Whitehall, January 14.

The King has been pleased to grant to Joseph Pickford, of Royton in the County of Lancaster, Esq; and His Issue, his Royal Licence and Authority, to assume and take the Surname, and bear the Arms of Radcliffe only, (pursuant to the last Will and Testament of his late maternal Uncle William Radcliffe, of Millsbridge, in the Parish of Huddersfield, in the County of York, Esq; deceased;) such Arms being first duly exemplified according to the Laws of Arms and recorded in the Heralds Office: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in his College of Arms.

Downing-Street, January 16.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department, dated Head Quarters of Marshal Clerfaye's Army, Creutzenach, the 21st of December, 1795.

IN consequence of the Advantages obtained by Marshal Clerfaye, as stated in my last, General Jourdan, after having attempted in vain by different Manœuvres to secure the Right of his Army, began his Retreat from the Nahe on the 13th Instant, and on the 15th he took a Position upon the Hunstuck, occupying all the principal Passes between Bacharach on the Rhine, and Trarbach on the Moselle.

From the 15th to the present Date several unimportant Actions have taken Place between the advanced Corps of these Two Armies, and the Austrian Light Troops have at different Times scoured the Country from Birkenfeldt to Treves; but the Strength of the Enemy's Position in the Mountains, and the Roads that lead to it being rendered so bad by the late Rains as to make the March of heavy Artillery almost impossible, have prevented Marshal Clerfaye from undertaking any Operation of Consequence. His Excellency's Line now extends from Dreyekhausen on the Rhine, by Stromburg, Kirch, and Oberstein to Birkenfeldt, from whence the Left of his Army is connected by a Chain of Light Troops with Marshal Wurmsler's Right, which occupies Kaiserlautern. Marshal Wurmsler has drawn his Line from Kaiserlautern, by Neustadt, along the Rivulet called the Spirebach, to the Rhine.

General Pichegru has made several Attempts to oblige the Austrians to abandon the Post of Kaiserlautern, and on the 20th Instant he attacked it with very superior Numbers; but, after an Action of several Hours, he was completely repulsed, with the Loss of near Two Thousand Men and several Canon.
