THEIR Majesties and Their Royal Highnesses the Princesses arrived here in perfect Health at a little before Six o'Clock in the Afternoon.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 27th of July, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS it has been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that in consequence of the Progress of the French Arms in the Territories of the Grand Duke of Tuscany, the Payment of Bills of Exchange, drawn or negotiated in the Town of Leghorn, may be deemed unlawful, by virtue of the Provisions contained in an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for preventing Money or Effects in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposeable by Persons resident in France, being applied to the Use of the Persons exercising the Powers of Government in France; and for preserving the Property thereof for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof;" and in an Act passed in the same Session, intituled, "An Act for more effectually preserving Money or Effects in the Hands of His Majesty's Subjects, belonging to or disposeable by Persons resident in France, for the Benefit of the individual Owners thereof;" unless His Majesty shall licence the Payment of such Bills, in pursuance of the Powers given by the said several Acts; His Majesty, taking the same into His Royal Consideration, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, That it shall be lawful for any Person residing or being in Great Britain to pay any Bill drawn or indorsed in the said Town of Leghorn, and sent from thence on or before the Day on which the Armies of France entered the said Town of Leghorn; provided such Bill shall have been made payable at no greater Distance of Time than Usance of Three Months from the Date thereof, or Three Months from Sight thereof; provided also that all and every Person and Persons, who shall take the Benefit of such Licence hereby granted, shall so take the same, upon Condition, that in case of any Proceeding, Criminal or Civil, under the Provisions of the said Acts of Parliament, or either of them, for any Thing alledged to have been done contrary thereto, any Question shall arise, whether the Thing so done was authorized by the Licence hereby given, the Proof that such Thing was done, under the particular Circumstances, and according to the special Terms and Conditions required by this Order, shall lie on the Persons claiming the Benefit of such Licence.
