And Three Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE Publick Business being now concluded, I think it proper to close this Session, and, at the same Time, to acquaint you with My Intention of giving immediate Directions for calling a new Parliament.

The Objects which have engaged your Attention, during the present Session, have been of peculiar Importance, and the Measures which you have adopted have manifested your continued Regard to the Safety and Welfare of My People.

The happiest Effects have been experienced from the Provisions which you have made for repressing Sedition and Civil Tumult, and for restraining the Progress of Principles subversive of all established Government.

The Difficulties arising to My Subjects from the high Price of Corn have formed a principal Object of your Deliberation; and your Assiduity in investigating that Subject has strongly proved your anxious Desire to omit nothing which could tend to the Relief of My People in a Matter of such general Concern.

I have the greatest Satisfaction in observing that the Pressure of those Difficulties is now in a great Degree removed.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I must, in a more particular Manner, return you My Thanks for the liberal Supplies which you have granted granted to meet the Exigencies of the War. While I regret the Extent of those Demands, which the present Circumstances necessarily occasion, it is a great Consolation to Me to observe the increasing Resources by which the Country is enabled to support them.

These Resources are particularly manifested in the State of the different Branches of the Revenue, in the continued and progressive Extension of Our Navigation and Commerce, in the Steps which have been taken for maintaining and improving the Publick Credit, and in the additional Provision which has been made for the Reduction of the National Debt.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I shall ever reflect, with heartfelt Satisfaction, on the uniform Wisdom, Temper, and Firmness, which have appeared in all your Proceedings since I first met you in this Place. Called to deliberate on the Publick Affairs of your Country, in a Period of Domestic and Foreign Tranquillity, you had the Happiness of contributing to raise this Kingdom to a State of unexampled Prosperity.

You were suddenly compelled to relinquish the full Advantages of this Situation, in order to resist the unprovoked Aggression of an Enemy, whose Hostility was directed against all Civil Society, but more particularly against the happy Union of Order and Liberty, as established in these Kingdoms.

The Nature of the System introduced into France afforded to that Country, in the Midst of its Calamities, the Means of Exertion beyond the Experience of any former Time. Under the Pressure of the new and unprecedented Difficulties arising from such a Contest, you have shewn yourselves worthy of all the Blessings that you inherit. By your Councils and Conduct the Constitution has been preserved inviolate against the Designs of Foreign and Domestic Enemies; the Honor of the British Name has been asserted; the Rank and Station which We have hitherto held in Europe has been maintained; and the decided Superiority of Our Naval Power has been established in every Quarter of the World.

You have omitted no Opportunity to prove your just Anxiety for the Re-establishment of General Peace on secure and honourable Terms; but you have, at the same Time, rendered it manifest to the World, that while Our Enemies shall persist in Dispositions incompatible with that Object, neither the Resources of My Kingdom, nor the Spirit of My People, will be wanting to the Support of a just Cause, and to the Defence of all their dearest Interests.

A due Sense of this Conduct is deeply impressed on My Heart.—I trust that all My Subjects are animated with the same Sentiments; and that their Loyalty and Publick Spirit will ensure the Continuance of that Union and mutual Confidence between Me and My Parliament, which best promote the true Dignity and Glory of My Crown, and the genuine Happiness of My People.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of July next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of July next.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of July next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgeffs, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Fifth Day of July next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a New Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to Our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue our Writs, in due Form, for calling a New Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teste on Saturday the Twenty-first Day of this instant May, and to be returnable on Tuesday the Twelfth Day of July following.

of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and Ninety-six, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

Pardon then, most gracious Sovereign, that we have presumed to intrude, and beseech your Most Excellent Majesty to take this our humble Address into your Royal Consideration, and grant to our Governor that Mark of Approbation as your Majesty in your Royal Wisdom shall think fit.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council and General Assembly of Tobago, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your happy and providential Escape from the daring and wicked Attempt aimed against your Majesty's Life at the Opening of the present Session of Parliament.

Impressed with the most affectionate Sentiments of Veneration for your Majesty, and the firmest Attachment to the Constitution, we feel the utmost Abhorrence and Detestation of so atrocious an Outrage, not only endangering the Safety of your Majesty's Royal Person, but calculated in it's Consequences to disturb the Tranquility of your Majesty's Government and risk the Ruin of your Dominions.

We trust that the Authors of such flagrant Crimes will not long escape the Arm of Justice, and that the Measures adopted by your Majesty's Parliament will in future give full Security to your Majesty's sacred Person, and that happy Constitution under which we live.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 18th Day of May, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint Charles Earl of Northampton to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Northampton, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Cayley, of His Majesty's Ship Invincible, to Mr. Nepean, Secretary to the Admiralty, dated at Sea, the 4th of April, 1796, Lat. 35. 28. N. Long. 18. 16. W.

ON the 1st Instant, in Lat. 37. 11. N. and Long. 18. 2. W. we captured the Alexander French Privateer, of Ten Guns and Sixty-six Men, commanded by Mons. Petre Edite, belonging to Nantz, out Ten Days; had captured the Signior Montcalm, from Lisbon, bound to the Brazils, which Ship was also recaptured. The Convoy being so near Madeira, I thought it proper to send the Albicore there with the recaptured Vessel, with Orders to endeavour to join the Convoy again as soon as possible. The Privateer I shall carry with me to the West Indies.

Extract of a Letter from Adam Duncan, Esq; Admiral of the Blue, and Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the North Sea, to Mr. Nepean, Secretary to the Admiralty, dated Venerable, at Sea, May 16, 1796.—At Noon, Texel, S. E. by E. Distance 15 Leagues.

BE pleased to acquaint the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, on the 12th Instant, at Day-Light, (the Texel then bearing N. W. by W. Distance about 8 Leagues) I discovered a Frigate and Brig standing in to the Fleet, making the private Signal to speak with me; they proved to be His Majesty's Ship Pegasus and Sylph Sloop, whom I had ordered to cruize off the Naze of Norway. Captain Donnelly came on Board, and informed me, that in consequence of the Information he had received on the 8th Instant, of the Dutch Frigate Argo and Three National Brigs having left Flickeroe the Day before, bound to the Texel, he proceeded off the Jutland Coast, and on the Morning of the 9th got Sight of them. He kept near them all Day, but lost Sight of them about Ten o'Clock that Night; and judging it proper to make me acquainted therewith, directed Captain White, of the Sylph, to steer a different Course to himself in order to fall in with me, and luckily they both joined. Having consulted with Captain Donnelly, and found they could not be many Leagues from us, I immediately dispatched Captain Halsted in the Phoenix, together with the Leopard, Pegasus and Sylph, to proceed to the Northward of the Texel, and spread the rest of the Squadron. All the Ships had just made Sail about Five o'Clock, when the Signal was made for seeing the Dutch Frigate and Brigs; made the Signal for a general Chace, it then blowing strong at W. N. W. with very hazy Weather. At a little before Nine o'Clock the Phoenix got up with the Dutch Frigate Argo, mounting 36 Guns and manned with 237 Men, and, after a very smart Action of about Half an Hour, (during which Time she made every Effort to get off) she struck to the Phoenix's superior Fire; for the Particulars of which must beg to refer their Lordships to Captain Halsted's Letter herewith inclosed, who, I have the Pleasure to say, has on this and every other Occasion, whilst under my Command, shewn himself to be a most active, zealous and excellent Officer.

We continued in Chace of the Brigs, leaving the Powerful to assist Captain Halsted in shifting the Prisoners, &c. At Ten o'Clock we saw the Leander and Pegasus near Two of the Brigs, (which I have since found to be the Echo of 18 Guns, and the De Gier of 14 Guns) but it was so hazy and blowing so hard, we soon lost Sight of them; however, by the inclosed Letter I received from Captain Donnelly, their Lordships will be informed they were both run on Shore near Bafch, about Ten Leagues to the Eastward of the Texel.

The Leander, I find, stood so near the Shore as she could with Safety, and saw one of the Brigs aground; and from the Report of the Master of one of the Cutters I sent in Shore, after, find one of them was completely lost; the other had beat over a Shoal, and got to an Anchor, but as it blew a perfect Storm the next Day on Shore, have Reason to believe she is lost also.

We stood after the other Brig, and a little before Eleven she struck to the Sylph; she proves to be the Mercury of 16 Guns, (all of which except Two she had thrown overboard during the Chace) and manned with 85 Men. We then found ourselves far to the Eastward, with the Wind on Shore, which obliged us to carry a Press of Sail, and in the Night it came to blow a very hard Gale of Wind, which continued the whole of the next Day; and the Day following, being more moderate, was rejoined by the Powerful, Phoenix and Brilliant, together with the Dutch Frigate and the Duke of York Bye-Boat from Yarmouth to Hamburgh, which had been captured by the Argo the Day before, and retaken by the Phoenix on the 12th. The Frigate is in excellent Condition, and in a few Days might be got ready for Sea and made a complete Cruiser.

I am, &c.

ADAM DUNCAN.

Pegasus, Texel, S. S. W. distant 20 Leagues, May 12, 1796.

SIR,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that Two of the Dutch Brigs which we chased this Morning got close in with the Land about Bosch, on the Coast of Frizeland, and finding by our outfalling them that they had no other Means of Escape, run on Shore close to us; one of them floated off, but she afterwards took the Ground, and, having touched it ourselves, we found it necessary to stand off, leaving them with Signals of Distress in their Foretop-Mast Shrouds, and firing Guns.

We should have endeavoured to get between them and the Land, but could not haul sufficiently up without shortening a great deal of Sail, which would have been the Means of letting them fore-reach upon us so as to get away. My Motive for giving this Information is in the Event of the Ships after not having been sufficiently near to have ascertained it.

As it would have taken some Time to work up to you, I judged it prudent to proceed in pursuance of of the former Orders you gave me, which I hope will meet your Approbation.

I am, &c.

ROSS DONNELLY.

Adam Duncan, Esq;
Es. Es. Es.

P. S. We judge the Brigs to have been the Echo and Gier.

SIR, Phoenix, at Sea, May 15, 1796.

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, that a short Time after I received your Orders on the Morning of the 12th Instant, we saw Five Sail on the Lee Bow in the S. E. Quarter, upon a Wind on the Starboard Tack, which we made out to be a Frigate, Three armed Brigs, and a Cutter. I immediately made Sail, and soon discovered them to be Enemies; at the same Time the Pegasus made the Signal for such to you. Upon our near Approach, the Brigs bore up and made Sail; the Pegasus and Sylph followed them, who were in Chace with me, the Frigate apparently undetermined whether to go large or keep by the Wind, as she often changed her Position during the Chace, but at length kept with the Wind a-beam. Quarter past Eight, A. M. being close on her Weather Quarter, she hoisted Dutch Colours, upon which I ordered a Shot to be fired across her; a few Minutes after we were close alongside her to Windward, when a smart Action commenced on both Sides, which lasted about Twenty Minutes, when the Dutch Frigate Argo, of 36 Guns and 237 Men, struck to His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, under my Command.

It is with infinite Pleasure I assure you of the very steady and cool Behaviour of the Officers and Ship's Company I have the Honor to command, it being such as to merit every Thing I can say in their Praise.

I beg Leave to recommend in the strongest Manner, through you to their Lordships, Mr. Joseph Wood, First Lieutenant, who, from long Experience and steady Officer-like Conduct, is highly deserving their most particular Attention. Our Loss consists of One Man killed, and Three wounded; that of the Enemy Six killed and Twenty-eight wounded, some of them dangerously.

The Sails, Standing and Running Rigging, received some Damage, as did the Enemy's, but not of so much Consequence but was soon put to rights. The Frigate and Brigs were from Norway, bound to the Texel; the Cutter which we retook is the Duke of York Packet, from Yarmouth to the Elbe, taken by them the Day before.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

L. W. HALSTED.

Adam Duncan, Esq; Admiral
of the Blue, Es. Es. Es.

Whitehall, May 21, 1796.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by his Grace the Duke of Portland, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Earl of Balcarres, dated Jamaica, March 26, 1796.

I Have the Satisfaction to inform your Grace of the Termination of the Maroon War.

Thirty-six Trelawny Maroons, and all the runaway Negroes who had joined them in Rebellion, surrendered their Arms on the 17th and 21st of March.

The Maroons to Windward, who had shewn a most refractory and disobedient Spirit since the Commencement of the Rebellion, have made their Submission, and on their Knees, in the Presence of Commissioners, have sworn Allegiance to His Majesty. I shall, by the Packet, inclose the Commission, and the Return upon it.

The most perfect internal Tranquillity is restored to the Island: The Slaves on every Plantation are obedient, contented, and happy.

Our Operations against the Rebels have been carried on with unremitting Vigour. In following the Enemy into their new Recesses, the Troops have undergone Fatigue hardly to be credited: The last Column which moved against them were Five Days without one Drop of Water, except what they found in the wild Pines.

The Rebels, worn out with Fatigue, continually harrassed and disturbed in every new Settlement, have been conquered in a Country where no European had ever thought of penetrating.

The very fortunate Close of this War is to be ascribed to the Activity and good Conduct of Major-General Walpole, and I most humbly recommend him to His Majesty's Favour.
