Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 15, to Saturday November 19, 1796,

By the KING,

A P R O C L A M A T I O N,

For Pardoning such Deserters from His Majesty's Marine Forces as shall return into His Majesty's Service on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that there are at this Time several Deserters from Our Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that such an Instance of Our Clemency might have due Influence upon their future Behaviour, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby promise Our most Gracious Pardon to all Deserters from Our Marine Forces, who shall surrender themselves on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next, to the Commanding Officers of the Chatham, Portsmouth or Plymouth Divisions of Marines; and We do hereby declare, that such Marines, so surrendering themselves as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may have formerly belonged: And We do further declare, That Our said Pardon shall extend to such Deserters as have been apprehended, and are now in Gaol or Regimental Custody, upon their Arrival under Escort at Head Quarters. But We do hereby further declare, that any Marine Soldier who shall desert after these Our Intentions shall have been made publick, shall not be included in the Pardon above offered, but shall, if found guilty by a Court Martial, be deemed unfit Objects of Our Royal Mercy.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign,

G O D save the KING,

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th of November, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has received Information, that divers unjust Seizures have been made in the Ports of Spain of the Ships and Goods of His Majesty's Subjects, and that Acts of Hostility and unprovoked Aggression have been committed by the Ships of His Catholick Majesty on Ships and Vessels of His Majesty and his Subjects: His Majesty therefore, being determined to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of his Crown, and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction for his injured Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well His Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or otherwise otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the King of Spain, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions; and to that End His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprizals, to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing and taking the Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to Spain, and the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or any inhabiting within his Countries, Territories or Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents. And His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon, all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same; and, according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels and Goods as shall belong to Spain, or the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or to any others inhabiting within any of His Countries, Territories and Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty, at this Board, a Draught of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance herein; as also another Draught of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes aforementioned.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Moore, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Melampus, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated off the Isle of Wight, November 14, 1796.

I Have to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordships, that Yesterday Morning at Day-light His Majesty's Ships Minerva and Melampus drove a French National Corvette on Shore in the Entrance of Barfleur Harbour. The Wind being directly on Shore, and the Tide falling, it was impossible for His Majesty's Ships to get near enough to destroy her; but I have no Doubt she must be totally lost, it being near Half Ebb when she struck.

Captain Peyton having ordered me to work up towards Havre, with the Melampus and Childers, we parted from the Minerva in the Evening, and at Eight A. M. this Morning, the Childers being in Company, we discovered a Ship, to which we gave Chace: At Four P. M. we began to fire our Bow Guns at her, which she returned with what Guns she could bring to bear: At Half past Five, being within Half Musket Shot, and going to give her a Broad-side, she discharged her Guns in the Air, and struck her Colours. She proves to be L'Etna, of 18 Twelve Pounders and 137 Men, commanded by Citizen Joseph La Coudrais, a National Corvette, from Havre bound to Brest, laden for the Republic with Naval and Military Stores; and various other Articles. The Prisoners inform me, that the other Corvette ashore at Barfleur, had sailed the Night before L'Etna did from the Basin of Havre, is called L'Etonnant, mounting 18 Eighteen Pounders, bound for Brest, and laden with Naval and Military Stores. They are both quite new, very complete Ships, and their first Cruize.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Rowwater, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Trent, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Yarmouth Roads, October 16, 1796.

YOU will be pleased to inform their Lordships, that, in consequence of the Representation of the Mayor of Yarmouth, informing me that Two Ships passing between Ousley Bay and this Place, were attacked by a small Cutter Privateer off Southwold, on Monday Eve, about Nine o'Clock. I Yesterday

Yesterday Morning dispatched the Phoenix hired Cutter in Quest of her, and to give Information to the Espeigle Brig, on that Station.

Thursday Morning, November 17.

The Wind blowing very hard all Day Yesterday from the Westward, prevented my sending this to the Post, and since that Time the Phoenix has returned to this Place, bringing in with her the Privateer Cutter she was sent after. The Privateer had been Four Days from Dunkirk, and had taken a light Collier Brig the Day before she was captured.

Copy of a Letter from Lieutenant William Sharp, commanding His Majesty's hired Armed Cutter the Dover, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Swansea, November 16, 1796.

S I R,

I AM to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordships, that on the 12th Instant I captured, in His Majesty's hired Armed Cutter Dover, under my Command, Seven Leagues South of the Land's End, the Providence, Lugger Privateer, a new fast-sailing Vessel, carrying Four Three Pounders, pierced for Eight, with 29 Men; out Four Days from St. Maloes, and had not taken any Thing.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

WM. SHARP.

Admiralty-Office, November 18, 1796.

Copy of a Letter from Commodore Sir J. B. Warren to Vice-Admiral Colpoys, dated on Board His Majesty's Ship La Pomone, at Sea, 2d Instant.

S I R,

I Beg Leave to inform you, that this Morning, Uihant bearing N. E. by E. Eight Leagues, I discovered His Majesty's Ship Thaha in Chace of a strange Sail; and the Artois being pretty well to Windward, I made her Signal to join the Pursuit also, and have the Satisfaction to say, that Sir Edmund Nagle brought her to at Eleven A. M. Uihant then bearing N. E. by E. Eleven Leagues. She proves to be Le Franklin, mounting Twelve Six Pounders, and a Complement of 100 Men.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

JOHN WARREN.

Vice-Admiral Colpoys, Esq. Esq. Esq.

St. James's, November 17.

This Day the Baron de Rieger, Envoy Extraordinary from His Royal Highness the Duke of Wirtemberg, had a Private Audience of Her Majesty:

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petitions of James John Vassar, Esq; and also the Petition of the thereunder signed Assistant Burgesses, Burgesses Landholders, and other the Burgesses of the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petitions did, in Part, depend upon the Right of Election; and that, thereupon, the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said several Petitioners delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Petitioners state, that the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts, is in the Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Landholders, and Commoners of the said Borough." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, Samuel Smith and Peter Isaac Thellusson, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state, that the Right of Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Malmesbury, in the County of Wilts, is in the Alderman and Twelve Capital Burgesses only." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for

“ for the said Borough of Malmesbury. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough of Malmesbury.” I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.” Given under my Hand, the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.

Jovis, 10^o Die Novembris, 1796.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of the Honorable Augustus Ludlow, commonly called Lord Preston, of the Kingdom of Ireland, and Robert Adair, Esq; and also the Petition of the thereunder signed Inhabitants of the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall, paying Scot and Lot, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, “ That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the said several Petitions did, in Part, depend upon the Right of Election; and that, thereupon, the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Counsel for the said several Petitioners delivered in a Statement as follows: “ That the Right of Election is in Freemen, and also Inhabitants, paying Scot and Lot, in the Borough of Camelford in the County of Cornwall.” That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, William Joseph Dennison, Esq; and John Angerstein, Esq; delivered in a Statement as follows: “ The Sitting Members contend the Right of Election for the Borough of Camelford is in the Mayor, Capital Burgesses, and Freemen of the said Borough.” That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners, the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the Sitting Members the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford. That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election for the said Borough of Camelford, have determined, That the Right of Election for Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Camelford is in the Freemen, being Inhabitants, and paying Scot and Lot. That the said Select Committee have also determined, That

“ the Capital Burgesses of the said Borough have no Right to vote for Members to serve in Parliament for that Borough, unless they be free Burgesses, inhabiting and paying Scot and Lot.” I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of an Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, “ An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament.” Given under my Hand the Sixteenth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six.
