By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For Dissolving this present Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to dissolve this present Parliament, which now stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fifth Day of July next: We do, for that End, publish this Our Royal Proclamation; and do hereby dissolve the said Parliament accordingly. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs, of the House of Commons, are discharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tuesday the said Fifth Day of July next. And We being desirous and resolved, as soon as may be, to meet Our People, and to have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all Our loving Subjects Our Royal Will and Pleasure to call a New Parliament: And do hereby further declare, that, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to Our Chancellor of Great Britain to issue out Writs, in due Form, for calling a New Parliament; which Writs are to bear Teste on Saturday the Twenty-first Day of this instant May, and to be returnable on Tuesday the Twelfth Day of July following.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Twentieth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

In order to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have, in Our Council, thought fit to declare Our Pleasure, for Summoning and Holding a Parliament of Great Britain, on Tuesday the Twelfth Day of July next ensuing the Date hereof: In order, therefore, to the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to sit in the House of Peers in the said Parliament, We do, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, issue forth this Our Royal Proclamation, strictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to assemble and meet at Holy-Rood House, in Edinburgh, on Thursday the Thirtieth Day of June next ensuing, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and choose the Sixteen

[ Price Nine-pence. ]

Sixteen Peers, to sit and vote in the House of Peers, in the said ensuing Parliament, by open Election and Plurality of Voices of the Peers which shall be then present, and of the Proxies of such as shall be absent, (such Proxies being Peers, and producing a Mandate in Writing duly signed before Witnesses, and both the Constituent and Proxy being qualified according to Law.) And the Lord Clerk Register, or such Two of the Principal Clerks of the Session, as shall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby respectively required to attend such Meeting, and to administer the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the said Peers, and to take their Votes; and, immediately after such Election made, and duly examined, to certify the Names of the Sixteen Peers so elected, and sign and attest the same, in the Presence of the said Peers the Electors; and return such Certificate into Our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And We do, by this Our Proclamation, strictly command and require the Provost of Edinburgh, and all other the Magistrates of the said City, to take especial Care to preserve the Peace thereof during the Time of the said Election; and to prevent all Manner of Riots, Tumults, Disorders and Violence whatsoever. And We strictly charge and command, that this Our Royal Proclamation be duly published at the Market Cross at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty-five Days at least before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the said Peers to proceed to such Election.

Witness Ourself at Westminster, the Twentieth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and Ninety-six, in the Thirty-sixth Year of Our Reign.

Whitehall, May 24.

The King has been pleased to grant unto George Hall, of Chiswell-Street, Moorfields, in the County of Middlesex, Gent. His Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may assume and use the Surname of Brettell only, out of Respect to the Memory of Thomas Brettell, late Captain of the Ship Canton in the Service of the Honorable East India Company, deceased: And also to order that this His Majesty's Concession and Declaration be registered in His College of Arms.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 24, 1796.

SUCH Ladies as desire to dance Minuets at the Ball which is to be at St. James's on Saturday the 4th of June next, are requested to send their Names and Rank, in Writing, to this Office, on or before Thursday the 2d of June, and to send for their Tickets the next Day (Friday) between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon. And to prevent the Inconveniencies which have arisen from the Space before Their Majesties, which is allotted for Minuet Dancing, being exceedingly crowded, it is requested that those Ladies only who mean to dance will send for Dancers Tickets, and sit in those Places, as the Seats have been found too few to accommodate the Dancers.

Navy-Office, May 14, 1796.

THE Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for the Payment of Half-Pay to Sea-Officers from the 1st of July to the 31st of December, 1795, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf: These are to give Notice, that the several Payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of the Navy, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, on the following Days, viz.

On Tuesday the 24th Instant, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attornies.

On Wednesday the 25th and Thursday the 26th, to Lieutenants and their Attornies:

And on Friday the 27th to Masters and Surgeons.

After which the List will be recalled the First and Third Wednesday in every Month, that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them; and not only to bring with them the Affidavit required, touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any Public Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay, but also to produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths of Allegiance required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty: And in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attornies for that Purpose, that the said Attornies do produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are Abroad on Leave, their Agents are to produce attested Copies of such Leave, before the Half-Pay can be paid.

And as by an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, “ An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for the Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy,” it is enacted by the 20th Clause of the said Act, “ That if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive Half-Pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same near to the Place of his Residence, he may apply by Letter to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy in London to have such Half-Pay paid at or near the Place of his Residence in the Manner pointed out by the said Act;” Notice is hereby further given, that the Half-Pay ending the 31st of December, 1795, will commence paying on the 24th of this Month; and all Persons desirous of having their Half-Pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed.

Navy-Office, May 14, 1796.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament passed in the Thirty-fifth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, “ An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious Method for Payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy;” The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Pensions due to Officers and Widows at Christmas last, in order that such Persons that are desirous of having the Amount remitted to them, may apply to the said Treasurer for that Purpose.

Navy-Office, May 19, 1796.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Tuesday the 31st Instant, at One o'Clock, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to supply His Majesty's several Yards with Bees-wax on a standing Contract, to commence immediately.

No Tender will be received after Twelve o'Clock, nor any noticed unless the Party, or an Agent for him, attends.

Navy-Office, May 14, 1796.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice to the Proprietors of all Navy Bills, registered between the 1st of February, 1795, and the 30th of September following, which are to be subscribed into 5 l. per Cent. Bank Annuities, pursuant to a Resolution of the Honorable House of Commons of the 2d Instant, that such of the said Bills as have been delivered into this Office, to have the Interest computed and marked thereon, will be ready to be returned to them, as follows, viz. Those registered in the Month of February, as soon as called for; and those registered in the other Months, by the End of next Week. And such Proprietors who have not yet sent their Bills to this Office, are desired to send them in as soon as possible, that the necessary Preparation of them may take Place before the Time limited for subscribing them expires.

Transport-Office, May 16, 1796.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service do hereby give Notice, that the Transport Bills, made out on or before the 30th Day of September, 1795, which have been presented at this Office for the Purpose of having the Interest computed and marked thereon, preparatory to their being funded, conformably to the Resolution of the Honorable House of Commons of the 2d Instant, are ready to be delivered to the respective Persons intitled to receive the same.

Navy-Office, May 11, 1796.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 25th of this Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, Commissioner Sir Charles Saxton will expose to Sale, at the Pay-Office in His Majesty's Yard near Portsmouth, Several Lots of old Stores, lying in the said Yard; where any Person may have the Liberty of viewing them, during the common Working Hours of the Yard, till the Day of Sale.

Inventories and Conditions of Sale may be had here and at the Yard.

Vidually-Office, May 14, 1795.

THE Commissioners for Viduallying His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that the Viduallying Bills, made out on or before the 30th of September, 1795, which have been presented at this Office for the Purpose of having the Interest computed and marked thereon, preparatory to their being funded, conformably to the Resolution of the Honorable House of Commons, dated the 2d Instant, are ready to be delivered to the respective Persons entitled to receive the same.

Transport Office, May 17, 1796.

THE Commissioners for conducting His Majesty's Transport Service, and for the Care and Custody of Prisoners of War, do hereby give Notice, that on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, the 2d, 3d, and 4th of June next, will be sold by Public Auction at Southampton,

A large Quantity of Stores,

Consisting of Tents of various Denominations, new and old, with Poles, &c. Pack-Saddles, Horse-Harness, all Kinds of Implements for Baking in the Field, Triangles, Scales, Beams and Weights, various Articles of Coopers and House-Carpenters Tools, a Number of Camp Waggon with Woollen Tilts, and Canvas Covers painted, Tarpaulins and Water-Decks, Corn-Sacks, Beds and Blankets, Wood and Iron bound Water-Casks, and a Variety of other Articles, which will be expressed in the Catalogues.

All the said Stores, &c. are now lying in His Majesty's Transport Stores at Southampton and Northam, at which Places they may be viewed at any Time prior to the aforesaid Days of Sale.

Each Purchaser is to make a Deposit of 25 l. per Cent. upon the Amount of each Lot at the Time of Sale; and should the Remainder of the Purchase-Money be unpaid, and the Articles not taken away within the Seven following Days after the last Day of the Sale, the Deposit will be forfeited, and the said Articles will continue to be the Property of the Crown.

Further Particulars may be known by Application to Lieutenant R. P. Young, Agent for the Transport Service, at Southampton.

Transport-Office, May 5, 1796.

THE Honorable House of Commons having, on the 2d Instant, come to the following Resolutions,

“ That all Persons interested in or entitled unto “ any Bills payable in Course of the Navy, Victual-
 “ ling and Transport Offices, which were made out
 “ on or before the 31st Day of May, 1795, who “ shall, on or before the 1st Day of July, 1796, “ carry the same (after having had the Interest due
 “ thereupon computed and marked upon the said
 “ Bills at the Navy, Victualling and Transport-Of“ fices respectively, to the 30th Day of April last)
 “ to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to be “ marked or certified by him, or his Pay-Matter and “ Cashier, of the Governor and Company of the “ Bank of England, shall be entitled in respect of “ the same to 105 l. Capital Stock for every 100 l.
 “ contained in such Certificates, and so in Proportion
 “ for any greater or lesser Sum; such Capital “ Stock to be attended with Annuities after the “ Rate of 5 l. per Centum per Annum, to commence
 “ from the 5th Day of January, 1796, to
 “ be payable Half-Yearly, in Lieu of all other “ Interest; the said Annuities to be added to and “ made one joint Stock with, and to be redeemable
 “ at the same Time, and in like Manner, as the An“ nuities established by the Acts of the 24th, 25th,
 “ 34th and 35th Years of His present Majesty's
 “ Reign, for granting Annuities to satisfy Navy,
 “ Viduallying and Transport Bills and Ordnance
 “ Debentures, and that the said Annuities shall

“ be charged upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund.

“ That all Persons interested in or entitled unto any Bills payable in Course of the Navy, Victualling and Transport Offices, which were made out after the 31st Day of May, 1795, and on or before the 30th of September, 1795, who shall, on or before the 1st Day of July, 1796, carry the same (after having had the Interest due thereupon computed and marked upon the said Bills at the Navy, Victualling and Transport Offices respectively, to the 30th Day of April last) to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, to be marked or certified by him or his Pay-Master and Cashier, to the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, shall be entitled in respect of the same to 1041. Capital Stock for every 100l. contained in such Certificates, and so in Proportion for any greater or less Sum; such Capital Stock to be attended with Annuities after the Rate of 5l. per Centum per Annum, to commence from the 5th Day of January, 1796, to be payable Half-Yearly in Lieu of all other Interest: The said Annuities to be added to, and made one joint Stock with, and to be redeemable at the same Time, and in like Manner, as the Annuities established by the Acts of the 24th, 25th, 34th and 35th Years of His present Majesty's Reign, for granting Annuities to satisfy Navy, Victualling and Transport Bills and Ordnance Debentures; and that the said Annuities shall be charged upon and payable out of the Consolidated Fund.”

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Transport-Office do hereby give Notice, that all Persons possessed of Bills made out as aforesaid, bringing the same to this Office, the Interest thereon will be computed and marked, in order to their being carried to the Treasurer's Office accordingly. And it is desired, that all Persons who deliver Bills into this Office, to have the Interest calculated thereon, will subscribe their Names and Residence at the Bottom of each Bill, and that when they call for them they will bring an Account of the Date, Number and Sum of the respective Bills, in order to facilitate the Delivery.

Admiralty-Office, May 16, 1796.

HIS late Majesty having been graciously pleased, by His Warrant under His Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th Day of June, 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders for the Relief of Poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy; These are to give Notice, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Checque at Deptford, Woolwich and Sheerness, and with the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal and Kinsale; where all such Widows as intend to lay in their Claims, may be informed of all Particulars which entitle them to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose. But such Widows as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply, by Letter, to Mr. William Pearce at the Admiralty-Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Governors of the said Charity, intending to distribute to the Widows of Sea

Officers, whose Circumstances come within the Rules of the Establishment, such Monies as may be due to them on the 31st of May instant; this is to give Notice, that any Widows, who have not yet applied, and intend to lay in their Claims, may do so as soon as possible; and that all such Widows, whose Claims have been already allowed, may send or bring to this Office, as soon as possible, the Affidavits required by the Rules, in order to their being continued upon the Pension or Bounty.
