J. Girdler.

Whitehall, May 3, 1796.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Friday the 8th of April last a Number of Persons came in a riotous and unlawful Manner to the House of John Carter, at Carneggy, in the Parish of Breage, in the County of Cornwall, Farmer, and violently assaulted Richard Harwey, Richard Williams, Joseph Thomas, and John Williams, the Servants of the said John Carter, by beating them with Sticks, and by fixing a Rope around their Necks, and dragging them about therewith, to the great Injury of their Persons and Danger of their Lives, and afterwards left the following Notice nailed up upon the Premises of the said John Carter's House:

“ This is to give notice that if the Inhabitants of “ this House is not home tomorrow morning by ten “ o'clock in the forenoon they may expect to see it “ all broken open, and levelled to Ground.”

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in assaulting and beating, or attempting to fix the said Rope round the Necks of the said Richard Harwey, Joseph Thomas, Richard Williams, and John Williams, in Manner aforesaid, and for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing and nailing up the said Notice, is hereby pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually fixed the said Rope around the Necks of the said Richard Harwey, Joseph Thomas, Richard Williams, and John Williams, or either of them, and the Person or Persons who actually wrote or nailed up the said Notice) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

Whitehall, April 30, 1796.

*WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the 5th Day of October last, a Number of ill-disposed Persons assembled, in a riotous and unlawful Manner, at Perranzebuloe in the County of Cornwall, and by Force and Arms prevented John Christian, the High Constable of the Hundred of Pyder in the said County, and other Constables then and there with him, from apprehending Willium Rowe alias Sharpy, John Thomas alias Geak, Joseph Teague and James Morrish, of the Parishes of Perranzebuloe aforesaid, and St.
Agnes in the said County, for feloniously breaking and entering the House of John Johns, and unlawfully taking away therefrom a large Quantity of Wheat and Malt, the said John Christian having Warrants, under the Hand and Seal of John Thomas, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County, for that Purpose: And whereas, in the Execution of such unlawful Acts, the said Persons so assembled as aforesaid fired several Shots into and upon the House of David Mitchell, one of the said Constables, to which House the said John Christian had retreated for Protection and Safety:*

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who so feloniously fired such Shots into and upon the said House, into which the said John Christian had so retreated as aforesaid, and who in the said unlawful and tumultuous Manner prevented the due and proper Execution of the said Warrants, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person or Persons who actually fired such Shots) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.
