Downing-Street, June 8.

Extract of a Dispatch from Mr. Fraser to Lord Grenville, dated Hamburgh, May 27, 1796.

Information has been received here from Amsterdam, of the 24th Instant, that, in consequence of the late Disturbance in that City, the French General Bournonville had thought it adviseable to propose putting a considerable Number of French Troops in Garrison in that City; that that Measure had at first met with much Opposition on the Part of the Burghers of that City, who had claimed to themselves the Right of settling their own Dispute without the Interference of the French Military; that however they had been obliged to yield; and that a considerable Body of French Troops had actually marched into Amsterdam.

Whitehall, June 11.

BY a Dispatch from Major-General Gordon Forbes to the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, dated Mole St. Nicolas, St. Domingo, April 10, 1796, it appears, that a Division of British and Colonial Troops from the Garrison at Port au Prince were embarked, on the 17th and 18th of March, in order to proceed against the Town and Forts of Leogane in the same Island. The Troops were landed on the 21st, and a Firing was opened on the following Day from a temporary Battery, which had been constructed. The Enemy having brought their heavy Artillery to flank this Battery, it was obliged to be abandoned, with the Loss of One Six-Pounder disabled, and another spiked and left behind. On this Occasion Lieutenant Bingham, of the Artillery, lost his Arm, and that Corps, which behaved remarkably well, suffered some trifling Loss. A very heavy Fire had been maintained during the greatest Part of the 22d from the Ships of War against the Town and Forts; but no Impression whatever having been made by them, and the Place appearing much stronger than it had been represented, the Forces were judged inadequate to the Enterprize, and the Troops, Stores, Guns, and Ammunition of every Kind, were therefore reembarked, without further Loss or Accident.

Admiralty Office, June 11.

Extract of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Parker, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships, &c. at Jamaica, to Mr. Nepean, dated Swifsure, at Port au Prince, March 27, 1796.

FOR their Lordships Information I beg Leave to acquaint you, that, agreeably to my Letter of the 28th Ultimo, I proceeded to Port au Prince with General Forbes, where, upon our Arrival, a Meeting was called of the General Officers, and the Proposal for attacking Leogane discussed.

On the 21st the Army was landed, in Two Divisions, to the Eastward and Westward of the Fort and Town, covered to the Westward by the Ceres and Lark, and to the Eastward by the Iphigenia, and Cormorant and Serin Sloops, with the Africa and Leviathan placed against the Fort, and the Swifsure to cannonade the Town. The Fire of the latter was interrupted in the Course of Half an Hour from the Situation of the Army on Shore; but the Two former kept up an unremitting Cannonade, for near Four

Four Hours, against the Fort, until Dark, and the Land Wind coming fresh, the Ships were moved off to a proper Anchorage.

The Day following the Army were chiefly employed reconnoitering, and the next Day, from what they had observed and the Intelligence gained, the Enemy were found so exceedingly numerous that it was resolved best for His Majesty's Service to re-embark the Army, &c. and postpone the Operations for the present.

In the Course of the Night, and by Noon the next Day, the Artillery, Army, &c. were re-embarked; but, I am sorry to add, that the Army lost a few Men, and that the Africa had One Man killed and Seven wounded; and the Leviathan Five killed and Twelve wounded, Two since dead, with Damage done to the Masts and Yards of both Ships, insomuch that they must go down to Jamaica to have them made good.
