Downing-Street, July 26.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Colonel Graham; by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, dated Head Quarters, Roveredo, June 30, 1796.

IN the Morning of the 28th Instant the Enemy made several Attacks on the Line of Posts across Monte Baldo, all the Way from the Adige, to the Lago di Garda. They forced one Point near the Centre, where the Resistance was feeble, but, being repulsed every where else, were soon obliged to abandon it. The Enemy have detached a Number of Men into the Milanais, and General Kellerman is preparing to besiege the Citadel. They have likewise detached a Body (it is said of 8 or 10,000 Men) to Ferrara and Bologna. Their Force, therefore, at present near Mantua, is much reduced, and since the last Sortie, in which their Loss was very considerable, they have kept at a greater Distance.

Downing-Street, July 26.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd, by the Right Honourable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, dated Head Quarters of His Royal Highness the Archduke Charles of Austria, Rieberg, near Ertlingen, July 6, 1796.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that His Royal Highness the Archduke assembled near Graben on the 3d Instant the Troops with which he was marching against General Moreau; on the 4th he moved to Mulberg, near Carlsruhe, and on the 5th to the Murg, a River that rises in the Black Forest, and falls into the Rhine about a League from Rattadt.

On the 4th General De La Tour's advanced Posts, which had till then occupied Buhl and Stolhoffen, were obliged to fall back towards the Murg, and on the 5th they recrossed that River, after having resisted for many Hours an Attack that the Enemy made upon them, with a very superior Force, from Odenan, in the Murg Valley, quite to the Rhine. The same Evening Intelligence was received, that the Wirtemberg Troops, and Part of the Contingent of the Circle of Swabia, had abandoned the Pass of Friedenstadt, in the Mountains of the Black Forest, the Possession of which enables the Enemy to operate against the Archduke's Left, and to cut off His Royal Highness's Communication with the Prince of Condé's Army and the Corps of Austrians that was stationed in the Brisgaw, under the Command of General Frolich, at the same Time that it lays open to them the Duchy of Wirtemberg and the Routes leading to the Austrian Magazines at Villmgen and Rothweil.

This Circumstance, so important in its possible Consequences, and so unexpected, from the Position which covers the Pass of Friedenstadt, being considered, as in Reality it is, almost inattackable, obliged His Royal Highness to retire towards Ertlingen on the 6th, and to detach a strong Corps into the Mountains on his Left to secure that Flank, and to endeavour to re-establish a Communication with the Prince of Condé and General Frolich, who will probably have been obliged to fall back towards Willingen, as their Right, and even their Rear, must be endangered if they remained in the Brisgaw after the Swabian Troops had retreated.

The Enemy's Progress on the Lower Rhine has also been considerable. According to the last Reports General Jourdain was marching to the Lahn, with that Part of his Army which had crossed the Rhine at Neuwied; with the Remainder he was manœuvring against the Austrian Corps that was stationed at Neukirchen, about Four Leagues from Dillingbourg; and it is by no Means impossible that he may soon advance to the Mein, as the Austrian Army of the Rhine has been too much weakened by the

the very large Detachments which it was obliged to send to Italy in the Beginning of June, to be able now effectually to oppose the Enemy's Progress on all Sides at the same Time.

Parliament-Street, July 26.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been this Day received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Gordon Forbes, commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Island of St. Domingo, dated Mole St. Nicolas, June 20, 1796.

I Mentioned some Time since my Intentions of taking Possession of the Parish of Bombarde; accordingly I marched from hence on the 8th Instant, with a considerable Body of Troops, against the Fort, a Distance of Fifteen Miles. The only Road by which Cannon could be transported was filled with Abbatis, the Road broke up, Stone Walls built across, and every possible Impediment made Use of to prevent our Approach; added to which, there was not a Drop of Water to be procured. From all these Circumstances, and the excessive Heat of the Weather, our Troops suffered considerably, but, by great Exertions of both Officers and Men, all Difficulties were removed, and, after we had surrounded the Fort, the Garrison, consisting of about Three Hundred Whites, surrendered on Condition of laying down their Arms, and retiring to the next Republican Territory. I have left a sufficient Garrison to protect the Place, and I have no Doubt the Parish will be productive of great Benefit to the Garrison of the Mole, the Air being remarkably wholesome, and it affords a great Quantity of Vegetables and fresh Provisions. I have the Honor to inclose a Return of the Killed, Wounded and Missing on the above Occasion.
