Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 16, to Saturday July 19, 1796.

Parliament-Street, July 19, 1796.

LETTERS, of which the following are Copies, were Yesterday received at the Office of the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Captain Drummond, of the 19th Regiment of Light Dragoons, and Lieutenant Davies, of His Majesty's Ship Heroine.

*Lazaretto at Bocche de Caterro,
in Dalmatia, June 12, 1796.*

S I R,

IHAVE the Honor to transmit a Copy of the Terms of Capitulation on which Columbo and its Dependencies surrendered to His Majesty's and the Honorable East India Company's Sea and Land Forces, under the Command of Captain Alan Hyde Gardner and Colonel James Stuart. My Orders were to proceed to England, by the Route of Suez and Alexandria, with Colonel Stuart's Dispatches, and, if detained to perform a Quarantine, I was directed to forward the above-mentioned Copy of the Terms of Capitulation to you.

I am, &c.

R. DRUMMOND,

Captain 19th (Light) Dragoons, and Aide de Camp to Colonel Stuart.

*Lazaretto at Bocche de Caterro,
in Dalmatia, June 12, 1796.*

S I R,

IHAVE the Honor to inform you of my Arrival here with Dispatches, over Land from Captain Alan Hyde Gardner, commanding His Majesty's Ship Heroine in the East Indies, which, but for the many Impediments I have met with, should have been near the Delivery of at this Time. I however hope to prove, that on my Part every Exertion has been used to get on, as advised by His Majesty's Consuls.

Finding it impossible to avoid a Quarantine of Forty Days at this Place, I have, according to my Orders, transmitted to our Consul at Trieste the Copy of Captain Gardner's Public Letter, also of the Terms of Capitulation therein mentioned; and I shall use every Means to expedite my Delivery of the original Dispatch.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN DAVIES,
First Lieutenant of His Majesty's Ship Heroine.

The Right Hon. Henry Dundas, &c. &c. &c.

His Majesty's Ship Heroine, Colombo Road, February 16, 1796.

S I R,

HAVING received Directions from Sir George Keith Elphinstone, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in these Seas, to take under my Orders the Ships of His Majesty and those of the Honorable United East India Company, named in the Margin, * and to co-operate with Colonel Stuart, Commander of the Land Forces, in the Reduction of Colombo, it is with peculiar Satisfaction I announce to you the Surrender of that Fortrefs, with the remaining Possessions under the Dutch Authority on the Island of Ceylon, on the 15th Instant. I have the Honor to transmit herewith the Terms on which these Places have become Part of His Majesty's Dominions.

* Rattlesnake, Echo, Prince of Wales, Bombay Castle, Bombay Frigate, Drake Brig, Queen Ketch, Swift.

The Transports having been collected off Negombo, an Anchorage Eighteen Miles to the Northward of this Place, on the 5th Instant, and that Fort, having been evacuated by the Enemy, was taken Possession of by Major Barbert on the same Day, and the Whole of the Army landed by the Evening of the 6th Instant.

The Inland Navigation from Negombo to Colombo not being found adequate to the Purpose of carrying the Stores, Provisions, &c. to the Ground necessary for the Army to occupy previous to opening our Batteries, Colonel Stuart marched with a Part of his Force to possess himself of a strong Post which the Enemy opposed to him on the South Bank of the Matual River, which, from his judicious and able Conduct, was happily carried on the Morning of the 12th, with little Loss on our Side, and considerable to the Enemy, who fled for Protection under the Walls of the Fort, and enabled the Colonel to take up his final Position before Colombo on the Evening of the same Day.

I also anchored on the Morning of the 12th with the Ships of War and Transports, about Two Miles from the Fortrefs, in a very favourable Situation for landing the Guns, &c. of which there being a sufficient Number put on Shore, on the 14th Colonel Stuart and myself summoned the Fort to surrender, and it's Success will be fully explained by the Articles of Capitulation, which I have before alluded to, and which I humbly hope may meet His Majesty's Approbation.

It becomes me, and is a very pleasing Part of my Duty, to make known to you, for His Majesty's Information, the Zeal and Activity which have actuated every Description of Officers and Men employed under my Orders; and I am happy to inform you, that Three Seamen of the Swift, wounded, are the only Casualties of the Siege.

First Lieutenant Davies, of the Heroine, an Officer of great Merit, who has given me every Assistance on this Service which his relative Situation enabled him to do, will have the Honor of delivering to you this Dispatch, and I beg Leave to recommend him to your favourable Notice and Protection.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

A. H. GARDNER.

ARTICLES of CAPITULATION.

PRELIMINARY ARTICLE.

JOHN Gerard Van Angelbeck, Councillor of India, Governor and Director of the Dutch Possessions in the Island of Ceylon, offers to deliver up to Colonel Stuart and Captain Gardner, commanding the English Troops, the Fortrefs of Columbo, upon the following Conditions, at the Expiration of Three Days.

Answer.—Major Patrick Alexander Agnew, Adjutant-General of the British Troops in the Island of Ceylon, by virtue of the Powers delegated to him by Colonel James Stuart, commanding the British Army, and Alan Hyde Gardner, Esq; Captain of His Majesty's Ship Heroine, and Senior Officer of the Naval Force before Columbo, consents to accept of the Surrender of the Fort Columbo on the mentioned Terms, provided the Capitulation is signed this Evening, and the Fort delivered to the British Troops Tomorrow Morning at Ten o'Clock, in the Manner stipulated in the following Articles.

Article I.

In this Capitulation shall be included the Town of Gale and the Fort of Caliture, with all their Dependencies, Lands, Domains, &c. of the Honorable Dutch East India Company; and the Governor shall issue Orders to the Commander and Council of Gale and the Commandant of Caliture for the actual Surrender, according to the Contents of this Capitulation.

Answer.—Granted.

Article II.

The Fort, with all it's Dependencies, Artillery, Ammunition, Stores, Provisions, and all other Effects belonging to the Company, with the Plan, and Papers relative to the Fortifications, shall bona fide be delivered up, without concealing or keeping back any Thing.

Answer.—Granted. The Surveys of the Districts of the Island of Ceylon, and it's Coasts, with all other Public Plans, to be included.

Article III.

And as the Banks at Columbo, as well as Gale, are Two Years in Arrear, the Delivery shall take Place according to the Balances now actually existing, and a reasonable Time be allotted to the Commercial Servants here, and at Gale, with their Assistants, to finish their Books; and they shall during that Time receive the Pay and Emoluments fixed for their Services. As the Smith, Cooper, House-Carpenter, the Overseer of the Arsenal, and the Brick-maker, receive every Thing by Indent, their Accounts shall be examined by our Accountants, and paid by the English; on the other Hand, the above-mentioned Artificers and Overseers are responsible for the Articles issued to them.

Answer.—One Year, or Eighteen Months, if absolutely necessary, shall be allowed, for the Purpose of arranging the Books; during which Time a reasonable Salary shall be paid to the Servants of the Dutch Company necessarily employed in this Department. The Accounts of the Artizans shall be examined and liquidated.

Article IV.

All Publick Papers shall also be faithfully delivered over; but attested Copies of all the Publick and Secret Consultations held during his short Government, and which he has not had an Opportunity of forwarding to Holland or Batavia, shall be given to Governor Van Angelbeck, to enable him to answer for his Conduct according to the Nature of the Circumstances.

Answer.—Granted.

Article V.

The Returns and Merchandize of the Company, which are partly laden on Board the Ships Berlicum and Ensfgezendheid, now laying in the Roads, and partly stored in private Houses, as well as those at Gale, shall also be faithfully delivered by the Commissaries, who shall be appointed by the Governor, to Major Agnew, who is authorized by the Government of Madras to receive them.

Answer.—All Merchandize, Stores, and publick Property of every Description, either laden on Board the Ships now anchored under the Guns of the Fort, deposited in the Publick Stores, or distributed in the Houses of Individuals; as well as all Publick Property placed in a similar Manner at Gale, Caliture, or any other Part of the Island of Ceylon depending on these Governments, shall be delivered up by the Commissaries, who shall be named by the Governor Van Angelbeck, to Major Agnew, the Major appointed by the Government of Madras to receive them, in Three Weeks from this Date.

Article VI.

But as the Company has of late borrowed Money, upon Interest, of their Servants and Inhabitants, and, when in Want of ready Money, have issued (Kredit Breeven) Promissory Notes, to the Amount of about Five Lacs of Six-Dollars, of which, however, at least One Half is in the Treasury, with a Promise to realize the same; and as several Servants have their Pay and Emoluments in the Hands of the Company, for which they have no other Security but their Property, the above mentioned Debts shall be paid out of them, and the Notes discharged, which can occasion the less Consideration, as the Returns alone, taking the fine Cinnamon at only Three Rupees a Pound, the Pepper at 100 Rupees per Candy, the Cardamoms at One Rupee a Pound, and the Piece Goods and other Merchandize at the Invoice Price, will amount to about Twenty-five Lacs of Rupees, and all the Debts, Pay and Notes in Circulation not above Six Lacs. The Copper Doo-dees shall continue current for One Stiver.

Answer.—As Mr. Van Angelbeck has assured the Officers commanding His Majesty's Naval and Land Forces before Columbo, that a Refusal to comply with the Demand contained in the VIth Article will be attended with the total Ruin of the Colony, they consent to the following Arrangements regarding the Paper Currency of this Island, provided the publick Property of the Dutch Company is found to be conformable to the Statement contained in this Article. The English Government of Ceylon will take up the Promissory Notes of the Dutch Government which are still in Circulation, provided they do not exceed the Sum of Fifty Thousand Pounds Sterling, and issue Certificates for the Amount, bearing an Interest of Three per Cent. per Annum, payable Half-yearly, which Certificates shall be in Force so long as the Districts of Ceylon, extending from Matura to Chilau, shall be in Possession of the English, and no longer. Should these Districts be restored to the Dutch, the Responsibility of Payment will necessarily revert to them, in which Event the original Notes of the Dutch Government shall be restored to the Proprietors in Exchange for the Certificates granted by the British Government. The Officers commanding the British Forces are not authorized to provide for the Payment of the Arrears due to the Servants of the Company. This must be left to the future Determination of His Britannic Majesty.

The Copper Coin of the Island must find it's own Value in the Course of Exchange.

Article VII.

All Private Property, without Exception, shall be secured to the Proprietors.

Answer.—Granted, with the Exception of all Military and Naval Stores, which, in every Instance, must be deemed Publick Property.

Article VIII.

In which is expressly included the Funds of the Orphan House or the College for the Administration of the Effects of Infant Children, and of the Committee for managing the Poor Funds, as also the Two Ships now in the Roads, (Berlicum and Eefgezindheid) which belong to Individuals in Holland, and are chartered by the Company, as shall be proved.

Answer.—Granted, with Exception of the Ships, which must be deemed Publick Property.

Article IX.

The Garrison shall march out with the Honors of War; pile their Arms, by Command of their own Officers, on the Esplanade, and again return to their Barracks. The Officers to keep their Side Arms; the Clevangs and Creeces of the Non-Commissioned Officers and Private Malays to be locked up in Chests, and on their Departure, on being set on Shore, to be returned to them.

Answer.—Granted.

Article X.

The European Officers, Non-Commissioned and Privates of the Battalion of Dutch Troops, and the Detachment of the Wirtembergh Regiment, doing Duty with it, as well as the Artillery and Seamen, shall be transported in English Ships from hence to Europe or Batavia, according to their Choice, with Permission to carry along with them their Women, Children, necessary Servants, and Baggage. None of the Officers, however, shall be removed from hence against their Will, as many of them are married, and have their Property here, and in case of any of them wishing to depart, Time shall be allowed them to arrange their Affairs to go where they please, upon their Parole of Honor not to serve in this War against England until they shall be exchanged.

Answer.—The European Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates, as well of the Dutch Battalion as of the Regiment of Wirtemberga, the Artillery, Engineers and Marine, must be considered as Prisoners of War, and as such they will be treated with that Attention which the British Government has ever shewn to those whom the Fortune of War has placed in it's Power. The whole shall be sent to Madras.

Such of the Officers as desire to return to Ceylon, for the Reasons mentioned in this Article, will have Permission to do so, on giving their Parole of Honour not to serve during the present War against the English. Those who may desire to return to Europe shall be permitted to do so, on the same Conditions, but without any Claim on the British Government for Pay and Allowances of any Description.

Article XI.

As there are some Native born French in Garrison, they shall be transported to the French Islands if they choose it.

Answer.—The French of the Garrison will be considered as Prisoners of War, and sent to Madras.

Article XII.

Answer.

Answer.—The Malay Troops shall be sent from hence, with their Wives and Children, to Tutacorep, and from thence by easy Marches to Madras. They shall be subsisted while they remain Prisoners, and if not taken into the British Service, shall at a convenient Time be sent to the Island of Java, at the Expence of the British Government.

Article XIII.

These Transportations shall take Place at the Expence of the English, and until that Time the Military, Europeans, as well as Malays, shall continue to enjoy their Pay and Emoluments, as was customary in the Company's Service. None of the Military shall be forced or even persuaded to enter into the Service of His Majesty, or the Honourable English Company.

Answer.—The Military Officers, European and Native, shall receive the same Pay allowed to them in the Dutch Service. The Non-Commissioned and Privates will be subsisted according to the Regulations of the British Government for Prisoners of War. The Governor Van Angelbeck, the Commandeur of Gale, Fretz, and all the other Political or Commercial Servants, not required in their Official Capacities for the Purpose mentioned in Article III, shall have Permission to remain as private Individuals at Columbo, Gale, or other Place on the Island, or to betake themselves elsewhere. In the first Case, a reasonable Means of Subsistence shall be allowed to each; according to his Rank. In the last they shall be permitted to carry their Effects along with them, without Payment of any Tax or Duty whatever, but then all Allowances to cease.
