By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For granting the Distribution of Prizes taken from the King of Spain, or His Subjects, subsequent to the Ninth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, the Date of His Majesty's Order in Council for granting General Reprizals against the Ships and Goods of the King of Spain and His Subjects.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, by Our Order in Council, dated the Ninth Day of November last, We have ordered, that General Reprizals be granted against the Ships, Goods, and Subjects of the King of Spain, so that as well Our Fleet and Ships, as also all other Ships and Vessels that be commissioned by Letters of Marque, or General Reprizals, or otherwise, by Our Commissioners for executing Our Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, shall and may lawfully seize all Ships, Vessels, and Goods belonging to the King of Spain or His Subjects, or others inhabiting within any of the Territories of the King of Spain, and bring the same to Judgment in any of Our Courts of Admiralty within Our Dominions: We, being desirous to give due Encouragement to all our faithful Subjects who may have lawfully seized any such Ships, Vessels, or Goods, subsequent to the said Ninth Day of November last, or who shall hereafter seize such Ships, Vessels, or Goods;

and having declared in Council Our Intentions concerning the Distribution of all Manner of Captures, Seizures, Prizes, and Reprizals, of all such Ships and Goods as aforesaid, which, subsequent to the said Ninth Day of November, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, have been, or hereafter, during the present Hostilities, shall be seized as aforesaid, do now make known to all Our loving Subjects, and all others whom it may concern, by this Our Proclamation, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, that Our Will and Pleasure is, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes taken as aforesaid, subsequent to the said Ninth Day of November last, or which shall hereafter be taken as aforesaid, the Right whereof is inherent in Us, and Our Crown, be given to the Takers, (save and except the Produce of such Prizes as are or shall be taken by Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners of Customs or Excise, the Disposition of which We reserve to our further Pleasure) but subject to the Payment of all such or the like Customs and Duties as the same are now, or would have been liable to, if the same were or might have been imported as Merchandize; and that the same may be so given in the Proportion and Manner herein-after set forth; that is to say, that all Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels having Commissions of Letters of Marque and Reprizals, (save and except such Prizes as are or shall be taken by the Ships or Vessels belonging to Our Commissioners aforesaid) may be sold and disposed, posed of by the Merchants, Owners, Fitters, and others, to whom such Letters of Marque and Reprizals are granted, for their own Use and Benefit, after final Adjudication, and not before: And We do hereby further order and direct, that the Neat Produce of all Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, shall be for the entire Benefit and Encouragement of Our Flag Officers, Captains, Commanders, and other Commissioned Officers in Our Pay, and of the Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers, on Board Our said Ships and Vessels, at the Time of the Capture; and that such Prizes may be lawfully sold and disposed of by them and their Agents, after the same shall have been to Us finally adjudged lawful Prize, and not otherwise. The Distribution shall be made as follows; the Whole of the Neat Produce being first divided into Eight equal Parts.

The Captain or Captains of any of Our said Ships or Vessels of War, who shall be actually on Board at the taking of any Prize, shall have Three Eighth Parts; but in case any such Prize shall be taken by any of Our Ships or Vessels of War, under the Command of a Flag or Flags, the Flag Officer or Officers, being actually on Board, or directing and assisting in the Capture, shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts; the said One Eighth Part to be paid to such Flag or Flag Officers in such Proportions, and subject to such Regulations, as are herein-after mentioned:

The Captains of Marines and Land Forces, Sea Lieutenants, and Master on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them: but that every Physician appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to a Fleet or Squadron of Our Ships of War, shall, in the Distribution of Prizes which are or shall be taken as aforesaid, by the Ships in which he shall serve, or in which such Ship's Company shall be entitled to share, be classed with the Sea Lieutenants, with respect to the said One Eighth Part, and be allowed to share equally with them, provided such Physician be actually on Board at the Time of taking such Prizes.

The Lieutenants and Quarter Masters of Marines, and Lieutenants, Ensigns, and Quarter Masters of Land Forces, Secretaries of Admirals or of Commodores, with Captains under them, Boatswains, Gunners, Purser, Carpenter, Master's Mates, Chirurgion, Pilot, and Chaplain on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Midshipmen, Captain's Clerk, Master Sailmaker, Carpenter's Mates, Boatswain's Mates, Gunner's Mates, Master at Arms, Corporals, Yeomen of the Sheets, Cockswain, Quarter Masters, Quarter Masters Mates, Chirurgion's Mates, Yeomen of the Powder Room, Serjeants of Marines, and Land Forces on Board, shall have One Eighth Part, to be equally divided amongst them:

The Trumpeters, Quarter Gunners, Carpenter's Crew, Stewards, Cook, Armourer, Steward's Mate, Cook's Mate, Gunsmith, Cooper, Swabber, Ordinary Trumpeter, Barber, Able Seamen, Ordinary Seamen, and Marines and other Soldiers, and all other Persons doing Duty and assisting on Board, shall have Two Eighth Parts, to be equally divided amongst them:

Provided, That if any Officer being on Board any of Our Ships of War, at the Time of taking any Prize, shall have more Commissions or Offices than One, such Officer shall be intitled only to the Share or Shares of the Prizes which, according to the above-mentioned Distribution, shall belong to his Superior Commission or Office. And We do hereby strictly enjoin all Commanders of Our Ships and Vessels of War taking any Prize, as soon as may be, to transmit, or cause to be transmitted, to the Commissioners of Our Navy, a true List of the Names of all the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others, who were actually on Board Our Ships and Vessels of War under their Command at the Time of the Capture; which List shall contain the Quality of the Service of each Person on Board, and be subscribed by the Captain or Commanding Officer, and Three or more of the Chief Officers on Board. And We do hereby require and direct the Commissioners of Our Navy, or any Three or more of them, to examine or cause to be examined, such Lists by the Muster Books of such Ships and Vessels of War, and Lists annexed thereto, to see that such Lists do agree with the said Muster Books and annexed Lists, as to the Names, Qualities, or Ratings, of the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, and others belonging to such Ships and Vessels of War, and upon Request forthwith to grant a Certificate of the Truth of any List transmitted to them, to the Agents nominated and appointed by the Captors to take care and dispose of such Prize; and also upon Application to them (the said Commissioners) they shall give, or cause to be given, to the said Agents, all such Lists from the Muster Books of any such Ships of War, and annexed Lists, as the said Agents shall find requisite for their Direction in paying the Produce of such such Prizes, and otherwise shall be aiding and assisting to the said Agents in all such Matters as shall be necessary. We do hereby further will and direct, that the following Regulations shall be observed concerning the One Eighth Part herein-before mentioned to be granted to the Flag or Flag Officers, who shall actually be on Board at the taking of any Prize, or shall be directing or assisting therein: First, That a Flag Officer, Commander in Chief, when there is but One Flag Officer upon Service, shall have to his own Use the said One Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by Ships and Vessels under his Command: Secondly, That a Flag Officer, sent to command at Jamaica, or elsewhere, shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels employed there, before he arrives at the Place to which he is sent, and actually takes upon him the Command: Thirdly, That when an inferior Flag Officer is sent out to reinforce a superior Flag Officer at Jamaica, or elsewhere, the superior Flag Officer shall have no Right to any Share of Prizes taken by the inferior Flag Officer before the inferior Flag Officer shall arrive within the Limits of the Command of the superior Flag Officer, and actually receive some Order from him: Fourthly, That a Chief Flag Officer returning Home from Jamaica, or elsewhere, shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by the Ships or Vessels left behind to act under another Command: Fifthly, That if a Flag Officer is sent to command in the Out-Ports of this Kingdom, he shall have no Share of the Prizes taken by Ships or Vessels which have sailed from that Port by Order from the Admiralty: Sixthly, That when more Flag Officers than One serve together, the Eighth Part of the Prizes taken by any Ships or Vessels of the Fleet or Squadron, shall be divided in the following Proportions, viz. If there be but Two Flag Officers, the Chief shall have Two Third Parts of the said One Eighth Part, and the other shall have the remaining Third Part; but if the Number of Flag Officers be more than Two, the Chief shall have only One Half, and the other Half shall be equally divided amongst the other Flag Officers: Seventhly, That Commodores, with Captains under them, shall be esteemed as Flag Officers with respect to the Eighth Part of Prizes taken, whether commanding in Chief, or serving under Command: Eighthly, That the First Captain to the Admiral and Commander in Chief of Our Fleet, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Twenty Ships of the Line of Battle, and also the First Captain to Our Flag Officer appointed, or hereafter to be appointed, to command a Fleet or Squadron of Fifteen Ships of the Line of Battle (provided such last mentioned Fleet or Squadron shall be composed of His Majesty's own Ships,) shall be deemed and taken to be a Flag Officer, and shall be entitled to a Part or Share of Prizes as the junior Flag Officer of such Fleet or Squadron. And We do hereby further Order, That in case of Cutters, Schooners, and other armed Vessels commanded by Lieutenants, the Share of such Lieutenants shall be Three Eighth Parts of the Prize, unless such Lieutenants shall be under the Command of a Flag Officer or Officers; in which Case the Flag Officer or Officers shall have One of the said Three Eighth Parts, to be divided among such Flag Officer or Officers in the Manner herein before directed in the Case of Captains serving under Flag Officers: Secondly, We direct that the Share of the Master, or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the Pilot (if there happens to be One on Board) shall be One Eighth Part, to be divided into Three equal Parts, of which Two Thirds shall go to the Master or other Person acting as Second in Command, and the remaining One Third to the Pilot; but if there is no Pilot, then such Eighth Part to go wholly to the Master or Person acting as Second in Command: That the Share of the Chirurgeon or Chirurgeon's Mate (where there is no Chirurgeon) Midshipmen, and Clerk and Steward, shall be One Eighth; that the Share of the Boatswain's, Gunner's and Carpenter's Mates, Yeoman of the Sheets, Sailmaker, Quarter Master and Quarter Master's Mate, shall be One Eighth; and the Share of the Seamen, Marines, and other Persons on Board, assisting in the Capture, shall be Two Eighth Parts. But it is Our Intention, nevertheless, that the above Distribution shall only extend to such Captures as shall be made by any Cutter, Schooner or armed Vessel, without any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War being present or within Sight of, and adding to the Encouragement of the Captors, and Terror of the Enemy: But in case any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels of War shall be present or in Sight, that then the Officers, Pilots, Petty Officers and Men on Board such Cutters and Schooners, or armed Vessels, shall share in the same Proportion as is allowed to Persons of the like Rank and Denomination on Board His Majesty's Ships and Vessels of War.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-fifth Day of January, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Two Acts, One passed in the Thirty-sixth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to prohibit, for a limited Time, the making of Starch, Hair-Powder, and Blue, from Wheat and other Articles of Food, and for lowering the Duties on the Importation of Starch, and of other Articles made thereof;" the other passed in this present Session of Parliament for continuing the said Act until the 1st Day of February, 1798, it is enacted, that in case His Majesty, at any Time or Times after the passing of the said first mentioned Act, should in his Royal Discretion, judge it most for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom to permit the making of Starch from Wheat, Barley, Rice, Grain, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man, that then it shall be lawful to and for His Majesty, by His Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, or by Majesty's Order in Council to be published in the London Gazette, from Time to Time, to permit and suffer all and every Person and Persons, Natives and Foreigners (but not any particular Persons) at any Time or Times after the passing of the said Act, to make Starch from Wheat, Barley, Rice, Potatoes, Flour, Meal, or any other Article or Thing used for the Food of Man: And whereas it has appeared to His Majesty that it would be for the Benefit and Advantage of this Kingdom to permit the making of Starch from any of the Articles before mentioned; His Majesty is thereupon pleased, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, according to the said Acts, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that, from and after the Date hereof it shall be lawful for any Person or Persons as aforesaid to make Starch from any of the Articles before mentioned, any Thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding: And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

W. Fawkner.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 25th of January, 1797.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twentieth of July last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon this Day: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the Date hereof, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, land, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards; before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Dublin-Castle, January 19, 1797.

The Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same were this Day presented to the Lord Lieutenant for Transmission; and also Addresses from both Houses to his Excellency, which, with his Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To his Excellency John Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Excellency with our sincere Thanks for your Message to this House.

The Vigilance, Activity and Firmness of your Excellency's Conduct, during the recent Attempt to invade this Kingdom, command our warmest Acknowledgments and Applause. The general Confidence which appeared among all Ranks and Descriptions of People, and the conspicuous Zeal and Loyalty which were displayed, afford an unequivocal Testimony, that your Excellency's private Character is as truly esteemed as your public Administration is respected. From this affecting Display of animated and gallant Loyalty our Enemies will be sensible that their delusive Hopes of exciting a general Insurrection in this Kingdom will be ever disappointed: Had their Attempt to land on our Coasts succeeded, they would soon have experienced the effectual and decisive Resistance of a united Nation, determined, at the Hazard of their Fortunes and their Lives, to prove their Loyalty to the best of Sovereigns, and their invincible Attachment to their happy Constitution.

Whilst we reneet with Pleasure on the Alacrity and Ardour manifested by His Majesty's Regular and Militia Forces we cannot but advert to the signal Services of the Yeomanry Corps, which have been so successfully established under your Excellency's Auspices; we feel the Tranquillity of the Kingdom secured, and it's Strength increased by this useful Institution; it has also given additional Security and Value to Property, as well as Stability to the Constitution.

It will be our Endeavour to apply the Resources of the Kingdom so as to meet the present Exigency; and we can safely rely upon your Excellency's Attention and Prudence, for concerting the wisest Measures to secure the Kingdom from any future Attempts of the Enemy.

It is our sincere Wish that your Excellency may long continue in the Government: We have every private and public Motive for entertaining such a Hope, which can result from a Knowledge of your personal Virtues, so conciliating, so exemplary; and from an Experience of your public Conduct, nos less honourable to his Majesty than advantageous to the Kingdom.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

His Excellency's Answer.

My Lords,

THE Terms in which your Lordships have been so good as to convey to me your Approbation of my Conduct are so flattering, that no Expressions of mine can convey to you the Impression they have made upon my Mind.

I wish I could be conscious I deserved that Credit you are pleased to give me for having any Share in calling forth the Loyalty and Zeal of this Kingdom during the late Attempt of the French to invade it. However flattering it might be to me to reflect that I had any personal Share in the general Spirit which appeared upon that Occasion, it is much more satisfactory to your Lordships to observe with how universal an Alacrity the genuine Spirit of the Country was roused, with the truest and most patriotic Sentiments, to maintain our happy Constitution against the Attempts of an Enemy, who, not content with an Endeavour to destroy this Kingdom by the usual Instruments of Destruction, have vainly attempted to establish Discontent, and to insuse Rebellion amongst its Inhabitants.

The Spirit, Zeal and Alacrity of the Forces which marched to meet the Enemy, assisted by the Loyalty, Activity and good Sense of the Country, would, I firmly trust, have rendered their Attempt ineffectual. Those Qualities, encouraged by your Lordships Protection, and promoted by your Influence, will, I hope, prevent the Repetition of this Enterprize; but if it is attempted, I feel a Confidence it will be met with renewed Spirit, and end in the total Discomfure of the Enemy.

It affords me peculiar Satisfaction to have been in any Degree instrumental in the Establishment of the Yeomanry Corps. Their Extent has exceeded my Expectations; and whatever I might have hoped from the Utility of the Establishment, it would have been presumptuous indeed to have expected all these Advantages which have been produced by the most zealous, praiseworthy and the best directed Exertions of that Body of Men.

Yeomanry

It will be my highest Ambition to endeavour to deserve that good Opinion your Lordships are disposed to entertain of me, by a faithful Discharge of my Duty, and a constant Attention to the Interests of this Kingdom.

To his Excellency John Jeffries, Earl Camden, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses, in Parliament assembled.

May it please your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our sincere Thanks for your Excellency's Message to this House.

We feel a Pride and Satisfaction in your Excellency's Declaration that the general Spirit of animated and gallant Loyalty, which shone forth so conspicuous during the late Alarm from a formidable Enemy's Appearance upon our Coasts, inspired you with a just Hope, that had they succeeded in an Attempt to land, their Career would have been terminated in total Discomfiture. We do most sincerely entertain the same Hope; and when we add to that Loyalty the Strength and Energy which it received from the Firmness and Wisdom of your Excellency's Measures, our Hope and that of the Nation is justly increased into a well-founded and secure Confidence.

In particular we applaud your Excellency's Wisdom and Reliance on the true Patriotism of the Country in the Establishment of the Yeomanry Corps. Their Services have been eminent and extensive, performed with an Alacrity, such as a true Love for their King and Country only could have inspired; and they have given a useful Lesson to the Enemy, in shewing how delusive all their Hopes were of exciting a general Insurrection in this Kingdom; and we doubt not your Excellency will persevere in perfecting an Institution, which, by maintaining the internal Tranquillity and augmenting the real Strength of the Kingdom, will continue to afford at once Security to Property and Stability to the Constitution.

We shall make adequate Provision for the present Emergency; and we rely upon your Excellency's proved Integrity and Wisdom for continuing to consult the true Interest of the Kingdom, and to concert the best Means for its Defence.

It is our ardent Prayer that His Majesty may long continue to us a Chief Governor, whose public and private Virtues have justly endeared him to the Nation, in whose Sincerity we can securely rely for a favourable Representation of our Interests and Services, and in whom the whole Nation entertain a just and well-founded Confidence.

Rob. Thornton, Cler. Dom. Com

His Excellency's Answer.

THE Marks of Confidence and good Opinion which have been bestowed on me by the House of Commons are so much more than I deserve, that I feel the Acknowledgements due to them to be infinitely beyond what I can express.

It is a Source of the greatest Satisfaction to observe, that as the Danger has approached, the Spirit and the Loyalty of this Nation have been more conspicuous. This Kingdom has felt, with an honest Indignation, the Conduct of an Enemy, who not only threatened its Coasts with the usual Weapons of War, but endeavoured to produce Dissensions amongst its Inhabitants, and to shake its Confidence in the Sister Kingdom.

To repel such a Foe, whose Power is not yet crushed, but whose Inveteracy is undiminished, will require Exertions which, from the Examples I have lately had the Satisfaction to meditate, would, I firmly trust, have terminated in the Discomfiture of the Enemy, but which continued, as I am confident they will be, by the Spirit of the Nation, and encouraged by the Protection of the House of Commons, will, I doubt not, prevent the Renewal of their Attempt, or render it completely abortive, if it should be repeated.

I receive with infinite Pleasure these Expressions of Approbation you are pleased to bestow upon me for the Encouragement I have given to the Establishment of the Yeomanry Corps: Their Extent and their Utility have even exceeded my Expectations. It has given the most convincing Proof of the Resource and the true Spirit of this Nation, and it has shewn that every Rank in the State will unite in the Preservation of those Blessings they enjoy under our happy Constitution.

My Representations to His Majesty have been made with the Sincerity for which you give me Credit, and with the Sentiments I ought to be impressed with, when I take Notice of the Loyalty, the Liberality and the Zeal of the House of Commons and of the Irish Nation. They are received by His Majesty with the Approbation they merit, and I should ill execute His gracious Commands if I did not express His entire and grateful Satisfaction.

Encouraged by the Confidence you are so good as to express, I shall endeavour to perform that Duty with which His Majesty has entrusted me; and assisted by your Advice, and depending upon your Indulgence, I look forward with a Confidence, which the Reflection upon my own Ability would not allow me to entertain, to the happy Termination of the Difficulties we may have to encounter.

St. James's, January 26.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Grantham Loyal Volunteer Corps of Infantry.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Grantham Volunteer Corps of Infantry, deeply impressed with your Majesty's paternal Regard and Affection, and sensible of the many Blessings we derive under your Majesty's Government, and also fully convinced that as Subjects and Soldiers our Lives should be devoted to the Safety and Protection of our King and Country, and for the Defence fence of those Liberties and Laws under which we live and enjoy innumerable Advantages and Comforts, beg Leave to address your Majesty, and to make this publick Tender of our Services, that we will, one and all, in case of actual Invasion from any external, or of any Riot and Commotion from any internal Enemy, be ready to march within and for the Defence of this Kingdom and your Majesty's Person and Government wherever Necessity may require or your Majesty may be pleased to direct us.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that a threatening Letter, signed A Republican, was received, through the Post Office at Derby, by Mr. Hudson, Overseer of the Poor of the Parish of St. Michael, in the said Town, of which the following is a Copy :

Hudson,

As you were so very officious in enrolling our Names for the Militia and has since denied us the Opportunity to insure against the Ballot, tho' I myself am not possess'd of sufficient either to provide a Substitute or pay the Fine yet if the Ballot falls on me I am possess'd of sufficient Malice to take ample Vengeance on that officious Fool that introduced me on the Tyrannical List I am so much an Enemy to our present Government that I will sacrifice my Life in defence of my own Liberty much sooner than take any Oath to support our Tyrants, as you are the first Minister of their Tyranny to me you shall be the first Object of my Revenge if I am balloted you must not expect to long survive for I will be your executioner if I can't do it privately I will do it if it be at noon day in the public Street so I remain wishing success to the French
Yours, a Republican

Grocers Hall,
January 28, 1797.

The nearest Relations of Catherine Colville (Mother of Thomas Colville) of the Names of Stot, Wills, Richardson and Smith, are desired to take Notice, that,

THE Administration of the Estate of Cole Thomas Colville, late of Fairfax County, in Virginia, being now closed, it appears by the Settlement that there is a Balance in my Hands of Nine Hundred and Thirty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Seven Pence Three Farthings Current Money of Virginia, (Dollars at Six Shillings) which by the Will of Cole Colville is to be divided among the nearest Relations of his Mother, Catherine Colville, of the Name of Stot, Wills, Richards and Smith. Not chusing to take upon myself a Decision of the various Claims to this Legacy, I have filed a Bill in the High Court of Chancery, to bring the several Claimants into that Court for a Discussion of their Claims. In this Suit the customary Order has been made, where the Parties or any of them reside out of the State, which by the Laws of the State is equivalent to the Service of a Subpœna. Those who are interested will pay Attention to this Order, as a Neglect may bar their Claims. The Money is deposited in the Bank of Alexandria, and the Order of Court hereto subjoined.

Virginia, 25th July, 1796.

GEO. WASHINGTON.

VIRGINIA.

In the High Court of Chancery, June 4, 1796.

Between

George Washington, surviving Executor of } Plaintiff.
Thomas Colville,

And

Thomas West, Executor, Devisee and Heir at } Defendants.
Law of John West, junior, deceased, who was } one of the Executors of Thomas Colville, and } the nearest Relations of Catherine Colville, }
Mother of the said Thomas Colville, of the } Names of Stot, Wills, Richardson and Smith, } or their Descendants.

The Defendants Stot, Wills, Richardson and Smith, not having entered their Appearance and given Security, according to the Act of Assembly and the Rules of this Court; and it appearing to the Satisfaction of the Court that they are not Inhabitants of this Country, on the Motion of the Plaintiff by his Council it is ordered, that the said Defendants do appear here on the 1st Day of the next May Term, and answer the Bill of the Plaintiff; and that a Copy of this Order be forthwith inserted in some News Paper of the City of Richmond, and some Public Paper in the Kingdom of Great Britain, for Two Months successively, and posted at the Front of the Door of the Capitol in the said City; and the Court doth further order that the Plaintiff do deposit in the Bank of Alexandria, to remain subject to the future Order of the Court, Nine Hundred and Thirty-two Pounds Seventeen Shillings and Seven-pence Three Farthings, admitted by his Bill to be in his Possession, of the Estate of Thomas Colville.

A Copy. Teste,
