

Country, and a stedfast Zeal to preserve the Tranquillity of the Empire as the fundamental Protection of the invaluable Privileges which we enjoy.

Signed, by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I THANK you for this dutiful and loyal Address, and for your Congratulations on the Birth of a Princess. The repeated Instances which I have received of your Attachment to My Person, Family and Government, are highly satisfactory to Me.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, January 27.

THIS Day the Right Honorable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common-Council of the City of London, waited upon Her Majesty (being introduced by the Earl of Morton, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Household) with the following Address, which was read by Sir John William Rose, Knt. the Recorder.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common-Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the Birth of a Princess.

The Citizens of London feel the most lively Sentiments of Joy on every Occasion which contributes to your Majesty's domestick Felicity, and the sacred Line of Succession to the Throne of these Kingdoms thus preserved, forms a very material Portion of their Happiness—Conscious as they are that no Advantage will be wanting to form her infant Mind after the virtuous Example of the illustrious Females of your Majesty's Royal House.

That your Majesty may be long spared to witness the Growth of those transcendent Virtues of which your Majesty forms so eminent a Pattern, is the sincere Prayer of the loyal Citizens of London.

Signed, by Order of Court,
WILLIAM RIX.

To which Address Her Majesty was pleased to return the following most gracious Answer:

I RETURN you my sincere Thanks for your Congratulations on the Birth of a Princess; and I cannot but be very sensible of those cordial Expressions of Attention to Me with which they are accompanied.

They were all received very graciously, and had the Honor to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

St. James's, January 30.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Sudbury, in the County of Suffolk, in Common Hall assembled, happy on every Occasion of approaching your Royal Presence with our most dutiful Congratulations, beg Leave to express our unfeigned Joy on the happy and auspicious Event, the Birth of a Princess, perpetuating the Line of the illustrious House of Brunswick, under whose mild Government the British Subjects have been long blessed with a full Enjoyment of their civil and religious Rights.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty, and may there never be wanting one of your Majesty's Royal Descendants to be the Guardian of our happy Constitution.

Signed, by Appointment of the said Common Hall, and the Common Seal of the said Borough is appointed to be hereto affixed, by me, the said Mayor, at Sudbury aforesaid, this 25th Day of January, 1796.

Jos. Humphry, Mayor.

[Presented by J. Cox Hippisley, Esq; Recorder, and one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex in their General Quarter Session assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most cordial and joyful Congratulations on the Birth of a Princess to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

The just Sense we entertain of the inestimable Liberties and Privileges all your Majesty's Subjects have enjoyed since the happy Accession of the illustrious House of Brunswick to the Throne of these Kingdoms, induce us to consider every Increase of your Royal Family as an additional Security for our Continuance in the Enjoyment of those invaluable Blessings. It is therefore our sincere Wish and most ardent Hope that your Majesty and your Royal Descendants may reign over these Realms to the latest Posterity.

Signed, at the Request of the Justices in General Quarter Session assembled, January 14th, 1796.

W. Mainwaring,

Chairman of the Sessions.

[Presented by W. Mainwaring, Esq; the Chairman.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen and Yeomanry of Hingham, Dereham, Loddon and Clavering, Blofield and South Walsham, Tunstead and Happing Troops of Cavalry, in the County of Norfolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen and Yeomanry of the Hingham, Dereham, Loddon and Clavering, Blofield and South Walsham, Tunstead and Happing Troops of Cavalry, in the County of Norfolk, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with our most hearty Congratulations on your Escape from the late outrageous Attack on your sacred Person, made at a Time when you were going to exercise one of the most valuable Privileges of Sovereignty.

Whilst we lament the fatal Delusion that led these atrocious Offenders to such an outrageous Conduct
