Whitehall, September 13, 1796.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that, on the Afternoon of June the 11th, Mr. William Stephens, an Officer of Excise, accompanied by an Expletant, came up with Two Men on Horseback, on the Road between Penryn and Gweek, one of whom had a single Horse, the other Two Ankers, which the Officers supposing to contain smuggled Spirits, attempted to seize, when One of the Offenders immediately cocked his Gun, and presented it at Stephens, swearing, with horrid Imprecations, that if he attempted to touch it he would shoot him. That at this Time Three more Men had come to the Smugglers Assistance, armed with large Bludgeons, which obliged the Officers to desist; and as they were going off one of the Offenders fired at them, and lodged several Shots in the said Stephens's Hat.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the daring Outrage above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Person who actually fired the said Gun) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended, and convicted thereof.
