Whitehall, December 31.

THE following Address having been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Tain's Volunteers.

May it please your Majesty,

THE Two Companies of Volunteers embodied in the Town of Tain, impressed with the same Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty's Person, and of Attachment to the Constitution of our Country, which have hitherto influenced our Conduct, cannot view with Indifference the critical Situation of Britain at the present Moment.

By no Means intimidated by the Threats of our external Enemies, but aware of the Benefit that must result from Unanimity and Exertion in the present Situation of Public Affairs, we have requested our Commanding Officer, Major Baillie, to embrace the earliest Opportunity of representing, through the Medium of the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Ross, to the Secretary of State, that we are ready, on the shortest Notice, to march to any Part of Britain, where your Majesty may think our Services can contribute to the Safety or Tranquillity of the Kingdom.

By Authority of the Corps,

Alex. Baillie,
Major Commandant of Ro
Tain Volunteers.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majesty's Ships La Pomone, Galatea, Artois and Anson, who were actually on Board on the 20th of March, 1796, at the Capture of the L'Etoile French Corvette, and on the 26th of April following at the Capture of the French Ship Le Robuste, that they will be paid their respective Proportions of Part of the Proceeds of said Prizes and their Head-Money, on Board, immediately on their Arrival in Port, after the 31st of December instant; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled at the Fountain Tavern, Plymouth Dock, every Saturday for Three Years.

Sam. Hemmans, of Plymouth-Dock, Agent.

London, December 30, 1796.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of His Majesty's Ship Melpomene, who were actually on Board on the 11th of July last, at the Capture of the French Privateer, and destroying the Revanche French Privateer, that they will be paid their respective Proportions of the Prize and Head-Money on Board the said Ship, on Wednesday the 4th of January next; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled by Mr. James Brooking, Portsmouth, for Three Years to come.

James Brooking, of Portsmouth, Webster and Wedderburns, of London, Agents.

The nearest Relations of Catherine Colville (Mother of Thomas Colville) of the Names of Stot, Wills, Richardson and Smith, are desired to take Notice, that,

THE Administration of the Estate of Cole Thomas Colville, late of Fairfax County, in Virginia, being now closed, it appears by the Settlement that there is a Balance in my Hands of Nine Hundred and Thirty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Seven Pence Three Farthings Current Money of Virginia, (Dollars at Six Shillings) which by the Will of Cole Colville is to be divided among the nearest Relations of his Mother, Catherine Colville, of the Name of Stot, Wills, Richards and Smith. Not chusing to take upon myself a Decision of the various Claims to this Legacy, I have filed a Bill in the High Court of Chancery, to bring the several Claimants into that Court for a Discussion of their Claims. In this Suit the customary Order has been made, where the Parties or any of them reside out of the State, which by the Laws of the State is equivalent to the Service of a Subpœna. Those who are interested will pay Attention to this Order, as a Neglect may bar their Claims. The Money is deposited in the Bank of Alexandria, and the Order of Court hereto subjoined.

Virginia, 25th July, 1796.

GEO. WASHINGTON.

VIRGINIA.
