

Board any Vessel not bound directly to some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, or to some other of the Dominions of the Crown of Great Britain; and all Tools so seized shall, after Condemnation, be publicly sold to the best Bidder; and one Moiety of the Produce shall be to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Officer who shall seize and secure the same.

If the Captain of any Vessel in Great Britain or Ireland knowingly permit any of the said Tools, prohibited to be exported, to be put on Board his Vessel, he shall, for every such Offence, forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as the Penalties inflicted upon Persons exporting the Tools; and, if the Vessel belongs to His Majesty, the Captain shall not only forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, but shall also forfeit his Employment, and be incapable of any Employment under His Majesty.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain, or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Cocket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Statutes 14, 21, 25 and 26 of His present Majesty.

BY these Statutes the like Penalties and Forfeitures as above mentioned are extended to Persons packing or putting on board any Vessel, not bound directly for some Port in Great Britain or Ireland, any Machine, Engine, Tool, Press, Paper, Utensil or Implement whatsoever, used in or proper for the working or finishing of the Cotton, Steel or Iron Manufactures of this Kingdom, or any Part or Parts of such Machines or Implements, or any Models or Plans thereof; and all Captains of Ships and other Persons receiving or being in Possession of any such Articles, with an Intent to export the same to Foreign Parts, and all Custom-house Officers suffering an Entry to be made thereof, are respectively liable to the like Penalties as are above mentioned, in the Case of Tools and Utensils used in the Woollen and Silk Manufactures.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Sacred Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Isle of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, beg Leave thus at the Feet of your Majesty to offer our most sincere and heartfelt Congratulations on the auspicious Birth of a Princess, Daughter to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.

Impressed ever with Sentiments of warmest Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and beneficent Reign of your Majesty, and remembering that under that paternal and truly patriotic Sway those Realms, surest Proof of best and wisest Government, have arisen to a Pitch of Prosperity, of Power, and of Grandeur, unexampled before (in the same Space of Time) in the History of the World, and second to no others on Earth, your Majesty's Subjects, in loyal and ardent Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Government and Family, we cannot but most heartily rejoice in an Event which, whilst it adds to the domestic Felicity of your Majesty, an Object also most dear to our Hearts, gives, Sir, to all your faithful Subjects an additional Security for the Continuance to their Posterity of all those Blessings they themselves so amply enjoy: And most fervently is it our Prayer to the Almighty Ruler of the Universe, that your Majesty may long, very long, continue to reign over us; and that to latest Posterity those Nations may be governed and blessed by Princes of your Majesty's illustrious House and direct Line, Inheritors of your Majesty's Virtues as of your Throne, and therefore, like your Majesty, reigning in the Hearts, as over, a free, a happy, and a grateful People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Keys, the Constitutional Representatives of the People, of the Isle of Mann.

SENSIBLE of the many Blessings we enjoy under the mild and auspicious Government of your Majesty, and impressed with Sentiments of the purest Loyalty, we beg Leave to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the safe Delivery of Her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales, and the Birth of a Princess; and to express, in common with all your Majesty's Subjects, our sincere Wish, that so interesting an Event may add to the Happiness and Comfort of your Majesty, the Queen, His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, his Illustrious Consort, and all the Royal Family.

By Order of the House,
