Carlton House, March 12.

THE following Addresses have been presented to Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales: Which Addresses Their Royal Highnesses were pleased to receive very graciously.

To His Royal Highness the PRINCE of WALES.

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Isle of Mann, in Tynwald assembled, beg Leave thus to approach your Royal Highness with our most sincere Congratulations on the auspicious Birth of a Princess, Daughter to your Royal Highness.

When, Royal Sir, we reflect on the many Blessings, which, under the mild and beneficent Reign of the most illustrious House of Brunswick, those Nations have and do still enjoy, that under their just and truly patriotic Government they have arisen to a Height of Prosperity and Glory, of which, in the same Space of Time, the History of the World furnishes no Example; and when we contemplate in your Royal Highness those many amiable and princely Virtues, affording sure Promise that all the Blessings of good Government shall, when in the Fulness of Time it shall please the Almighty Disposer of Events to call your Royal Highness to the sovereign Rule, flow to our Children; we cannot, Sir, but ardently rejoice in an Event, which, whilst it adds to the domestic Felicity of your Royal Highness, gives to the Nations an additional Security for the Continuance of those Blessings; and most fervently, Sir, is it our Prayer that to latest Posterity those Nations may be governed and blessed by Princes of the illustrious House of Brunswick, and each in Succession nobly emulating the Virtues and the Glories of his Royal Ancestors, reigning in the Hearts as well as over a free, a happy and grateful People.

[Price Nine-pence.]

To Her Royal Highness the PRINCESS of WALES.

The humble Address of the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the Island of Mann.

WE, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Deemsters of the said Island, beg Leave to approach your Royal Highness with the warmest Tender of our Congratulations on your safe Delivery and the Birth of a Princess.

From the Happiness and Freedom we enjoy under the Auspices of our ruling Sovereign, well may we congratulate ourselves in an Event that promises to prolong and secure these Blessings to us.

Far be it from us, however, Madam, to be so absorbed in contemplating our own Joys as to indicate an Indifference about your's: May this Royal Stranger, this first Pledge of your Love, become, as she grows in Years, a personal and peculiar Blessing to you and your Royal Consort, and may every Increase of your Progeny be an Increase of your Happiness.

Downing-Street, March 11.

The King has been pleased to appoint Robert Liston, Esq; to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the United States of America.

The King has also been pleased to appoint Edward Thornton, Esq; to be His Majesty's Secretary of Legation to the said United States.

York-House, March 10.

HIS Royal Highness Field-Marshal the Duke of York will have his next Military Levee on Thursday the 7th of April; which will be the last this Season.
