Downing-Street, November 13, 1796.

ISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Captain Andruther and Robert Craufurd, Efq; by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Head-Quarters of His Royal Highaels the Archduke Charles of Austria, Hecholizheim, Osober 17, 1796.

My Lord, I'my Disputch of the 13th I had the Honor of giving your Lordship an Account of the Movements of the Corps under the Command of Generals La Tour, Nauendorf and Petrarfeh, down to the off Intant. On the 10th General La Tour followed the Enemy towards Stokach and Engen; but finding that their Retreat through the Val D'Enfer could no longer be prevented, he discontinued the Pursuit; and marched by his Right towards the Valley of the Kinzig, in order to form a Junction with His Royal Highness. The Archduke arrived with his main Body in the Neighbourhood of Hornberg. On the Life Generals Nanendorf and Petrarich preceded him nearly in the fame Direction. The former took Roll of Elesach on the 14th, and the latter at Kinizign. On the 15th the Coups of the Prince of Condé and General Prolich alone continued to follow the Enemy through the Defiles of the Black Forest.
