By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For Pardoning such Deserters from His Majesty's Marine Forces as shall return into His Majesty's Service on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath been represented unto Us, that there are at this Time several Deserters from Our Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon; and that such an Instance of Our Clemency might have a due Influence upon their future Behaviour, We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby promise Our most Gracious Pardon to all Deserters from Our Marine Forces, who shall surrender themselves on or before the Thirty-first Day of December next, to the Commanding Officers of the Chatham, Portsmouth or Plymouth Divisions of Marines; and We do hereby declare, that such Marines, so surrendering themselves as aforesaid, shall not be liable to be claimed by any other Corps to which they may have formerly belonged: And We do further declare, That Our said Pardon shall extend to such Deserters as have been apprehended, and are now in Gaol or Regimental Custody, upon their Arrival under Escort at Head Quarters. But We do hereby further declare, that any Marine Soldier who shall desert after these Our Intentions shall have been made publick, shall not be included in the Pardon above offered, but shall, if found guilty by a Court Martial, be deemed unfit Objects of Our Royal Mercy.

Given at Our Court: at St. James's, the Second Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 9th of November, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty has received Information, that divers unjust Seizures have been made in the Ports of Spain of the Ships and Goods of His Majesty's Subjects, and that Acts of Hostility and unprovoked Aggression have been committed by the Ships of His Catholick Majesty on Ships and Vessels of His Majesty and his Subjects: His Majesty therefore, being determined to take such Measures as are necessary for vindicating the Honor of his Crown, and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction for his injured Subjects, is pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well His Majesty's Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that shall be commissioned by Letters of Marque or General Reprizals, or

otherwise, by His Majesty's Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to the King of Spain, or his Subjects, or others inhabiting within the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of the Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions; and to that End His Majesty's Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, or any Person or Persons by them empowered and appointed, to issue forth and grant Letters of Marque and Reprizals, to any of His Majesty's Subjects, or others whom the said Commissioners shall deem fitly qualified in that Behalf, for the apprehending, seizing and taking the Ships, Vessels and Goods belonging to Spain, and the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or any inhabiting within his Countries, Territories or Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual, and are according to former Precedents. And His Majesty's said Advocate-General, with the Advocate of the Admiralty, are also forthwith to prepare the Draught of a Commission, and present the same to His Majesty at this Board, authorizing the said Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, to will and require the High Court of Admiralty of Great Britain, and the Lieutenant and Judge of the said Court, his Surrogate or Surrogates, as also the several Courts of Admiralty within His Majesty's Dominions, to take Cognizance of, and judicially proceed upon, all and all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes and Reprizals of all Ships and Goods that are or shall be taken, and to hear and determine the same; and, according to the Course of Admiralty and the Laws of Nations, to adjudge and condemn all such Ships, Vessels and Goods as shall belong to Spain, or the Vassals and Subjects of the King of Spain, or to any others inhabiting within any of His Countries, Territories and Dominions; and that such Powers and Clauses be inserted in the said Commission as have been usual and are according to former Precedents; and they are likewise to prepare and lay before His Majesty, at this Board, a Draught of such Instructions as may be proper to be sent to the Courts of Admiralty in His Majesty's Foreign Governments and Plantations for their Guidance here; as also another Draught of Instructions for such Ships as shall be commissioned for the Purposes aforementioned.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 23d of November, 1796.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint John Graves Simcoe, Esq; Major-General of His Majesty's Forces, to be Governor and Commander in Chief in and over such Parts of the Island of St. Domingo as are or may be in the Possession of His Majesty, he this Day took the Oath appointed to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations.

Downing-Street, November 26.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are Copies, have been received from Robert Craufurd, Esq; by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

Head Quarters of His Royal Highness the Archduke Charles of Austria, Offenbourg, November 11, 1796.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that official Accounts were this Day received by the Archduke from General Davidovitch, stating his having beaten the Corps that was opposed to him, and taken a Thousand Prisoners.

His Advanced Guard has taken Possession of Trente, which Place, as well as the strong Position behind it, were abandoned by the Enemy without Resistance.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. CRAUFURD

Right Hon. Lord Grenville, Sec. Sec. &c.

MY LORD,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that by a Report received by His Royal Highness the Archduke from Lieutenant-General Neu, Governor nor of Mayence, it appears, that the Corps which had advanced to the Nahe has been obliged to fall back, and take a Position behind the Seltz.

This Corps consisted merely of Detachments from the Garrison of Mayence, commanded by Major Generals Simpſchæn and Roſenberg. The latter, with the Left Wing, was poſted on the Heights of Biebelſheim and Planig, to obſerve Creutznach; the former, with the Right Wing, on the Hill called the Rochuſberg, to defend the Paſſage of Bingen. They had Orders, in caſe of being attacked by a very ſuperior Force, to retire nearer to Mayence.

This Position on the Right Bank of the Lower Nahe is well known from the Operations of laſt Year. It is not to be maintained againſt an Enemy of very ſuperior Force; for Creutznach lies ſo entirely under the Fire of the Hills from the Left Bank of the River, that the Enemy is always Maſter of that Paſſage, as was ſufficiently proved by the Affair of the 1ſt of December, 1795. On this Side Creutznach the Heights are ſo diſtant from the River, that the Enemy has every Facility in extending himſelf in Front and on each Flank of the Town; and a Corps of very inferior Force cannot take Poſt near enough to prevent this Formation.

On the 26th Generals Simpſchæn and Roſenberg were attacked by Two Diviſions of the Army of Sambre and Meuſe. The Action laſted ſeveral Hours, and the Enemy, notwithſtanding ſo very great an Inequality of Numbers, was repulſed with conſiderable Loſs.

Early on the 27th the French renewed the Attack, and advanced in ſeveral Columns from Creutznach, to turn the Left of the Auſtrians; but the latter, by an Exertion of much Ability and Steadineſs, maintained their Poſition. In the Evening, however, the Generals, in Conformity to the Order mentioned above, determined on retiring behind the Seltz; and the Retreat was executed with perfect Order.

The Loſs of the Auſtrians on this Occaſion conſiſts in Nineteen killed, One Hundred and Eighty-four wounded, Ninety-fix miſſing; on the Whole Two Hundred and Ninety-nine Men and Eighty-nine Horſes.

The Enemy's was certainly conſiderable; Two Hundred of them were taken Priſoners and brought into Mayence.

I am thus circumſtantial in ſtating the Particulars of this, in Fact, unimportant Affair, becauſe I obſerve that the official Reports of the Army of Sambre and Meuſe, I mean the late ones, contain the moſt abſurd Exaggerations. I ſhould conſider them perfectly undeſerving of Notice, were it not that thoſe who have no other Means of judging of the Events of the Campaign than by comparing the Accounts publiſhed by the contending Armies would be led into the moſt erroneous Concluſions if they gave each Party Credit for only an equal Degree of Fairneſs in their Relations.

In the Enemy's official Account of the Affair of the 21ſt of laſt Month near Neuwied, it is repreſented as having been a ſerious and general Attack; whereas it was merely undertaken for the Purpoſe of deſtroying his Bridge, and ſpreading Alarm on the Left Bank of the Rhine. Both theſe Objects were effected by a very inſignificant Force; and there was not the ſmalleſt Idea of making a ſerious Aſſault on the Tete-de-Pont of Neuwied. The Enemy ſtates, that, be-ſides an immense Number of killed and drowned, he actually took One Thouſand Priſoners, whereas I can aſſure your Lordſhip, from the moſt authentic Information, that the whole Loſs of the Auſtrians did not exceed Two Hundred and Eighty-four Men.

After General Moreau's Army had croſſed the Rhine, Two Diviſions of it were detached towards Landau, and One Diviſion of the Army of Sambre and Meuſe arrived about the ſame Time in the Neighbourhood of Kayſerlautern. General Hotze was ſtill at Schweigenheim, on the Road from Speyer to Landau; his Corps was not of ſufficient Strength to have any other Object than that of ſpreading Alarm in Lower Alſace; and it was evident, that as ſoon as the Rhine ſhould again ſeparate the main Armies, the Enemy muſt immediately become Maſters of the Vicinity of Landau.

General Hotze, therefore, on the Approach of Forces infinitely ſo ſuperior to his own, retired towards the entrenched Camp of Mannheim, without being in the ſmalleſt Degree moleſted by the Enemy. He eſtabliſhed the advanced Poſts of his Left Wing on the Reebach, from whence they ran along the Fletz-bach towards Franckenthal.

On the 7th Inſtant the French attacked General Hotze's Line. Their principal Efforts were directed againſt the Left Wing, and the Fire of Artillery and Small Arms continued a great Part of the Day; but the Enemy was repulſed, and General Hotze ſtill maintains his Poſts in Front of the entrenched Camp, extending from the Reebach, by the Village of Mannheim, to Franckenthal.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

(Signed) ROB. CRAUFURD.

*Head Quarters of His Royal Highneſs
the Archduke Charles of Auſtria, Offenburg, November 14, 1796.*

MY LORD,

IT is with the greateſt Satisfaction I have the Honour of announcing to your Lordſhip, that official Reports were this Day received by the Archduke from Generals Alvinzy and Davidovitch; wherein it appears that the offenſive Operations in Italy have been moſt ſucceſſfully commenced.

I ſhould not preſume to addreſs your Lordſhip upon this Subject, were it not that if Colonel Graham is, as I ſuppoſe he muſt be, with Marſhal Wurmſer in Mantua, he cannot as yet have had it in his Power to correſpond with your Lordſhip.

General Alvinzy's Report is dated at Caldè Ferro, November 7. General Davidovitch's at Trente, the 8th Inſtant.

After the Second Operation, undertaken for the Relief of Mantua, thoſe Corps of Marſhal Wurmſer's Army, which could not penetrate, retired; the One, under General Quodanowich to the Venetian Frioul; the other, under General Davidovitch, up the Valley of the Adige, towards Neumarkt.

Theſe Corps were ſucceſſfully reinforced by conſiderable Numbers of freſh Troops; and General Alvinzy was appointed to command the whole of the Army, until it ſhould effect it's Reunion with Marſhal Wurmſer.

After the Arrival of the Reinforcements at the Places of their Deſtination, General Alvinzy, who in Perſon had undertaken the Conduct of the Corps Corps in the Frioul, arranged a Plan of Operations, of which the following is a Sketch.

His own Corps was to advance through the Trevisane towards Bassano, and, after forcing the Passages of the Brenta, to proceed towards the Adige, whilst General Davidovitch should descend the Valley by which that River runs down from the Mountains of the Tyrol, forcing the Positions of Trente, Roveredo, &c.

On the 3d of this Month, upon the Approach of Part of General Alvinzy's Advanced Guard, the Enemy abandoned Castel Franco; and on the 4th the Austrian Corps advanced in Two Columns to the Brenta; the one to Bassano (of which they took Possession) and the other of nearly equal Force (under Lieutenant-General Provera) to Fonteniva.

General Alvinzy halted on the 5th instant, and spent that Day in reconnoitring the Position of the Enemy. He found the French Army encamped in three Lines in Front of Vicenza.

On the 6th, as General Alvinzy was on the Point of pushing forward his Advanced Guard, Buonaparte, who had marched in the Night, commenced a most severe Attack upon his whole Line. The Action began with General Provera's Corps about Seven in the Morning, and very shortly afterwards the Enemy also advanced against Bassano.

General Alvinzy reports, that the Enemy's Attacks, though made with the greatest Impetuosity, were constantly and completely repelled; and that Night put an End to the Affair, without either Party having gained or lost any Ground: But an indisputable Proof of the Austrians having had the Advantage in this Action is, that when General Alvinzy next Morning was preparing to renew it, he found that the Enemy had completely retreated. He reports, that they directed their March towards Lufiera.

General Provera's Bridge over the Brenta having been destroyed in the Course of the Morning of the 6th, his Column could not cross the River till towards Noon on the 7th, and General Alvinzy's whole Corps arrived late in the Evening of that Day at the Camp of Caldo Ferro.

General Davidovitch had in the mean Time driven back the Corps opposed to him, had made a Thousand Prisoners, and taken Possession of Trente, as was mentioned in his former Report.

On the same Day that the above mentioned severe Action was fought on the Brenta, General Davidovitch attacked the Enemy in the strong Pass of Calliano, a little to the Northward of Roveredo. The French had entrenched their Position, and occupied, in considerable Force, the Castles of Belfiore and La Pietra, which, as I understand, command the Pass. The Strength of the Position was such, that, notwithstanding his repeated Efforts, General Davidovitch could not force it on the 6th; but on the following Day he renewed his Attack.

The Corps on the Right of the Adige established Batteries on the Heights of Nomi, which fired with considerable Effect: the Troops on the Left of the River attacked the Castles and Intrenchments with persevering Bravery, and the Enemy was at length completely defeated, with the Loss of Five Cannon, Eight Ammunition Waggon, and a Thousand Prisoners. General Davidovitch supposes the Enemy's Loss, in Killed and Wounded, to have been very considerable, and states his own to have amounted to Four Hundred Men, killed, wounded and missing.

I have the Honor to be, &c.
