St. James's, January 23.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Orkney, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty that we heard, with the utmost Surprise and Abhorrence, of the wicked and atrocious Attempt made upon your Majesty's sacred Person when going to meet your Parliament.

That our justly beloved Sovereign had nearly fallen a Sacrifice to the unconstitutional and detestable Doctrines lately imported into these Kingdoms, and so industriously disseminated by unprincipled and desperate Men, who aim at overturning our happy and most excellent Constitution, has given us, almost the remotest of your Majesty's British Subjects, the greatest Alarm, and filled us with the justest Indignation; and we confide in the Wisdom and Energy of Parliament in discovering the Authors and Abettors of that most flagitious Attempt, and in providing a sufficient Remedy against the like in future.

We earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Majesty's Royal Successors of the Illustrious House of Hanover may sway the Sceptre of these Realms to the latest Posterity over a loyal, a free, and happy People.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment,
by Robert Baikie, Preses,
Capt. Orkney and Shetland Fencibles.

At Kirkwall, Dec 23, 1795.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

FELLING, as we do, the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation at the late inhuman and daring Attack made upon your Majesty's Person, in the Exercise of one of the highest Duties of your Government, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne to offer our most fervent Thanks to Divine Providence for His gracious Preservation of your Majesty and our sincerest Congratulations to your Majesty on that most happy, and, for these Kingdoms, most fortunate Event.

The Measures which the Wisdom of the Legislature has thought proper to adopt, we ardently hope and pray will tend to the better Security of your Majesty's Person, and to the Peace and Tranquillity of the Kingdom. And impressed, as we are, with a just Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we beg Leave to profess our most unfeigned Attachment to our Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of all Nations, as by Law established, in King, Lords and Commons.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's warm and paternal Affection for your People, we trust in your Majesty's Goodness to bestow upon your People the Blessings of Peace as soon as it can be attained and secured; and we most earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the House of Brunswick may for Ages continue to maintain the Rights and Liberties of the People of Great Britain.

Downing-Street, January 23.

THE following Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn having been transmitted by John Udny, Esq; to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory established at Leghorn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape in the late outrageous Attack which so much endangered your Royal Person.

Impelled at once by Duty and Inclination, we your Majesty's Subjects are happy in an Opportunity of tendering an unfeigned Assurance of our Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our fervent Prayers, that your Reign may continue long and prosperous over a free and happy united Subjects; and that your Descendants may transmit the Blessings of the Nation to the latest Posterity.

St. James's, January 23.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of cordial Congratulation.

Whilst we profess our affectionate Respect for your Majesty's Person and Family, and our firm Attachment to the Civil Constitution of our Country, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, we reflect, with Detestation and Horror, on the atrocious Insult and Outrage offered to your Majesty on a late interesting Occasion.

We participate the undisssembled Joy which your Majesty

Majesty's loyal Subjects of every Description have felt and expressed on your providential Deliverance; and we devoutly pray that God would preserve your Majesty's Life as a National Blessing, and that your Reign may be long, prosperous and happy.

We acknowledge with Satisfaction and Gratitude your Majesty's declared Intention of restoring Peace to our Country, and we unite our fervent Supplications that no unfavourable Event may occur to prevent or delay the Accomplishment of your Majesty's gracious Purpose.

Confiding in the Continuance of that Protection which we and our Ancestors have long enjoyed under the successive Princes of your Majesty's illustrious House, it will be our Study and Endeavour to approve ourselves worthy of it by our public Ministry and by our private Conduct.

Office for Auditing the Public Accounts,
Somerset Place, January 13, 1796.

WHEREAS divers Persons, to whom Money has been issued for Public Services, have neglected to deliver into this Office the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, in the Manner and within the Time prescribed by the Act for better examining and Auditing the Public Accounts of this Kingdom, the Commissioners for Auditing the Public Accounts have directed that Copies of the following Sections of the said Act be inserted in the London Gazette, in order that all Persons to whom Public Money has been, or shall be, so issued, may be informed of the Consequences of such Neglect.

Philip Deare,
Bernard Cobbe,
Inspectors-General of Accounts.

SECTION XVII. And whereas great Losses and Inconveniencies have arisen to the Public, by Sub-Accountants not having been put in Charge till a long Time has elapsed after the Monies were issued to them, be it enacted, That the Paymaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, the Treasurer of the Navy, the Treasurer of the Ordnance, and every other Public Officer who shall hereafter pay into the Hands of any Person or Persons whomsoever, Money for Public Services, by Way of Imprest or on Account, shall, within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, and within Thirty Days of the 31st Day of December in every future Year, transmit an Account of all Sums of Money issued or paid by him or them to any Person or Persons, for the Public Service, within the preceding Year, to the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority of this Act; who shall, and they are hereby required forthwith to transmit Duplicates of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall immediately, on Receipt of such Accounts, put the several Sums so issued in Charge against the Parties, in like Manner as is now practised with respect to Persons who receive Money by Way of Imprest, and on Account, at the Receipt of His Majesty's Exchequer.

SECTION XVIII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That no Accountant shall be allowed in his Account any Sum which he shall issue or pay over to any Sub-Accountants, unless he shall have transmitted to the said Commissioners regular Accounts thereof, in the Manner and within the Times abovementioned; unless Proof shall be produced, to the Satisfaction of the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners of the Treasury, that any Failure of transmitting the same did not happen from the wilful Neglect of the Person issuing or paying over the Money as aforesaid.

SECTION XIX. And whereas it is highly important, towards effecting the Purposes intended by this Act, that the Commissioners to be appointed under the Authority thereof should be empowered to compel Accountants to bring forward their Accounts; be it enacted, That the said Commissioners shall, so often as they shall think fit, call upon such Persons to whom Sums of Money have been or shall be so issued and paid, to render an Account of the same to them the said Commissioners, within a Time to be by them limited, and on Failure of the Accounts being delivered accordingly within the Time so limited, the said Commissioners shall, and they are hereby required to include the Names of all such Defaulters in their Certificates, transmitted to the Office of His Majesty's Remembrancer, in order that the usual Process may issue thereupon; and also, in case they shall see Cause, they are hereby required to give Notice thereof to His Majesty's Attorney General in England, His Majesty's Advocate in Scotland, or His Majesty's Attorney General in any of the Colonies or Plantations belonging to the Crown of Great Britain, as the Case may require, in order that such Motions may be made by the said Officers to the Court of Exchequer, or other proper Court, and such further or other Process may be issued in order to his moving the Court of Exchequer in England or Scotland, or the proper Court in the Colonies or Plantations, for special Process to be issued against such Defaulter or Defaulters, as may be deemed necessary to compel him or them to deliver in his or their Accounts, as directed by the said Commissioners, unless, upon Application of the Parties, their Agents or Attornies, to the Lord High Treasurer, or the Commissioners for Executing that Office, on a special Statement of Circumstances to justify Delay, the said Lord High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, shall grant their Warrant to stay the Process for such reasonable Time as they shall think fit.

SECTION XX. And be it further enacted and declared, That every Sub-Accountant to whom Money shall hereafter be issued for Public Services, in case the Money so issued shall have been for Services to be performed in Great Britain, shall deliver into the Office of the Commissioners to be appointed by virtue of this Act, the Vouchers for the Expenditure thereof, together with an Account Current, within Three Months of the End of each Year from the Commencement of his Account, unless it has been usual for such Account to be made up to any fixed Period in the Year; in which Case they shall be delivered within Three Months of the usual annual Time of the Determination of such Account respectively; and in case such Monies shall have been issued for Services to be performed in any Part of Europe out of this Kingdom, then the Vouchers shall be delivered within Four Months of the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; if in the West Indies, the Continent of America, or in Africa, within Six Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; and if in the East Indies, within Twelve Months after the Expiration of each Year's Accounts; unless it shall in each and every Case be made appear to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of the Treasury, that the Failure of transmitting the same, within the Periods beforementioned, was unavoidable; in which Case such further Delay may be granted by Warrant under the Hands of the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any Three of them, as they shall judge reasonable; and in such Cases the Vouchers shall shall be delivered at the Expiration of the Term of Delay so granted, on Pain, upon Failure in any of the abovementioned Cases, of paying such Fine to His Majesty as the Court of Exchequer, on Application made to them, shall think fit to set and impose; which Fine the said Court is hereby authorized and empowered to set and impose accordingly.

SECTION XXII. Provided always, and be it enacted, that when any Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall transmit to the Commissioners, to be appointed under the Authority of this Act, a sufficient and satisfactory Discharge from the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, the Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy, or the Commissioners for Sick and Hurt, for any Monies he or they shall have received in the said Department's severally, the said Commissioners shall transmit a Duplicate of the same to His Majesty's Remembrancer in the Court of Exchequer, who shall forthwith strike out the Name or Names of such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants from the Imprest Roll; and such Sub-Accountant or Sub-Accountants shall from thenceforth be discharged from any other or further Account for the same.
