

St. James's, January 23.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and other Heretors of the County of Orkney, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne, and to assure your Majesty that we heard, with the utmost Surprise and Abhorrence, of the wicked and atrocious Attempt made upon your Majesty's sacred Person when going to meet your Parliament.

That our justly beloved Sovereign had nearly fallen a Sacrifice to the unconstitutional and detestable Doctrines lately imported into these Kingdoms, and so industriously disseminated by unprincipled and desperate Men, who aim at overturning our happy and most excellent Constitution, has given us, almost the remotest of your Majesty's British Subjects, the greatest Alarm, and filled us with the justest Indignation; and we confide in the Wisdom and Energy of Parliament in discovering the Authors and Abettors of that most flagitious Attempt, and in providing a sufficient Remedy against the like in future.

We earnestly pray, that your Majesty may long continue to reign over us, and that your Majesty's Royal Successors of the Illustrious House of Hanover may sway the Sceptre of these Realms to the latest Posterity over a loyal, a free, and happy People.

Signed, in our Name and by our Appointment,
by Robert Baikie, Preses,
Capt. Orkney and Shetland Fencibles.

At Kirkwall, Dec 23, 1795.

St. James's, January 23.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

FEELING, as we do, the utmost Abhorrence and Indignation at the late inhuman and daring Attack made upon your Majesty's Person, in the Exercise of one of the highest Duties of your Government, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich, in Common Hall assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne to offer our most fervent Thanks to Divine Providence for His gracious Preservation of your Majesty and our sincerest Congratulations to your Majesty on that most happy, and, for these Kingdoms, most fortunate Event.

The Measures which the Wisdom of the Legislature has thought proper to adopt, we ardently hope and pray will tend to the better Security of your Majesty's Person, and to the Peace and Tranquillity of the Kingdom. And impressed, as we are, with a just Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government, we beg Leave to profess our most unfeigned Attachment to our Constitution, the Envy and Admiration of all Nations, as by Law established, in King, Lords and Commons.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's warm and paternal Affection for your People, we trust in your Majesty's Goodness to bestow upon your People the Blessings of Peace as soon as it can be attained and secured; and we most earnestly pray, that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, and that the House of Brunswick may for Ages continue to maintain the Rights and Liberties of the People of Great Britain.

Downing-Street, January 23.

THE following Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn having been transmitted by John Udny, Esq; to the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Consul and Members of the British Factory established at Leghorn.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Consul and Members of the British Factory at Leghorn, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne with our most sincere Congratulations on your Majesty's providential Escape in the late outrageous Attack which so much endangered your Royal Person.

Impelled at once by Duty and Inclination, we your Majesty's Subjects are happy in an Opportunity of tendering an unfeigned Assurance of our Zeal for your Majesty's Person and Government.

Permit us, Royal Sir, to add our fervent Prayers, that your Reign may continue long and prosperous over a free and happy united Subjects; and that your Descendants may transmit the Blessings of the Nation to the latest Posterity.

St. James's, January 23.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's faithful Subjects, the Protestant Dissenting Ministers of the Three Denominations in and about the Cities of London and Westminster, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of cordial Congratulation.

Whilst we profess our affectionate Respect for your Majesty's Person and Family, and our firm Attachment to the Civil Constitution of our Country, consisting of King, Lords and Commons, we reflect, with Detestation and Horror, on the atrocious Insult and Outrage offered to your Majesty on a late interesting Occasion.

We participate the undisssembled Joy which your Majesty
