DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies and Extracts, have been received at this Office by Evan Nepean, Esq;

*ExtraEt of a Letter from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart.
Captain of His Majesty's Ship Indefatigable, dated off Falmouth, June 13, 1796, to Mr.
Nepean.*

YOU will be pleased to make known to the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty my Return off this Harbor, accompanied by the Squadron and Two National Brig Corvettes, which we fell in with about Eight Leagues from Ushant, on Saturday Morning.
The early Habit they have of making off as soon as seen led me to suspect they were Cruizers; and, after a Chace of Twenty-four Hours, they were both captured. One is called Les Trois Couleurs, mounting 10 Guns and 70 Men, the other La Blonde, of 10
Guns and 95 Men, commanded by Ensigns Du Ves-seaux, both coppered; had left Brest Two Days, to cruize for Six Weeks; had not taken any Thing.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral King'smill, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean, dated June 12, 1796.

S I R,

BY my last, of the 10th Instant, you were acquainted, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ships Unicorn and Santa Margaritta, Part of the Squadron under my Orders, had sent in a large Ship, under Swedish Colours, laden with Dutch Property, from Surinam; and that Lieutenant Carpenter, of the Unicorn, who brought her here, told me he had left our Ships in Chace of Three Sail, supposed to be Enemies.

Their Lordships will now have the Satisfaction of being informed, that those Three Sail were French Frigates, viz. La Tribune of 40 Guns, La Tamise of 36 Guns, (formerly the Thames) and La Legere of 24 Guns, under the Command of Commodore Moulson. Notwithstanding that Superiority, His Majesty's Two Frigates, immediately on ascertaining what they were, crouded Sail after them; upon which the Enemy formed in Line of Battle, but shortly after declining to come to Action, they separated, and endeavoured to escape. Captain Williams, in the Unicorn, pursued the largest, La Tribune, and I have no Doubt will give a good Account of her, while Captain Martin chased and came up with La Tamise, which struck to him after a smart Action, wherein Thirty-three of the Enemy were killed and Nineteen wounded, and only Two Men were killed and Three wounded on Board the Santa Margaritta. Unluckily, as the Legere could not be attended attended to during this Chace and Engagement, she got off.

Their Lordships will find more Particulars on this Subject in the inclosed Letter to me from Captain Martin, who is safely arrived here with his Prize; which Capture is the more interesting, as she has been by far the most active and successful of all the Enemy's Cruizers against our Trade.

The Credit of the British Name has been so eminently well supported on this Occasion by the Zeal, Spirit and Judgment with which His Majesty's Ships were conducted, that it becomes wholly unnecessary for me further to express my Sense of the Merits of their Captains, Officers and Crews.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

R. KINGSMILL.

Santa Margaritta, at Sea, June 11, 1796.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to inform you that on the 7th Instant, being in Company with His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, Eighteen Leagues West of Scilly, we discovered, at Two o'Clock in the Morning, Three Sail of Ships about a Mile on our Lee Beam; as the Day opened we perceived them to be Frigates belonging to the French Nation, which I communicated to Captain Williams by Signal, who immediately made Sail to join me, and on his near Approach made our Signal to pass within Hail, for the Purpose of giving him Information of the Enemies Force. The Statement of their Superiority encouraged him in his eager Pursuit, having said that he would attack the largest Ship, and desiring me to engage the next in Strength. This noble Example inspired every Person with Confidence of Success, and each Ship steered for her Opponent; but the Enemy, determined to evade an Action, steered away large under a Press of Sale, the smallest Ship at the same Time making off to Windward: At Half past Eleven o'Clock, by our superior Sailing, we arrived within Gun-Shot of the Enemy; but as they appeared to close, for the mutual Support of each other, and the Unicorn being some Distance astern, I judged it prudent to postpone our Attack till she was sufficiently advanced to occupy the Attention of the French Commodore. At this Time the Enemy commenced a Fire from their Stern-Chace Guns. At One o'Clock, having approached them within Three Quarters of a Mile, we fired our Bow Guns, whenever a favourable Opportunity presented itself, the Enemy at the same Time yawing to discharge their Broadides. At Two o'Clock, the Unicorn being on our Weather Beam, we made Sail, keeping up a running Fight till a Quarter past Four o'Clock, when the sternmost Ship finding it impossible to escape, put his Helm a-port, and endeavoured to rake us; but being fortunately baffled in this Effort afforded us an Opportunity of placing ourselves abreast of him within Pistol Shot, when a quick and well-directed Fire compelled him to surrender to His Majesty's Ship in less than Twenty Minutes. She proved to be the Thames, commanded by Citoyen Fraden, mounting 36 Guns and 306 Men. The Ship, which the Unicorn continued in Chace of, is La Tribune, of 40 Guns and 320 Men, bearing the Broad Pendant, Citoyen Moulton, Commander of a Division; the other, which made off to Windward, is La Legère of 24 Guns and 180 Men; I am glad to observe that our Loss is very disproportionate to the Enemy, having only Two Seamen killed, and the Boatswain and Two Seamen wounded, and her's Thirty-two killed and Nineteen wounded, and many of the latter have since died.

It is with extreme Pleasure that I seek the present Opportunity of testifying my Gratitude to the Officers and Ship's Company for their active Zeal and steady Unanimity at all Times and in all Situations, but more particularly in the Capture of the Thames, on which Occasion their Courage and exemplary Conduct is worthy of the greatest Praise. The Readiness of Mr. Harrison, the First Lieutenant, and his prompt Execution of my Orders, did essentially facilitate our Success. It is my sincere Wish to particularize each Individual, but where general Merit claims the greatest Approbation, to discriminate becomes a difficult Task. In Addition to the Officers and Ship's Company, may I also be permitted to beg you will offer to the Consideration of the Admiralty the meritorious Conduct of Captain Joseph Bullen, a Master and Commander in the Navy, serving in the Santa Margaritta as a Volunteer, by Permission from Lord Spencer: His Desire to have some active Employment induced me to beg he would assist in the Management of the Main Deck Guns, as I well knew that his long Services and approved Courage in various Situations would be a proper Example to the younger Part of the Ship's Company.

I have the Honor to be, Sir,

Your most obedient humble Servant,

T. B. MARTIN.

L'Engageante, Cork Harbour, June 13, 1796, Three P.M.

S I R,

I Send this Express to Cork, hoping it will overtake my Letter of this Date by the Post from hence, for the Purpose of giving to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty as early as possible the agreeable Intelligence that His Majesty's Ship Unicorn is now in Sight, off the Harbour, with her Prize La Tribune. I have the Honor to be,

S I R,

R. KINGSMILL.

E. Nepean, Esq;

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingsmill, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the Coast of Ireland, to Mr. Nepean, dated Cork Harbour, June 14, 1796.

THE Expectations my last Letters to you must have raised, are most happily realized. I now with peculiar Satisfaction desire you will acquaint their Lordships, that the French Frigate La Tribune, of 44 Guns and 337 Men, bearing Commodore Moulton's Broad Pendant, is captured, and brought in here by His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, commanded by Captain Williams, whose official Letter to me, containing a Detail of the Circumstances, is herewith transmitted. It is remarkable, that though they were were close engaged for Thirty-five Minutes, and the Unicorn's Masts, Sails and Rigging are much cut and damaged, not a Man on Board was hurt, while the Enemy had Thirty-seven killed and Fifteen wounded.

Intrepidity and judicious Management were never more strongly manifested than in this Instance, which reflects the highest Honor on Captains Williams and Martin, and on every Individual under their Command, and they all have my humble but warmest Approbation and Thanks.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Williams, of His Majesty's Ship Unicorn, to Vice-Admiral King'smill, dated Unicorn, at Sea, June 10, 1796.

S I R, Holy Head E. S. E. dist. 8 Leagues.

I HAVE the Honor to lay before you a Narrative of the Proceedings of the Squadron under my Command since my Departure from Cork on the 19th Ult. On the following Day, in consequence of my having received Intelligence of the Enemy's Privateers being on the Coast, to the Northward of Cape Clear, I dispatched His Majesty's Sloop Hazard, with Orders to Lieutenant Parker her Commander to cruise between the Cape and the Mouth of the Shannon, while I, for the more effectual Protection of our Trade, cruized with the Santa Margaritta in the Vicinity of Cape Clear. I had the Satisfaction a few Days afterwards to learn that the Hazard had retaken Two Prizes, and had chased the Privateer off the Coast that captured them, after a narrow Escape from being taken. On the 5th Instant, having met with other Ships of the Irish Station, I concluded upon making a Circuit on the outer Limits of my Station, accompanied by the Santa Margaritta, and at Dawn of Day on the 8th Instant, Scilly bearing E. Half S. 17 Leagues, we discovered Three Ships of War on our Lee Beam, distant Two or Three Miles, to which we immediately gave Chace, and soon afterwards perceived them to edge away, and that they were Enemy's Ships, Two Frigates and a large Ship Corvette. At Nine A. M. they formed themselves in a close Bow and Quarter Line, and continued to run from us in that Position, the largest Ship under easy Sail, for the Support of his Squadron. In this Situation we approached them very fast, and must have speedily brought them to Action. I therefore made the Signal to form for Battle, the Margaritta being at this Time a-head of the Unicorn, and at the same Time directed her by Signal to come within Hail, to learn from Captain Martin his Opinion of the Enemy's Force, who informed me, that the largest Ship was a 38 Gun Frigate, the Thames, and a Corvette. I ordered Captain Martin to attack the Thames, acquainting him with my Intention to fight the largest Ship with the Unicorn. On our nearer Approach, the Corvette, which detained the other Ships, gradually hauled out to Windward, and passed our Weather Beam in long Gun-Shot, steering afterwards the same Course as the other Ships, and with the Intention, I then imagined, to be in Readiness to give Support to either of her Friends eventually most needing it.

At One, P. M. the Two Frigates hoisted French Colours, the largest Ship a Commodore's Pendant, and at the same Moment commenced a quick and well-directed Fire on us with their stern Chaces; the Corvette at this Time hauled more up, and, to my great Astonishment, brought to, to board a Sloop passing us on the contrary Tack. As the Commodore continued to wait for the Thames we thereby approached them both, but were considerably retarded by the Effects of their Shot. At Four, P. M. the Thames being the sternmost Ship, bore round up, to avoid the Fire from the Unicorn, and to pour a Broadside into the Margaritta's Bow, when I had the Pleasure to see Captain Martin manœuvre his Ship with the greatest Judgment, and with the utmost Gallantry he laid himself close alongside his Opponent. The superior and well-directed Fire from the Santa Margaritta marked the Discipline of his Ship, and soon put the Thames into his Possession. The Commodore, on seeing his Companion fall, made all Sail, and by a sudden and judicious though unsuccessful Manœuvre, endeavoured to gain the Wind of the Unicorn. We were at this Time chasing him toward the Entrance of the Irish Channel, and soon after passed close to the Tusker Rock. The Parity of Sailing in the Two Ships, aided by the Judgment of the Enemy's Commander, kept us at running Fight for Ten Hours; during which Period we were much annoyed in our Sails and Rigging, and were for some Time unluckily deprived of the Use of our Main-Top-sail; but on it's falling less Wind after Dark we were enabled to use our supernumerary Flying Sails, Royal Steering Sails, &c. which, by slow Degrees, brought us so near his Weather Quarter as to take the Wind from his Sails; when, at Half past Ten at Night, after having pursued Two Hundred and Ten Miles, we shot up alongside of our Antagonist, gave him Three Cheers, and commenced close Action, which had continued in that Position with great Impetuosity on both Sides for Thirty-five Minutes; when, on clearing up of the Smoke, I observed that the Enemy had dropt on our Quarter, was close hauled, attempting, by a masterly Manœuvre, to cross our Stern, and gain the Wind. This was happily prevented by our instantly throwing all aback, and giving the Ship strong Stern-way, by which we passed his Bow, regained our Situation, and renewed the Attack. The Effects of our Fire soon put an End to all Manœuvre, for the Enemy's Ship was completely dismantled, her Fire ceased, and all further Resistance appeared to be ineffectual; they called to us they had surrendered. The Ship proves to be La Tribune, commanded by Commodore John Moulton, mounting 44 Guns, though pierced for 48; on the Main Deck 26 Twelves, on the Quarter-Deck and Forecastle 16 long Sixes, and 42 lb. Carronades; had on Board at the Commencement of the Action 337 Men, 37 of whom are killed, 13 badly and 2 slightly wounded. The Ship is quite new, launched since the Commencement of the War, sails extremely fast, is of large Dimensions, being on the Gun Deck Two Feet broader and Thirteen Feet longer than the Unicorn. Commodore Moulton, who I am sorry to add is among the Wounded, is by Birth an American, but has served Sixteen Years in the French Navy, and during the present War has always had the Command of a Division. The Squadron late under his Orders, consisting of La Tribune, La Proserpine, La Thames, and La Legère, of 20 Nine Pounders, had left Brest Two Days only, had taken nothing; La

Proserpine

Proserpine separated the preceding Evening in a Fog. I will not attempt to find Words to convey to you, Sir, the Sense I feel of the Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company under my Command; for if it was possible for me to say any Thing that could add to the Glory of British Seamen, I have ample Field for so doing in the Situation I held this Day. Indeed nothing less than the Confidence of the most gallant Support from them, and the high Opinion I entertain of the Santa Margarita our Second, could induce me to risk an Action with a Force apparently so much our superior; and while I congratulate myself upon the happy Effects of their Valour in the Capture of Two of the Enemy's Frigates, that have done so much Mischief to our Commerce during the War, and on their present Cruise were likely to do so much more, you may easily conceive what my Feelings are, when I inform you, Sir, this Service is obtained without the Loss of One of the brave Men in the Ship under my Command; my Happiness will be complete, if I find the Santa Margarita has been equally fortunate.

In Justice to the Officers of the Unicorn, I must beg of you to recommend to the Notice of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty my First and Second Lieutenants, Messrs. Palmer and Taylor, Mr. Quayle the Master, and Lieutenant Hatr of the Marines. I had great Reason to regret the Absence of Mr. Carpenter, the Third Lieutenant, of Two Mates, and some of my best Seamen, who were the Evening before put on Board a valuable Ship from Surinam; but the able Assistance I should have derived from Lieutenant Carpenter, I was made to feel the less by the Exertion of Mr. Collier the Purser, who voluntarily offered and undertook to supply his Place to the best of his Abilities, and whose Name I beg you to include in your Recommendations to their Lordships. We are now using our utmost Exertions to put the Unicorn and her shattered Prize in a Condition to proceed to Cork.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

THO. WILLIAMS.

Copy of a Letter from Lord Amelius Beauclerk, Captain of His Majesty's Ship Dryad, Plymouth Sound, June 16, 1796, to Mr. Nepean.

S I R,

PLEASE to inform their Lordships, that, on the 13th Instant, at One, A. M. Cape Clear bearing West by North, Distance Twelve Leagues, we discovered a Sail standing towards us from the Southward, but on nearing us hauled her Wind and tacked. I immediately chased, and came alongside of her at Nine, P. M. when, after a close Action of Forty-five Minutes, she struck; proves to be the National Frigate La Proserpine, mounting 26 Eighteen-Pounders, 12 Nines, and 4 Thirty-two Pound Cannonades, with 348 Men, commanded by Citizen Pevrieu; sailed from Brest the 6th Instant, in Company with La Tribune, Thames, and La Legère Corvette; had not taken any Thing. I feel myself much indebted to the Officers and Men under my Command for their steady and spirited Exertions during the Action. I particularly recommend the senior Officer, Lieutenant King, as truly deserving their Lordships Notice. It is with Pleasure I add, that our killed consisted only of 2, and 7 wounded; La Proserpine, 30 killed and 45 wounded.

I have the Honor to be, Sir, &c.

AM. BEAUCLERK.

Downing-Street, June 17.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, from Colonel Graham, dated Peri, May 31.

YESTERDAY Morning the French Army under the Command of General Bounaparté, consisting of about 22,000 Men, forced the Passage of the Mincio, at Valeggio.

General Beaulieu ordered the different Corps of his Army to retire on Castel Nuovo, except the Infantry at Goito, which, being Part of the Garrison of Mantua, was sent back there; and the Dispositions were so well made, that this was executed without any Loss: Every Attempt to molest them in their Retreat was not only immediately checked by the distinguished Conduct of the Cavalry, both Austrian and Neapolitan, but the Right of the French Army was attacked, with great Intrepidity and Success, by Eight Squadrons (Hulans and the Neapolitan Regiment du Roi) coming from Goito, who cut down a great many Men, took some Prisoners, (among them One of General Bounaparté's Aides de Camp, and Three other Officers) and brought off above 150 Horses.

This Morning the Army, with all the Artillery (except Two Pieces of Cannon lost at Valeggio) Ammunition, Stores and Baggage, passed the Adige in perfect Order at Chiufa: In this Affair the Loss of the French must have been considerable; that of the Austrians is trifling, and fell chiefly on One of the Battalions of Strafaldo, posted at the Bridge of Valeggio, but in all it does not exceed 300 Men, many of whom, being wounded, could not be brought off for Want of Waggon.

This Afternoon, while the Bridge at Chiufa was removing, the French appeared on the Right Bank of the Adige, and began a Cannonade, which was returned. It has continued during all the Evening, with scarcely any Loss on the Side of the Austrians.

Whitehall, June 18.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces in the West Indies.

Head Quarters, St. Lucia, May 2, 1796.

S I R,

IN my Letter of the 9th of April I expressed a Desire to detach a Body of Troops to take Possession of Demerary, provided that Admiral Sir John Laforey would afford me the necessary Naval Force.

The Admiral, upon my Application to him for that Purpose, immediately ordered the Malabar, La Picque, and Babet, on Board of which, and the Grenada Transport, with some small Vessels, Major-General Whyte, with the 39th, 93d, and 99th Regiments, giments, and a Detachment of the Royal Artillery, embarked and sailed on the 15th Ultimo.

On the 21st this Squadron arrived upon the Coast of Demerary; and on the 22d the Governor and Council were summoned to surrender the Colony to His Britannic Majesty upon the Conditions which I have the Honor herewith to inclose. The next Day the Terms were agreed to, the Capitulation signed, and the British Troops took Possession of the Fort and Colony. Lieutenant-Colonel Hislop of the 39th Regiment is left Commandant of Demerary and Iles-Quibo.

Major-General Whyte was to proceed to take Possession of the neighbouring Colony of Berbice; and, after making the necessary Arrangements, he is ordered to repair to his Station at St. Domingo.

From the Accounts received there is Produce to an immense Value at Demerary, which will be immediately shipped for Great Britain.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) R. ABERCROMBY.

Right Hon. Henry Dundas,

&c. &c. &c.

S I R,

IN Obedience to your Excellency's Commands, I left Barbados on the 15th Instant, with a Detachment of the Artillery and Part of the 39th, 93d, and 90th Regiments, amounting to 1200 Men, escorted by the Malabar, Undaunted, La Picque and Babet Frigates, with the Grenada Transport and Five Schooners and Sloops, and on the 21st made the Land, when the Scipio joined the Fleet. That Evening, when the Tide made, the Babet and La Picque Frigates, with the Grenada Transport, passed the Bar, with the Schooners and Boats of the Fleet, and came to Anchor, within Random Shot of the Fort, at the Entrance of the River; and having, during the Night, prepared every Thing for Attack, at Daylight appeared in Force, when I sent a Flag of Truce by Lieut. Col. Hislop of the 39th Regiment, summoning the Governor to surrender the Colony and its Dependencies to His Britannic Majesty's Forces, agreeable to the Terms which I have the Honor to inclose, and which the Governor and Council accepted.—The Unanimity with which the Service was carried on between the Fleet and Army was pleasing to all concerned, and Mr. Higgins acquitted himself with much Propriety and Utility. Captain Parr, who commanded the Fleet, has assisted and supplied us from the Fleet liberally: And I have the Satisfaction to inform your Excellency, that from every Information I have received, and from above Seventy Ships being actually loaded with the Produce of the Country, now in the River, (most of which will be sent to England) and from every Account of the Fertility of the Soil, it is a most important Acquisition to Great Britain.

The Colony of Berbice adjoining to this being a separate Government, I shall direct my Attention to it without Delay; and I shall leave Lieutenant-Colonel Hislop in the Command here, agreeable to your Excellency's Directions.

The Thetis, a Dutch Frigate of 24 Guns, and a Cutter of 12 Guns, are added to the Fleet; and Captain Parr has given Directions for destroying or bringing down the River a French Brig Privateer of Force.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WHYTE, Maj. Gen.

Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B.

&c. &c. &c.

By Major-General John White, Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Land Forces, &c. &c. &c. and Captain Thomas Parr, Commander of His Britannic Majesty's Ships, &c. &c. &c.

THESE are requiring you, the Governor and Council, Military and Naval Forces, of the Colony of Demerary and its Dependencies, to surrender the said Colony to His Britannic Majesty's Forces under our Command, and to place the said Colony under His Majesty's Protection; and quietly and peaceably to submit to His Majesty's Government.

In which Case the Inhabitants shall enjoy full Security to their Persons, and the free Exercise of their Religion, with the full and immediate Enjoyment of all private Property, whether on Shore or afloat (excepting such as may appear to belong to the Subjects of the French Republic), according to their ancient Laws and Usages, or such other as may be determined upon previous to the Colony's being placed under His Majesty's Government, upon the most liberal and beneficial Terms.

That in the Event of the Colony's remaining under the British Government at the Conclusion of a general Peace, it shall enjoy such commercial Rights and Privileges as are enjoyed by the British Colonies in the West Indies. With regard to the Military and Naval Forces, that the Officers and Men of the Land Forces shall, if agreeable to themselves, be received into the British Pay, with Leave, at the Restoration of the Stadtholder, to return into his Service. Each Non-Commissioned Officer and Soldier shall receive, upon his taking the Oath of Allegiance to His Britannic Majesty to serve him faithfully during the War, where it may be thought proper to employ him, the Sum One Hundred Guilders.

The Officers to receive, under the same Conditions, the Allowance of Two Hundred Days Pay, Baggage and Forage Money, as paid to the British Officers.

The Officers and Men of the Marine Forces cannot be taken into the British Service until His Majesty's Pleasure shall be known, but shall receive Pay according to their Rank, and every Indulgence that can be allowed.

That the Governor and all Civil Officers, after having taken the Oaths of Allegiance to His Majesty, which will be administered by Major-General Whyte, are (if they chuse) to remain in their respective Situations, (excepting those who have shewn a decided Partiality to the French Interest) the Governor only resigning the Military Command. Should such liberal Terms be refused, the Governor, Council, and all concerned, must be answerable for the Consequences, as an immediate Attack will be made by the Land and Sea Forces, which will render every Resistance vain.

Major-General Whyte and Captain Parr give the Governor One Hour, and no more, from the Delivery very of this by Lieutenant-Colonel Hislop, to accept or not.

GENTLEMEN,

IT is out of my Power as yet to give a decisive Answer to your Summons, demanding the Surrender of this Colony to His Britannic Majesty's Forces, as my Duty requires of me to lay it before the Council, to whom it also is addressed, but which is not assembled at this Moment. I will, however, call the Members present together, and return about Twelve o'Clock an Answer.

I have the Honor to remain, &c.

Governor of Demerary.

Demerary, 22d April, 1796.

To their Excellencies General
White and Commodore Parr.

On Board the Babet Frigate, April 22, 1796.

S I R,

WE have been honored with your Letter in Answer to our's of Yesterday's Date, summoning the Colony of Demerary to surrender to His Britannic Majesty's Arms, requesting, for the Reasons therein mentioned, to have until Twelve o'Clock this Forenoon to assemble the Council to assist you in the Determination.

The Reasonableness of the Request induces us to grant it; but you will be aware that if an Answer is not returned on or before that Time, no further Delay can be made, and you alone must be answerable for the Consequences; and you will please also to observe, that from the very liberal Terms offered, no Deviation whatever can be admitted.

We have the Honor to be, &c.

of Demerary.

Fort William Frederick, Demerary,
22d April, 1796.

GENTLEMEN,

WE, the Governors, Members of the Council, and Commanders of the Military and Naval Forces of the Colony, in Council of War assembled, having attentively perused the Summons, dated of Yesterday, and addressed to us by your Excellencies, demanding the Surrender of said Colony to His Britannic Majesty's Forces, also the Terms thereunto annexed, have, after mature Deliberation, resolved to accept said Terms, and on them to surrender said Colony and it's Dependencies as demanded, whereof we hereby give you Notice; also that our Colours will be struck on the Landing of your Forces: It will depend on the several Officers and the Troops to decide for themselves as to the Offers made them, and we have the Honour to subscribe ourselves, &c.

manders of His Majesty's Britannic Forces off Demerary.

Head Quarters, St. Lucia, May 2, 1796.

S I R,

I HAVE the Honor to inform you, that on the 22d of April the Fleet, with the Troops destined for the Attack of St. Lucia, sailed from Carlisle Bay, and anchored on the Evening of the 23d in Marin Bay, Martinique, Admiral Sir John Laforey still retaining the Command. On the 24th Sir John resigned the Command to Rear-Admiral Sir Hugh C. Christian, K. B. and on the Evening of the 26th we sailed for St. Lucia. The Disposition for Landing was arranged in the following Manner. Major-General Campbell was ordered to disembark with 1700 Men at Longueville's Bay, which he accordingly effected without Opposition, except some Shots fired from Pidgeon Island.

In the Morning of the 27th he advanced to Choc Bay. As soon as the Head of the Column began to appear the Center Division of the Army disembarked near the Village of Choc, upon which about 500 Men, who had faintly opposed Major-General Campbell on his March, retired from Angier's Plantation to Morne Chabot. This Morne is one of the strongest and most commanding Posts in the Neighbourhood of Morne Fortuné, and as it was absolutely necessary to occupy it to be able to invest Morne Fortuné on the North Side, Two Detachments from the Army, under the Command of Brigadier-General Moore and Brigadier-General Hope, were ordered to march that Evening to attack it on Two different Sides. Brigadier-General Moore marched at Twelve that Night, by the most circuitous Road, with Seven Companies of the 53d Regiment, commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Abercromby, and 100 of Malcolm's Rangers, with 50 of Lewenstein's. Brigadier-General Hope, with 350 Men of the 57th, 150 of Malcolm's, and 50 of Lewenstein's, took the shorter Road.

From a Miscalculation of Time, arising from the Information of Guides, Brigadier-General Moore's Division fell in with the Advanced Picquet of the Enemy an Hour and a Half earlier than was expected. Finding that his March was discovered, and that it was impossible to halt the Troops, who, from the Narrowness of the Path, were obliged to march in single Files, the Brigadier instantly decided to risk the Attack with his own Division, in which he was well seconded by the Spirit of the Troops, who formed with all the Expedition which the Ground would admit of, and after a considerable Resistance carried the Post. Brigadier-General Hope's Division marched with so much Precision that they arrived exactly at the Hour appointed; and if fortunately the Attack could have been executed as was directed directed the whole Force of the Enemy would have fallen. Brigadier-General Moore speaks handsomely of the Behaviour of the Troops under his Command. A Return of the Loss is herewith inclosed. From 40 to 50 of the Enemy were found killed, and 200 Stands of Arms, with some Ammunition, taken. The next Day Brigadier-General Moore occupied Morne Duchassaix, in the Rear of Morne Fortuné.

The Division under the Command of Major-General Morhead, which was destined to land at Ance la Ray, did not complete their Disembarkation for some Days, owing to their Ships falling to Leeward. They are now in Possession of the Bar of the Grand Cul de Sac, and invest Morne Fortuné on the South Side.

It is impossible to describe the Difficulty of Communication in this Country, and as Morne Fortuné is now in a respectable State of Defence, it will require Time and much Labour to erect the necessary Batteries to reduce it.

Yesterday the Enemy attacked the Advanced Post of the Grenadiers, who are commanded by Lieutenant-Colonel Mac Donald, of the 55th Regiment, but were repulsed with considerable Loss, though I am sorry to add that we had several Officers and 40 or 50 Men killed and wounded, a Return of which I herewith inclose. The only Officer killed was Captain Kerr of the York Rangers, the Rest are slightly wounded, among whom is Major Napier of the 63d.

From the best Information I can obtain, the Enemy have a Garrison of about 2000 well disciplined Black Troops, some Hundred Whites, and a Number of Black People who have taken Refuge in the Fortrefs.

Sir Hugh Christian has, upon every Occasion, exerted himself to afford me every possible Assistance from the Royal Navy.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) RA. ABERCROMBY,
Lieutenant-General.

P. S. I should be guilty of a great Omission, if I did not particularly mention the Zeal and Intelligence of Lieutenant-Colonel Ross, of the 21st Infantry, in Brigadier-General Moore's Attack on the 28th of April, at Morne Chabot. To this Officer I am under great Obligation.

S I R,

IT having been Part of the original Plan for the Investment of the Morne Fortuné to drive the Enemy from the Batteries they had on the Base of the Mountain on the Side of the Grand Cul de Sac, and by that Means to open this Bay to the Ships of War, it naturally fell to the Share of Major-General Morhead to execute that Service.

To render the Success more secure, Brigadier-General Hope was detached from the Side of Morne Chabot with 350 Men of the 42d Regiment, the Light Company of the 57th Regiment, and Part of Malcolm's Corps, on the Night of the 2d of May, supported by the 55th Regiment, which was posted at Ferrands; and Yesterday Morning Major-General Morhead was ordered to march in Two Columns, the Right to cross the River of the Grand Cul de Sac at Cools, and the Left at the Mouth of the same River, where it falls into the Bay of the Grand Cul de Sac. Major-General Morhead being taken ill, was obliged to resign the Command to Brigadier-General Perryn.

Brigadier-General Hope carried the Battery Seche, within a short Distance of the Works of the Morne Fortuné, with an inconsiderable Loss, had not the brave Lieutenant-Colonel Malcolm unfortunately fallen upon this Spot. Colonel Riddle, who commanded the Column on the Left, got Possession of the lower Battery, called Chapuis, and remained possessed of it for a considerable Time; but the Column under the Command of Brigadier-General Perryn never having crossed the River at Cools, Lieutenant-Colonel Riddle remained unsupported, and Brigadier-General Hope's Division also became unconnected, and consequently placed in a very critical Situation. From these untoward Circumstances, the Plan failed in the Execution, and the Troops retired to their former Position. The Ships of War, which were destined to enter the Cul de Sac, returned to their Anchorage. Brigadier-General Hope has mentioned to me the very gallant Behaviour of Captain West, commanding the Light Company of the 57th Regiment.

I have the Honor to inclose herewith a Return of the Killed, Wounded and Missing. From the intricate Nature of this Country, and the Difficulty of approaching the Morne Fortuné on any Side, except by Morne Duchassaix, I have been obliged to undertake a laborious Communication from Choc Bay to that Morne, and to form a Road capable of allowing the Transportation of heavy Artillery.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) RA. ABERCROMBY.
