy the Happiness which your Subjects enjoy under the Reign of the most virtuous of Sovereigns, and which, by the Hand of Providence, we trust will be continued, and the mild and equitable Government of these Kingdoms firmly cemented, under which it is our Pride to live.

Permit us, Sire, to express our Approbation of the Bills adopted by the Wisdom of Parliament to prevent treasonable Insults in future to your Royal Person, and for the Suppression of seditious Meetings.

That our beloved Sovereign and his illustrious House may ever adorn the Throne of these Realms in perfect Happiness and Prosperity, is the sincere and fervent Prayer of your grateful and affectionate Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, composing the Northern Regiment of Yorkshire West Riding Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry, beg Leave to tender to your Majesty our sincere Congratulations on your late providential Escape from an atrocious Attempt upon your Royal Person; an Attempt which seemed only capable of Aggravation from the flagitious Circumstances with which it was attended.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's paternal Anxiety for the Interests and Happiness of your People, we never entertained a Doubt but your Majesty would rejoice at any Opportunity of restoring to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace, whenever Peace could be restored on a Basis of Honor and Security; Blessings which, however inestimable they may be deemed, are not, as we apprehend, more likely to be obtained, either by a pusillanimous and ill-timed Representation of Distress, or the Efforts of Sedition and Dissension.

Chearfully, therefore, as we shall lay down our Arms under your Majesty's Commands, when those detestable Principles are abandoned, and those dreadful Dangers are averted which incited us to take them up, we beg Leave, nevertheless, humbly to assure your Majesty, that we shall ever continue ready to exert all the Powers and Energy we may possess in Defence of your Majesty and our invaluable Constitution against the Attacks either of foreign Enmity or domestic Disaffection.

That Providence may bless and still protect your Majesty and your illustrious Family, and that you may long reign over a grateful and happy People, are the earnest Prayers of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's dutiful and devoted Subjects.

The general Indignation and Abhorrence of the above Attempt, expressed to your Majesty on this Occasion by a free and discerning People, in which we most cordially unite, must convince you of their affectionate Attachment to your Royal Person, and give your Majesty the strongest Assurances that your Subjects feel themselves much interested in your Welfare.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty's sacred Person in perfect Health, and continue to you every domestic Comfort; and may your mild and parental Government ever meet with adequate Returns of Duty, Gratitude and Affection from an honest and manly People.

The King was this Day pleased to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Richard Hodgson, Esq;

Westminster, December 31.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Abraham Turner, of Kidderminster in the County of Worcester, Gentleman, to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

St. James's, January 2.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Cupar, met in Presbytery, embrace, with the most cordial Unanimity, the first Opportunity of a stated Meeting most humbly to approach your Throne with heartfelt Congratulations upon your Majesty's late providential Escape from the daring and dangerous Insults and Outrage of a misguided and flagitious Mob.

With Congratulations to your Majesty we join our most grateful and devout Acknowledgments for your Protection to the King of Kings, whom we fervently pray long to preserve your Majesty's most valuable Life, to establish your Throne, and to prosper your Reign.

While we congratulate your Majesty on your Safety, and offer up our Acknowledgments to Almighty God on this memorable Occasion, we acquiesce with the most entire Confidence in those Measures adopted by the Wisdom of the Legislature a Means, under Providence, of the greater Security of your Majesty's Person and of our happy Constitution.

That either the one or the other should be treated with Disrespect, or endangered by any who live under their happy Auspices, we cannot help regarding as a Mark of the basest Pravity; and we impute a great Proportion of it, among other Causes, to the unguarded and violent Intemperance of Men, who, being disappointed in their own selfish and ambitious Views, scruple not, by the most desperate and dangerous Means, to hazard the Vessel of the State, because they are not permitted to guide the Helm.

In expressing our Detestation and Abhorrence of the Measures lately pursued by a violent and desperate Faction, and in deprecating the Anarchy and Rain to which they tend, we have the Satisfaction to assure your Majesty, that we express the Sentiments and Feelings of the great Body of the People with whom we are connected. They are sensible of the Blessings resulting from our happy Constitution and your Majesty's fatherly Administration, and are warmly attached to your Majesty's Person and Family and Government.

To cherish and promote this loyal and dutiful Attachment, upon the Principles of Religion and the Love of social Order, shall, through God's Grace, be always the Study and Care of, may it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders of the Presbytery of Cupar.

Signed, in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by

And. Ireland, Moderator.

Admiralty-Office, January 2, 1796.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir John Laforey, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the Leeward Islands, to Mr. Nepean, dated Martinico, October 22, 1795.

ON the 20th Instant the Bellona arrived, having joined Vice-Admiral Thompson on the 7th of September, in the Latitude 43 Deg. 20 Min. N. and Longitude 38 Deg. 9 Min. W.

In my last I informed you, Sir, with the Capture of the Superbe French Frigate, of 22 Guns, off Desfeda by the Vanguard; since which I have received an Account from Captain Warre, of His Majesty's Ship Mermaid, dated the 12th Instant, that, cruising to Windward of Grenada, he discovered, on the 10th, off La Baye, a Ship and a Brig at Anchor, which, upon seeing him, got under Weigh and made Sail from him; but the Brig soon bore up, and pushed into a small Bay called Requain, where the Mermaid followed her, and run aground close to her: The French, however, got on Shore to the Number of 70 Troops, and 50 that were her Crew, and upwards of 50, had been landed by the Ship while at Anchor. Captain Warre got Possession of the Brig, which is named the Brutus, of 10 Guns: The next Day he chased the Ship the whole Day, but she escaped in the Night. And in a subsequent Letter, dated the 15th, he informed me that he discovered her again on the 14th to Leeward of him, when he chased and captured her, after an Action of Half an Hour, with the Loss of One Man killed and Three wounded in the Mermaid, and Twenty killed, and several wounded of the Enemy: That both these Vessels were Conventional Corvettes. The Ship named the Republican, mounting 18 Guns, and had on Board 250 or 260 Men at the Commencement of the Action, with a French General and his Staff, destined to command at Grenada. In a Letter wrote the following Day he acquainted me, that upon his Return to Grenada, with his Prize, he had the Morification to find that the important Post of Gouyave, or Charlotte Town, had been taken by the Enemy the Night before,

Horse-Guards, January 2, 1796.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Leigh to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Martinico, October 31, 1795.

IT is with real Concern I inform you of the Loss of the important Post of Guave, in the Island of Grenada; for the Particulars of which I beg Leave to refer you to Brigadier-General Nicolls's Letter of the 18th Instant, and to the several Reports made to him upon that Event, Copies of which I have the Honour to inclose.

Extract of a Letter from Brigadier-General Oliver Nicolls to his Excellency Major-General Leigh, dated Grenada, October 18, 1795.

IT is with extreme Concern I report to your Excellency the Loss of the Post of Gouyave. The Enemy having attacked and carried by Assault, the Night of the 15th Instant, the strong Hill which commands the Harbour and Town, Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw did not think his Force strong enough to recover it immediately, and the lower Situation not being tenable, he retired to this Town, unmolested by the Enemy, a March of Twelve Miles, and arrived here the next Morning about Nine o'Clock. His Return, which is inclosed, will shew the Loss of the 68th Regiment. The 25th Regiment had Fifty-five Sick there, with Three Subalterns. One Subaltern, Lieutenant Ashe, and Sixteen of whom were able to march with Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw's Detachment, are here; the rest have fallen into the Hands of the Enemy.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant-Colonel Schaw, of the 68th Regiment, to Brigadier-General Nicolls, dated St. George's, October 17, 1795.

S I R,

IN Obedience to your Desire I should have earlier given you an Account of the Particulars which obliged me to evacuate the Post of Gouyave, but waited to ascertain our Loss, which I find to be Two Serjeants and Thirty-four Rank and File missing, with One Lieutenant, (Carr) supposed to be mortally wounded.

The Insurgents attacked a strong Picquet, consisting of a Captain, Two Subalterns, Four Serjeants and Sixty Rank and File, posted on the Hill commanding the Town of Gouyave; One Subaltern of which, with Twenty Men, were detached along the Ridge running West about Two Hundred Yards from Captain Hamilton's Post, in order to prevent their Approach from coming up a Valley in their Front, which had the desired Effect, as Ensign Connor, of the 68th Regiment, a very steady and brave Officer, checked a Column, intended against him, by the Vigilance and Fire of his Advanced Sentries. The Column then (as he supposes) directed their Route towards the Captain's Post, as a hot Firing soon after commenced there, during a very heavy Shower of Rain. This Circumstance induced Ensign Connor to march to the Support of that Post; but on his Arrival fell in with Captain Hamilton, who told him he had been surrounded with a very superior Body of the Enemy, which had penetrated and driven his Party from the Works; and that Lieutenant Carr, with several of his Men, were badly wounded; all which Circumstances were confirmed to me by the Arrival of Captain Hamilton at Gouyave House, who made me a similar Report. During this Transaction a Report prevailed that the Insurgents were advancing from our Rear, and the Part of the Works below; and I was confirmed in it by Firing being heard from the latter mentioned Place. This prevented me from calling up Colonel Webster's Black Corps, who had the Defence of the Town and the Protection of the Hospital; as also Captain Angus's Black Corps, who had been posted to defend the Sugar-Works, (and, as I had been informed, had perceived an Enemy approaching) to make an Attempt to recover the Hill again. An Attempt, however, was made by all the Men I could muster of the 68th Regiment; but they were not able to advance further than the Post already mentioned, on the Left of the Ridge, which was gained with great Difficulty, from the very steep and slippery State, occasioned by the constant Rains; and finding the Enemy so superior in Numbers, and in Possession of a Field Piece, from which they fired Grape, as to make it too hazardous, and no Probability of Success.

It was then the general Sense of the Officers under my Command, whose Opinions I severally took, to retreat to Sauter, but that afterwards being found impracticable it was resolved to march to St. George's.

This, Sir, is a Detail of Facts, as nearly as I can state to you, of this unfortunate Business, but which, however to be lamented, will not, I trust, appear to you either to have proceeded from any Want of Vigilance or Neglect of Duty on my Side.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
Signed, JOHN B. SCHAW,
Major of the 68th Regiment,
and Lieut. Col.

P. S. I have the Honour herewith to send you a State of the 68th Regiment.

Return of the 68th Regiment of Foot, of Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers, and Rank and File, on the 16th of October, 1795.

Present.—10 Officers, 17 Serjeants, 15 Drummers, 107 Rank and File.

Missing.—2 Serjeants, 34 Rank and File.

Sick at Gouayve.—29 Rank and File.

Total.—10 Officers, 19 Serjeants, 15 Drummers, 170 Rank and File.

(Signed) John B. Schaw, Major,
68th Regiment.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Hamilton, of the 68th Regiment, to Brigadier-General Nicolls dated St. George's, October 17, 1795.

I Am this Moment honored with your Letter of this Date, in Answer to which I beg Leave to state, that I joined the Guard on Gouyave-Hill after Dark on the Night of the 15th Instant, and, on Enquiry, found it consisted of One Serjeant, Two Corporals, and Thirty-eight Men, of which Eleven were Blacks. I then detached One Corporal and Three British Soldiers to a Path pointed out by Captain Pinuber, to Colonel Schaw, with Orders, that should the Enemy approach that Way to give them their Fire, and then retire to the Huts, and alarm the Men there, and immediately to join Colonel Schaw at the House, it being impossible for them to rejoin me, from the Nature of the Ground. This left me with One Serjeant, One Corporal, and Thirty-five Men, including the Blacks. I then fell them in round the Breast-Work, in order that each Man should know his Post in case of an Alarm; on doing which I found that I was obliged to leave a Space of Two Yards and better between each Man, to enable me to occupy the Whole of the Ground within the Breast-Work; and, as the Night was extremely dark, I thought it necessary to put Thirteen Sentries. At a little after Eleven o'Clock, Lieutenant Carr (who was my Subaltern) visited the Sentries, and, on his Return, informed me he had found them perfectly alert: In about Five Minutes after which we heard One of them fire, on which we immediately turned out, and had Time to fire from Four to Five Rounds per Man, previous to the Enemy's getting up to the Breast-Work, after which we disputed it with our Bayonets, until overpowered by Numbers. Some Confusion took Place among the Gunners, which prevented them from firing the Field Piece (the only Gun we had) immediately on the Attack; and, on the Enemy's getting near the Breast-Work, it was impossible to fire it without endangering our own Men; and, indeed, it would have been of little Avail, as we were attacked on all Sides. With respect to our Loss, or that of the Enemy, I cannot take upon me to say what it may have been, as the Night was so dark as to prevent me from seeing; neither can I attempt to say what was their Strength. Before Lieutenant Carr and I quitted the Post, there appeared to be at least One Hundred of the Enemy within the Breast-Work, and from the Noise without they seemed to be advancing in great Force. I am inclined to think their Loss must have been considerable, as our Fire appeared to be well directed, and our Men disputed the Breast-Work bravely with their Bayonets, besides which they, the Enemy, fired on each other for some Time after we had been obliged to quit the Post. Lieutenant Carr remained with me within the Works (though wounded) until we found that our Men were all driven out, after which we retired. The Man who bayoneted him attacked me, when unfortunately shot him, by which I escaped.

I have the Honor, &c.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the above daring and cruel Act of Violence and Outrage, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the said Offenders, (except the Person who actually gave the said Stab and Cut,) who shall discover his or their Accomplices, so that any one or more of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
