of Austria, Betzenstein, September 16,

Corps from the Archduke's Head Quarters, and other Circumstances, have prevented my being able till now to have the Honor of transmitting to your Lordship the Details of an Affair, which, (though it was not of sufficient Importance to have any material Influence on the general Operations of the Army, and is now of too old a Date to be interesting as an Article of Intelligence) reflects so much Honor on the Prince of Condé and his Corps, that it would be an Act of Injustice to those brave and unfortunate Persons, were your Lordship to be left uninformed of the Particulars of their very gallant Conduct. Lieutenant-Colonel Craufurd has therefore desired me, though thus late, to give your Lordship an Account of this Action, and I have taken it from the most authentic Sources.

the Country between the Danube and the Tyrol in the Beginning of last Month was so small, that the
