

Thigh, which is not extracted yet, who after he had received it, and had a Tourniquet on, insisted on coming on Deck to his Quarters again, where he remained, encouraging his Men, till he was faint with the Loss of Blood, and I was under the Necessity of ordering him to be carried down again; and all the Warrant Officers and Petty Officers and Ship's Company behaved as English Sailors always do on such Occasions. And I am particularly happy in acquainting you, that I have not lost one Life in so warm an Action, and only one wounded besides Captain Strangeways, viz. William Hall, the Corporal of Marines, who also received a Musquet Ball through his Thigh Bone; the Ball passed out on the opposite Side. Our small Loss can only be attributed to their firing totally at our Rigging to disable us, in which they too well succeeded; and His Majesty's Ship Glatton being unfit to keep the Sea from the Damage she has received in her Masts, Yards and Rigging, I have thought fit, for the Good of His Majesty's Service, to come to Yarmouth-Roads to refit.

Admiralty-Office, July 23.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Kingsmill, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Cork, to Mr. Nepean; dated L'En-gageante, Cork Harbour, July 17, 1796.

YOU will please further to inform their Lordships, that His Majesty's Sloop Hazard is just returned, and has brought in with her a French Brig Privateer, of 14 Guns and 106 Men, Le Terrible, from Brest, out Six Days but had not captured any Thing, which she fell in with Yesterday, at Three A. M. Scilly bearing S. S. E. Sixteen Leagues; but having chased her to the N. E. until Eleven o'Clock, and being unable to weather the Land's End or Scilly, it blowing hard and great Sea running, Captain Ruddach thought proper to come hither.
