PROCLAMATION for pardoning DESERTERS
War-Office, September 22, 1796.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the King, That there are at this Time several Deserters from the different Regular Corps in His Majesty's Land Service, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of His Majesty's gracious Pardon, and that such an Instance of his Royal Clemency would have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour;

His Majesty has been graciously pleased, by his Order in Council, to grant his free Pardon to all Deserters from his Regular Land Forces, who shall surrender themselves, on or before the 10th Day of November next, to any of the Superintending Field Officers of the Recruiting Service, whose Stations are mentioned in the Margin hereof, or to the Inspector-General of the Recruiting Service at Chatham Barracks.

Such Deserters, if able-bodied Men and fit for Service, shall be appointed to such Regiments as His Majesty may be pleased to command; and shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may formerly have belonged.

And whereas many of the said Deserters may have enlisted in other Regular Corps, and are now serving therein, His Majesty is graciously pleased to extend to such Deserters the Benefit of this Pardon; and to direct that they shall continue to serve in the Corps wherein they now are, without being under the Necessity of declaring themselves Deserters, in order to entitle them to the Benefit of this Pardon; and they shall not be liable, at any future Time, to be claimed by the Regiments in which they formerly served: But this Clause is not to extend to Deserters enlisted by the Corps raising Recruits for general Service; which Deserters are only to be entitled to their Pardon on declaring themselves at Chatham Barracks to be such, and being there transferred to some established Regiment.

And whereas several of the said Deserters have been apprehended, and are now in Gaol, or in Regimental gimental Custody, His Majesty is likewise pleased to grant them his free Pardon, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival under Escort at Chatham Barracks, where they will be disposed of in the Manner above-mentioned.

Any Soldier who may desert after these His Majesty's gracious Intentions are made public, shall not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded against with the utmost Severity.

By His Majesty's Command,
W. WINDHAM.

War-Office, September 24, 1796.

By His Majesty's Command,
W. Windham.

Extract of a Letter from Sir Edward Pellew, Bart. Captain of His Majesty's Ship Indefatigable, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 2d of October, 1796, off Cape Penin.

HAVING, by the Recapture of the Brig Queen of Naples from Lisbon to Cork, received Information of Two Schooner Privateers which infest the Seas in the Neighbourhood of Corunna, and that One of them had, Two Days before, taken a valuable Brig from Bristol, laden with Bale Goods, which she supposed could not be arrived at her Destination, which was Corunna, I immediately pushed for that Port, and was happy enough this Day to capture One of the Schooners, the Ariel, of Boston, from Bordeaux Fourteen Days, mounting Twelve Guns and 75 Men; the other Schooner, called Le Vengeur, of the same Force, I am in great Hopes we shall meet with. The Bristol Brig, however, is, I hear, arrived at Ferrol, into which Port I have driven Two Frigates.

St. James's, October 8.

The King has been pleased to grant unto John March, of Weeley Hall, in the Parish of Weeley, in the County of Essex, Gent, his Royal Licence and Authority that he and his Issue may assume and take the Surname and bear the Arms of Weeley only, in Compliance with the last Will and Testament, and in grateful Respect to the Memory of Samuel Weeley, of Weeley Hall aforesaid, Esq; lately deceased.

Whitehall, October 15.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Hull and Cottingham Volunteers.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Hull and Cottingham Volunteers, esteem it an indispensable Duty to omit no Opportunity of tendering your Majesty the sincerest Assurances of Loyalty and Attachment. The many and great Blessings enjoyed under your Majesty's mild and gracious Government must at all Times excite and demand the warmest Expressions of Affection and Zeal for your Majesty's Person and the happy Constitution of our Country. At this Time, when the common Disturbers of the Peace of Europe threaten to interrupt the Tranquillity and Happiness of your Majesty's British Dominions by an Invasion, we your faithful Subjects, first embodied for the immediate Defence of the neighbouring Coast, beg Leave to offer our Services, on any existing Emergency, in the Case of an Invasion, to any Part of Great Britain your Majesty may think it necessary to command us.

By Desire of the Corps,
Christopher Macbell, Major Commandant.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the most sincere Regard for your Majesty's sacred Person, and with the most profound Reverence for our glorious Constitution, we, the Three Companies of Canterbury Volunteers, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, to testify our Loyalty, and to tender our Services at this awful Moment, when our daring and desperate Foes have insolently avowed their Intention of making a Descent upon our Country.

Under the mild and benign Influence of your Majesty's Government, we feel ourselves impelled; on the present Occasion, to come forward with the utmost Zeal and Energy in Defence of those equal Laws, that holy Religion, and those invaluable Liberties, which all your Majesty's Subjects so eminently enjoy.

Permit us therefore, most gracious Sire, to lay before you the following Resolutions, to which the whole Corps of Canterbury Volunteers, both Officers and Privates, have individually affixed their respective Signatures.

Resolved,

That we will hold ourselves in Readiness, on being called upon by special Direction of His Majesty, to march to any Part of the County of Kent upon the Appearance of an Invasion, and, in case of an actual Invasion, to march to any Part of the Kingdom to repel such Invasion.

Resolved,

That we will march, on being called on in pursuance of an Order from His Majesty, or from the Lord Lieutenant or Sheriff of the County, to act within within the City of Canterbury, the County of Kent, or the adjacent Counties, for the Suppression of Riots and Tumults.

Resolved,

That Captain Simmons, Captain Hodges, and Captain Staines, do present the above Resolutions to His Majesty.

Guildhall, Canterbury,
Sept. 7, 1796.

James Simmons,
Captain Commandant.

Admiralty-Office, October 15, 1796.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Morvat, of His Majesty's Ship Assistance, dated Halifax, September 14, 1796, to Mr. Nepean.

I Have to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on the 28th of last Month, about Four Leagues East South East from Cape Henry, the Thistle, who had been sent to look out in the East North East Quarter, a little after Five in the Morning made the Signal for Three strange Ships being in the East South East. The Bermuda, who had been in Chace of a Brig the Evening before in that Quarter, and who was Seven or Eight Miles nearer the strange Ships than any of the Squadron, the Thistle excepted, repeated or made the Signal, that the Ships seen were Enemy's Ships; upon which the Admiral immediately made the Signal for a general Chace. The Squadron was then composed of the Flag-Ship, the Assistance, Thetis, Thistle, Topaze, and Bermuda. So very light was the Breeze, and withal partial, that the Ships did not steer for some Time. The Topaze was the first that had the Breeze, the Thetis, being at some Distance from her, was the next, and the Flag-Ship soon after; the Assistance, being to Leeward and astern, did not obey her Helm before the Topaze was Eight or Nine Miles advanced, the Thetis and Resolution about Half that Distance. The Squadron continued in Pursuit, and about Half past Five, in the Evening the Topaze brought the nearest Ship to Action, upon which she returned a Broad-side, and hauled down her Colours. The Bermuda being near, bore down to the Prize, and the Assistance's Signal was made to take Possession of her. The Flag-Ship and the Frigates, without a Moment's Loss of Time, continued in Chace of the other Two Frigates. The Admiral's verbal Message to me, by Captain Maxtone, was to proceed to Halifax with the Prize. Upon my taking Possession of her, I found her to be L'Elisabeth, mounting Thirty-six Guns, 24 Twelve-Pounders on her Main Deck, and 12 Nines on her Quarter Deck and Forecastle, a large Ship, said to be about a Thousand Tons.

Resolved unanimously,

That this Court, feeling the Necessity there is, at this important Crisis, for adding, by every Constitutional Means, to the efficient Force of the Country, doth approve of the Honorable the Court of Directors making an Application for His Majesty's Leave to raise Two Regiments of Volunteers, subject to the Provisions of an Act of Parliament passed in the 34th Year of His pre-
