By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For a General FAST.

GEORGE R.

WE, taking into Our most serious Consideration the just and necessary War in which We are engaged, and putting Our Trust in Almighty God that He will graciously bless Our Arms, both by Sea and Land, have resolved, and do, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, hereby command, That a Publick Fast and Humiliation be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Wednesday the Ninth Day of March next; that so both We and Our People may humble Ourselves before Almighty God, in order to obtain Pardon of Our Sins, and may in the most devout and solemn Manner send up Our Prayers and Supplications to the Divine Majesty, for averting those heavy Judgments which Our manifold Sins and Provocations have most justly deserved; and imploring His Blessing and Assistance on Our Arms, and for restoring and perpetuating Peace, Safety and Prosperity to Us and Our Kingdoms: And We do strictly charge and command, That the said Publick Fast be reverently and devoutly observed by all Our loving Subjects in England, Our Dominion of Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn and neglect the Performance of so religious and necessary a Duty. And for the better and more orderly solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches, Chapels, and Places of Publick Worship; and to take Care the same be timely dispersed throughout their respective Dioceses.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twelfth Day of February, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

Carlton House, February 23.

THE following Addresses have been presented to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales: Which Addresses His Royal Highness was pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

May it please your Royal Highness,

WE, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness with Sentiments of profound and respectful Veneration, as the Heir Apparent to the Crown of these Realms. We most sincerely congratulate your Royal Highness and your illustrious Consort on the Birth of a Princess: And, amidst the Convulsions of surrounding States, and the Distractions which the Enemies to Order and just Subordination may occasionally produce at Home, we most ardently wish that Happiness and Peace may attend your Royal Highness and Family.

Attached from Principle to the Regal Government and Constitution of this Country, we deprecate the Designs of factious Men to subvert them, and, confiding in the Protection of that Divine Being who has so remarkably distinguished this Nation by the Bounties of his Providence, we humbly hope that every Attempt to destroy the Public Tranquillity will be averted, and that while this Nation has an Existence as a People, there will not be wanting a Descendant of your Royal Highness's august House to fill the British Throne.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed our Common Seal the 11th Day of February, 1796.

[Presented by John Wilmot, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City.]

Signed at the Request of the Justices in General Quarter Session assembled, 24th of January, 1796.

At a Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, held the 19th of February, 1796,

The following DECLARATION, on the Part of the Court, was agreed to and signed, viz.

UPON the great and important Question relative to the Shipping Concerns of the Company, submitted to the General Court on Wednesday the 17th Instant; the Court of Directors think it their indispensible Duty to declare, that all Papers necessary for determining the Question proposed to the General Court were annexed to their Reports, circulated to the Proprietors a Week before; and that all other Papers relative to Shipping were ready to be produced to the General Court; that the Papers referred to, in the Question to be ballotted for, are Papers merely of ordinary Detail of Proceedings, and do not furnish any new Ground of Information for the Decision of the Question so highly important to the Interest of the Proprietors, the Company and the Public, which Papers, nevertheless, have been for some Time past preparing, and will all be printed by Tuesday next; and moreover, that, by the Adoption of the Amendment by the General Court, the Whole of the main Question for confirming the Reports of the Court of Directors is, for the present at least, done away: The Court of Directors therefore trust and hope, that the Proprietors will support the Executive Body, by voting against the Question now to be ballotted for, in order that there may be no further Delay in coming to a decided Opinion whether the System brought forward in the said Reports is or is not fitting to be carried into immediate Execution.
