

Intrepidity, Discipline, and invincible Spirit of the Austrian Forces, under the auspicious Conduct of the Archduke Charles, such a Turn has lately been given to the Course of the War, as may inspire a well-grounded Confidence, that the final Result of the Campaign will prove more disastrous to the Enemy, than it's Commencement and Progress, for a Time, were favourable to their Hopes.

The apparently hostile Dispositions and Conduct of the Court of Madrid have led to Discussions of which I am not yet enabled to acquaint you with the final Result; but I am confident, that, whatever may be their Issue, I shall have given to Europe a further Proof of My Moderation and Forbearance; and I can have no Doubt of your Determination to defend, against every Aggression, the Dignity, Rights, and Interests of the British Empire.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I rely on your Zeal and Public Spirit for such Supplies as you may think necessary for the Service of the Year. It is a great Satisfaction to Me to observe, that, notwithstanding the temporary Embarrassments which have been experienced, the State of the Commerce, Manufactures, and Revenue of the Country, proves the real Extent and Solidity of Our Resources, and furnishes you such Means as must be equal to any Exertions which the present Crisis may require.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Distresses, which were in the last Year experienced from the Scarcity of Corn, are now, by the Blessing of God, happily removed, and an abundant Harvest affords the pleasing Prospect of Relief in that important Article to the labouring Classes of the Community.—Our internal Tranquillity has also continued undisturbed:—The general Attachment of My People to the British Constitution has appeared on every Occasion; and the Endeavours of those who wished to introduce Anarchy and Confusion into this Country, have been repressed by the Energy and Wisdom of the Laws.

To defeat all the Designs of Our Enemies, to restore to My People the Blessings of a secure and honourable Peace, to maintain inviolate their Religion, Laws, and Liberty, and to deliver down, unimpaired, to the latest Posterity, the Glory and Happiness of these Kingdoms, is the constant Wish of My Heart, and the uniform End of all My Actions.—In every Measure that can conduce to these Objects, I am confident of receiving the firm, zealous, and affectionate Support of My Parliament.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 5th of October, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.
