AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th of December, 1796,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act to authorize His Majesty, for a limited Time, to make Regulations respecting the Trade and Commerce to and from the Cape of Good Hope," it is enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, by any Order or Orders, to be issued from Time to Time, to give such Directions, and make such Regulations, touching the Trade and Commerce to and from the Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary, any of the Acts of Parliament therein referred to, or any Usage, Law or Custom, to the contrary notwithstanding.

And whereas during the Time the said Settlement, with the Territories and Dependencies thereof, were in the Possession and under the Government of the States General of the United Provinces, or of the Honorable the General East India Company in the Netherlands, it was usual to admit the Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of Countries in Amity with the said United Provinces into the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, for Repair and Refreshment, and, with that View, to permit the said Ships and Vessels to carry on Trade with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof. — His Majesty is hereby pleased to order, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, in pursuance of the Powers vested in His Majesty by the above recited Act, and it is hereby ordered, that it shall be lawful, until further Order, for all Ships and Vessels belonging to His Majesty's Subjects, as well as for all Ships and Vessels belonging to the Subjects of any Country or State in Amity with His Majesty, to enter into the Ports of the said Settlement of the Cape of Good Hope, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to carry on Trade and Traffick with the Inhabitants of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, and to import and export to and from the Ports of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, any Goods, Wares or Merchandize whatsoever, subject to the following Exceptions, and subject also to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as shall be established by His Majesty, or by the Governor of the said Settlement, and of the Territories and Dependencies thereof, by virtue of Authority derived from His Majesty; and in the mean Time subject to such Duties, Rules, Regulations and Restrictions as subsisted and were in Force before and at the Time of the Conquest of the said Settlement by the Arms of His Majesty, with such Alterations as have been since made under the Authority of the Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Forces at the said Settlement: But it is His Majesty's Pleasure that no Goods Wares or Merchandize, which shall be imported into the said Settlement, Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, from any Part of His Majesty's Dominions, shall be subject to any Duty.

And it is His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Goods, Wares or Merchandize, the Growth, Produce or Manufacture of the Countries to the Eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the United Company of Merchants trading to the East Indies; and that no such Goods, Wares or Merchandize, be permitted to be exported from thence, except for Sea Stores only, or by the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by their Licence.

But it is His Majesty's Pleasure that nothing in this Order contained shall extend to prevent Ships or Vessels employed in the Southern Whale Fishery from carrying on the same in such and the same Manner as might have been done if this Order had not been made.

And it is also His Majesty's Pleasure, that no Arms or Artillery, Gunpowder or Ammunition, of any Sort, be allowed to be imported into the said Settlement, or the Territories or Dependencies thereof, except by the said United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, or by Licence from His Majesty.

And it is His Majesty's further Pleasure, that the Trade and Commerce to and from the said Settlement, and the Territories and Dependencies thereof, shall be subject to such of the Laws of Trade and Navigation as would have affected the same if this Order had not been made, except so far as such Laws are contrary to this present Order.

And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Parliament-Street, January 16, 1797.

DISPATCHES, of which the following are an Extract and Copy, have been this Day received by the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Major-General Charles Graham, commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Leeward Islands in the Absence of Lieutenant-General Sir Ralph Abercromby, K. B.

Extract of a Letter from Major-General Charles Graham to the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, dated Head Quarters, Martinico, October 16, 1796.

OUR Affairs in Grenada wear the most favourable Aspect, I may say, indeed, Tranquillity is completely restored, as they enjoy it in the most comprehensive Sense: The Communication throughout the Island is perfectly open; there are some few Stragglers, no Doubt, in the Woods, but they never molest even single Passengers, and their Number is so inconsiderable, and their State so wretched, that they rather deserve our Contempt than merit our Resentment. Fédon has not yet been taken, and Opinions are various with respect to his Death or Escape, the former, however, I think most probable, as it is reported a Canoe, that had been overfet, was found by a Vessel some Distance from the Coast, with a Compass nailed to the Bottom, which was known to be one that he had had in his Possession; it is therefore likely he may have been lost, in endeavouring to make his Escape.

I embrace with Satisfaction the Opportunity this affords me of having the Honour to inform you, that a Negotiation has been opened, for a general Exchange of Prisoners, with the Commissioners of the French Republic at Guadaloupe; the Commissary sent here to treat on that Business has in consequence returned with Two Hundred, an equal Number of our's are to be sent by the Cartel; when the Business is finally settled, I shall have the Pleasure of acquainting you with the Particulars.

Head Quarters, Martinico, November 13, 1796.

S I R,

IT affords me great Satisfaction to have an Opportunity of informing you of the entire Reduction of the Brigands and Charibs in St. Vincent's, which was communicated to me by Major-General Hunter shortly after I had the Honor of addressing you on the 16th Ultimo; a Copy of whose Letter I herewith transmit, together with the Return of Killed and Wounded.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CHARLES GRAHAM, Major-General.

St. Vincent's, October 18, 1796.

S I R,

WHEN I had the Honor of writing to your Excellency on the 22d of August, I inclosed a Copy of the Terms offered to the Charibs by Governor Seton and myself, in consequence of Sir Ralph Abercromby's Orders and Instructions to me upon that Subject. At the same Time I acquainted you with the Plan I had adopted in order to reduce the remaining Brigands, and to compel the Charibs to surrender.

I have now the Satisfaction to inform you of the total Reduction of the Brigands and Charibs on this Island.

Marin Padre, (a Negroe of St. Lucia) who has commanded the Brigands and Charibs since the Capture of the Vigie, and who had great Influence and Authority over both, surrendered on the 2d Instant.

The Number of Brigands who have surrendered or been taken since the 4th of July amounts to 725, the Number of Charibs to 4633, including Women and Children.

I have much Pleasure in making known to you, for His Majesty's Information, the Zeal, Activity and Humanity which have actuated every Description of Officers and Soldiers employed under my Command during the Whole of the Charib War; and I am happy to say, that, notwithstanding the Season of the Year and the Fatigue the Troops have undergone, they are in general very healthy.

Inclosed you will receive a Return of the Killed and Wounded of His Majesty's Troops since the Commencement of the Charib War.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

P. HUNTER, Maj. Gen.

To his Excellency
Major-General Graham.

Whitehall, January 16, 1797.

A Letter, of which the following is an Extract, has been received from Governor Seton by his Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, dated St. Vincent's, October 12, 1796.

I Have the Satisfaction to inform your Grace, that Tranquillity is on the Eve of being restored to this Colony, owing in a very great Measure to the unremitting Exertions of Major-General Hunter, and to his humane Conduct towards the Enemy of every Description. All the Charib Chiefs have surrendered, their People are coming in daily, and we have at this Moment about Three Thousand Five Hundred in our Possession. Nearly all the Brigands, with their Leader, have also surrendered.

BY a subsequent Letter, from the Governor to his Grace, dated St. Vincent's, the 16th of November last, it appears, that the Remainder of the Charibs and Brigands had surrendered themselves, and that the Island was in a State of perfect Tranquillity.

Whitehall, January 17.

Extract of a Letter from His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland to His Grace the Duke of Portland, dated Dublin Castle, January 10, 1797.

I Have the Satisfaction to acquaint your Grace, that since the Information transmitted to Mr. Greville that the French had entirely left Bantuy Bay, there has been no Re-appearance of them upon the Coasts; so that I trust, from the Violence of the Tempest, and from their Ships being ill found and ill victualled, their Expedition is for the present frustrated.

Upon reviewing what has passed during this Expedition of the Enemy, I have the Satisfaction to reflect, that the best Spirit was manifested by His Majesty's Regular and Militia Forces; and I have every Reason to believe, that if a Landing had taken Place, they would have displayed the utmost Fidelity. When the Flank Companies of the Antrim Regiment were formed, the whole Regiment turned out, to a Man, with Expressions of the greatest Eagerness to march; and the Downshire Regiment, to a Man, declared they would stand and fall by their Officers.

At the Time the Army was ordered to march the Weather was extremely severe: I therefore ordered them a Proportion of Spirits upon their Route, and directed an Allowance of Four-pence a Day to their Wives until their Return. During their March the utmost Attention was paid them by the Inhabitants of the Towns and Villages through which they passed; so that in many Places the Meat provided by the Commissariat was not consumed. The Roads, which in Parts had been rendered impassable by the Snow, were cleared by the Peasantry. The poor People often shared their Potatoes with them, and dressed their Meat without demanding Payment; of which there was a very particular Instance in the Town of Banagher, where no Gentleman or principal Farmer resides to set them the Example. At Carlow a considerable Subscription was made for the Troops as they passed; and at Limerick and Cork every Exertion was used to facilitate the Carriage of Artillery and Baggage, by Premiums to the Carmen; and in the Town of Galway, which for a short Time was left with a very inadequate Garrison, the Zeal and Ardor of the Inhabitants and Yeomanry was peculiarly manifested, and in a Manner to give me the utmost Satisfaction. In short, the general good Disposition of the People through the South and West was so prevalent, that had the Enemy landed, their Hope of Assistance from the Inhabitants would have been totally disappointed.

From the armed Yeomanry Government derived the most honourable Assistance. Noblemen and Gentlemen of the first Property vied in exerting themselves at the Head of their Corps. Much of the Express and Escort Duty was performed by them. In Cork, Limerick and Galway they took the Duty of the Garrison. Lord Shannon informs me, that Men of Three and Four Thousand Pounds a Year were employed in escorting Baggage and carrying Expresses.

Exprefes. Mr. John Latouche, who was a Private in his Son's Corps, rode Twenty-five Miles in one of the fevereft Nights, with an Expref, it being his Turn for Duty. The Merchants of Dublin, many of them of the firft Eminence, marched Sixteen Irish Miles with a Convoy of Arms to the North, whither it was conducted by Reliefs of Yeomanry. The Appearance in this Metropolis has been highly meritorious. The Corps have been formed of the moft respectable Barrifters, Attornies, Merchants, Gentlemen and Citizens, and their Number is fo confiderable, and their Zeal in mounting Guards fo ufe-ful, that I was enabled greatly to reduce the Garrifon with perfect Safety to the Town. The Numbers of Yeomanry fully appointed and difciplined in Dublin exceed Two Thoufand. Above Four Hundred of whom are Horfe. The whole Number of Corps approved by Government amount to Four Hundred and Forty, excluſive of the Dublin Corps. The grofs Number is nearly Twenty-five Thoufand. There are alfo Ninety-one Offers of Service under Conſideration, and One Hundred and Twenty-five Propoſals have been declined; and, in Reply to a circular Letter written to the Commandants of the reſpective Corps, their Answers almoſt univerſally contained a general Offer of Service in any Part of the Kingdom.

Many prominent Examples of individual Loyalty and Spirit have appeared. An uſeful Impreſſion was made upon the Minds of the lower Catholics by a judicious Addreſs from Dr. Moylan, the titular Biſhop of Cork. I cannot but take Notice of the Exertions of Lord Kenmare, who ſpared no Expence in giving Aſſiſtance to the commanding Officer in his Neighbourhood, and who took into his own Demefne, a great Quantity of Cattle which had been driven from the Coaſt. Nor could any Thing exceed the Ardor of the Earl of Ormonde, who, when his Regiment of Militia was retained as Part of the Garrifon of Dublin, foli-cited with fo much Zeal a Command in the Flank Companies, that I thought it a Meaſure due to His Majeſty's Service to encourage his Lordſhip's Requeſt.

Admiralty-Office, January 17, 1797.

Copy of a Letter from Rear-Admiral Harvey, Commander in Chief of His Majeſty's Ships and Veſſels in the Leeward Iſlands, to Evan Nepean, Eſq; dated on Board the Prince of Wales, Port Royal Bay, Martinique, November 10, 1796.

S I R,

I Am to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordſhips, that His Majeſty's Sloop Fury, on the 18th Ultimo, captured, between the Iſlands of St. Thomas and St. Croix, a French National Schooner, called L'Eliza, carrying Ten Guns and Fifty-fix Men, from Cape François going to St. Thomas, which Captain Evans ſent into Tortola.

I am, Sir, &c. &c. &c.

HENRY HARVEY.

Whitehall, January 17.

The King has been pleaſed to grant to James, Henry, John, Elizabeth Dowſe, Charles Dowſe, Anne Dowſe and William Kelfey, the Children of Elizabeth (now Wife of John Atkins, of Kin-bridge, in the County of Southampton, Gent.) by her firſt Huſband Francis Kelfey, of the ſame Place, deceaſed, his Royal Licence and Authority that they may aſſume and take the Surname of Atkins only; and alſo to order that this His Majeſty's Conceſſion and Declaration be regiſtered in his College of Arms.

Whitehall, January 10, 1797.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, that about Two o'Clock on the Morning of Monday the 2d Inſtant, ſome evil-minded Perſon or Perſons knocked at the Door of Thomas Barker, Eſq; the Junior Bailiff of the Borough of Eaſt Retford, and on his opening a Chamber Window, fired a Gun at him, loaded with Bullets, which fortunately miſſed him: And that about the ſame Time ſome Perſon or Perſons maliciously fired a Gun, loaded with Bullets, at the Lodging-Room Window of Richard Hutchinſon, Eſq; one of the Senior Aldermen of the ſaid Borough.

His Majeſty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Juſtice the Perſons concerned in the daring Outrages above mentioned, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon or Perſons who actually fired the Guns) who ſhall diſcover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Corporation of Eaſt Retford to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offender's, by

Nath. Maſon,

Clerk of the Peace for the Borough of Eaſt Retford.
