Published by Authority.

From Tuesday October 4, to Saturday October 8, 1796.

Westminster, October 6, 1796.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is a peculiar Satisfaction to Me, in the present Conjunction of Affairs, to recur to your Advice, after the recent Opportunity which has been given for collecting the Sense of My People, engaged in a difficult and arduous Contest, for the Preservation of all that is most dear to Us.

I have omitted no Endeavours for setting on foot Negotiations to restore Peace to Europe, and to secure for the future the general Tranquillity.—The Steps which I have taken for this Purpose have at length opened the Way to an immediate and direct Negotiation, the Issue of which must either produce the desirable End of a just, honourable, and solid Peace for Us, and for Our Allies, or must prove, beyond Dispute, to what Cause alone the Prolongation of the Calamities of War must be ascribed.

I shall immediately send a Person to Paris with Full Powers to treat for this Object, and it is My anxious Wish that this Measure may lead to the Restoration of general Peace: But you must be sensible, that nothing can so much contribute to give Effect to this Desire, as your manifesting that We possess both the Determination and the Resources to oppose, with increased Activity and Energy, the further Efforts with which We may have to contend.

You will feel this peculiarly necessary at a Moment when the Enemy has openly manifested the Intention of attempting a Descent on these Kingdoms.—It cannot be doubted what would be the Issue of such an Enterprize; but it befits your Wisdom to neglect no Precautions that may either preclude the Attempt, or secure the speediest Means of turning it to the Confusion and Ruin of the Enemy.

In reviewing the Events of the Year, you will have observed, that, by the Skill and Exertions of My Navy, Our extensive and increasing Commerce has been protected to a Degree almost beyond Example, and the Fleets of the Enemy have, for the greatest Part of the Year, been blocked up in their own Ports.

The Operations in the East and West Indies have been highly honourable to the British Arms, and productive of great National Advantage; and the Valour and good Conduct of My Forces, both by Sea and Land, have been eminently conspicuous.

The Fortune of War on the Continent has been more various, and the Progress of the French Armies threatened, at one Period, the utmost Danger to all Europe; but from the honourable and dignified Perseverance of My Ally the Emperor, and from the

Intrepidity,

Intrepidity, Discipline, and invincible Spirit of the Austrian Forces, under the auspicious Conduct of the Archduke Charles, such a Turn has lately been given to the Course of the War, as may inspire a well-grounded Confidence, that the final Result of the Campaign will prove more disastrous to the Enemy, than it's Commencement and Progress, for a Time, were favourable to their Hopes.

The apparently hostile Dispositions and Conduct of the Court of Madrid have led to Discussions of which I am not yet enabled to acquaint you with the final Result; but I am confident, that, whatever may be their Issue, I shall have given to Europe a further Proof of My Moderation and Forbearance; and I can have no Doubt of your Determination to defend, against every Aggression, the Dignity, Rights, and Interests of the British Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I rely on your Zeal and Public Spirit for such Supplies as you may think necessary for the Service of the Year. It is a great Satisfaction to Me to observe, that, notwithstanding the temporary Embarrassments which have been experienced, the State of the Commerce, Manufactures, and Revenue of the Country, proves the real Extent and Solidity of Our Resources, and furnishes you such Means as must be equal to any Exertions which the present Crisis may require.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Distresses, which were in the last Year experienced from the Scarcity of Corn, are now, by the Blessing of God, happily removed, and an abundant Harvest affords the pleasing Prospect of Relief in that important Article to the labouring Classes of the Community.—Our internal Tranquillity has also continued undisturbed:—The general Attachment of My People to the British Constitution has appeared on every Occasion; and the Endeavours of those who wished to introduce Anarchy and Confusion into this Country, have been repressed by the Energy and Wisdom of the Laws.

To defeat all the Designs of Our Enemies, to restore to My People the Blessings of a secure and honourable Peace, to maintain inviolate their Religion, Laws, and Liberty, and to deliver down, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, is the constant Wish of My Heart, and the uniform End of all My Actions.—In every Measure that can conduce to these Objects, I am confident of receiving the firm, zealous, and affectionate Support of My Parliament.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of October, 1796,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, that an Order, made at this Board on the Third Day of September last, granting Licence, notwithstanding certain Acts passed in the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Years of His Majesty's Reign, and therein mentioned, to pay, send, supply, or deliver, or cause to be paid, sent, supplied, or delivered, either by Payment or Remittance, of any Bill of Exchange, Note, Draught, Obligation, or Order for Money, or in any other Manner whatsoever, any Money, to or for the Use of any Person or Persons residing or being in any Part or Place of the United Provinces, the Austrian Netherlands, or Italy, or in any Town or Place in Germany, and to do divers other Acts, in the said Order particularly mentioned: And the Licence thereby given, and every Part thereof, be revoked and discharged; and the said Order, and the Licence thereby given, and every Part thereof, are hereby revoked and discharged. PROCLAMATION for pardoning DESERTERS.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, That there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an Instance of his Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour;

His Majesty has been graciously pleased, by his Order in Council, to grant his free Pardon to all Deserters from his Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of November next, to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector-General of the Recruiting Service at Chatham Barracks.

Warren to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated La Pomone, Falmouth Harbour, Oâtober 3, 1796.

I Beg you will communicate to their Lordships, that in consequence of the Activity of Captain White, whose Letter is inclosed, in Company with the Argus Lugger, the Privateer mentioned in my last was this Day brought into Carrick Road.

Copy of a Letter from Captain John C. White, Com-mmander of His Majesty's Sloop the Sylph, to Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren.

S I R,

IN obedience to your Orders, received on Friday Evening, directing me to proceed off the Lizard, in Search of an Enemy's Cutter that had been seen on the Coast, we immediately got under Weigh, in Company with the Argus Lugger, and at Day-light on the following Morning, the Lizard bearing N. N. E. Eight Leagues, I had the Pleasure (among many Veffels) to discover the above Cutter standing to the Eastward, and, after a Chace of Four Hours, the Sylph came up and captured the Phœnix French Privateer, of Four Guns and Thirty-two Men; a new and remarkable fast sailing Vessel, on her first Cruise from Cherbourg. She had been out Six Days, and had taken, between the Land's End and Lizard, Four Prizes, (Three Sloops and a Brig)
which were ordered to make the first convenient Port in France. The Crews of the Sloops had been put on Board a neutral Vessel, to be landed in England;
those belonging to the Brig were the only English found on Board her. After shifting the Prisoners, we

we stood to the S. E. in Hopes of falling in with the Brig, which they had taken only the preceding Day, but we were not so fortunate as to intercept her; and as your Orders strictly required me to return to Falmouth on Sunday Morning, I have lost no Time to gain this Port.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
