Admiralty-Office, September 13.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren, K. B. to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on Board His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, Falmouth, the 10th Instant.

S I R,

I Request you will inform their Lordships, that on the 22d of August, at Ten A. M. a Sail was discovered in the S. S. W. Quarter; I immediately dispatched the Galatea after her, who made the Signal of her being an Enemy's Frigate; I therefore followed with the rest of the Ships, and soon observed that she was standing in near the Mouth of the Garonne; Captain Keats, however, with much Address, cut her off from the Entrance, having passed, with the Galatea, between the Chevrier Bank and the Light-House: The Enemy then wore and stood along Shore to the Southward, being pursued by all the Squadron, and keeping within Half Gun-Shot of the Coast. The Artois and Sylph, who had been detached to examine Two large Ships that appeared suspicious, continued their Course in the Offing, when about Nine P. M. the Horizon became dark, attended with violent Squalls of extreme heavy Rain, Lightning and Thunder, so as to oblige the Galatea and this Ship, who were nearly within Shot of the Frigate, to shorten Sail, and keep away at Times, and it was supposed she had bore up, as we lost Sight of her.

I therefore stood with the Anson to the Northward, thinking she might have hauled her Wind that Way, but at Day-Light, seeing nothing of her, tacked and continued our Course to the Southward, until we discovered her run on Shore, with the Loss of her Masts, within Five Leagues of Arcasson, and the Artois, Galatea and Sylph (who had seen her again during the Night) at Anchor near her, when she was boarded with much Risk and Gallantry by the Boats of the Artois and Galatea, under the Command of Lieutenants Lloyd and Carter.

It was impossible to prevent the Men from endeavouring to escape on Shore, although great Numbers fell Victims in the Attempt, owing to the great Surf and Swell that set upon the Beach, and of Course many were drowned.

Her Captain and some of the principal Officers, with several Portuguese Prisoners, Part of the Crews of Two Brazil Ships, taken by the Division to which this Ship, (who was named L'Andromaque, a very fine and large Frigate, pierced for 48 Guns, Twelve Pounds, most of which had been thrown overboard, and her Complement Three Hundred Men) belonged, were brought on Board the Ships of this Squadron

Squadron, when she was set on Fire by our People, and completely consumed before they left her.

The Officers and Boats Crew of the above mentioned Ships behaved with the utmost Activity upon this Occasion.

I have subjoined a List of Vessels captured and burnt by the Squadron under my Command, as well as the Division of the Enemy's Frigates.

I have the Honor to remain, &c. &c. &c.
