Licence to import Bread, Flour, Indian Corn, and Live Stock, the Produce of the United States of America, into Newfoundland. W. F.

St. James's, January 27.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of London waited upon His Majesty, (being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, Knt. the Recorder.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, humbly approach the Throne with our sincerest Congratulations on the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the Birth of a Princess.

Deeply sensible of the true and substantial Blessings which we experience under your Majesty's mild and paternal Government, as essential to the Preservation of the Religion, Laws and Liberties of all your Majesty's Subjects, your faithful Citizens of London must feel themselves highly interested in an Event, which directly tends to secure to Britain the Succession of your illustrious Race on the Throne of their Ancestors.

Impressed, as we are, with such Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal House, it will be equally our Duty and Delight to promote, within our several Spheres, a grateful Veneration for your Majesty's sacred Person and Government; a due Submission and Respect for the Laws of our
