HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Lloyd Lord Kenyon, Lord Chief Justice of His Majesty's Court of King's Bench to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Flint, his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon, instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, February 16.

THE following Address has been presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgesses, Clergy, Merchants, Traders and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, at the Guildhall of the said City assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty in the present important Crisis, and to renew our Professions of unshaken Loyalty to your Royal Person, and steady Attachment to our invaluable Constitution. We entreat your Majesty to accept our grateful Acknowledgments for that paternal Regard for the Interests of your People, so often displayed by your Majesty, and particularly for that Instance of it recently manifested in your Majesty's sincere and earnest Endeavours to restore to your Subjects the Blessings of Peace. Satisfied as we are, and convinced as all Europe must be, that nothing has been wanting on the Part of your Majesty to bring to a happy Conclusion those Overtures for Peace which no mistaken Sense of Dignity, or Apprehension of Danger from the Openness of such Conduct, has prevented your Majesty from submitting to the Consideration of a captious and arrogant Enemy; and lamenting, as we do, that Infatuation of their Rulers, which has led them, in Abandonment of their first and great Duty, the promoting the Happiness and Prosperity of their Country, to reject, under the most unjustifiable Pretensions, the Grounds of Negotiation to which they had themselves acceded, we feel ourselves called upon to stand forth in Defence of every Thing most dear to us, and to declare our Readiness to support your Majesty to the utmost of our Power in prosecuting the War with renewed Vigour, as the only Means now left for securing the Dignity and Independence of Great Britain and the general Tranquillity of Europe. With that Fortitude of Mind and determined Perseverance, which have never formed Part of the national Character, we view with just Indignation the destructive Policy and presumptuous Hope entertained by the Enemy of reducing this Country to the same desperate Situation as themselves, by a Continuation of Expence and progressive Accumulation of the National Debt. We are fully sensible of the peculiar Nature of the Contest which we have to maintain, in which the Efforts of the Enemy are not directed merely against our territorial Possessions, but with more pointed Inveteracy against the Source of all our Prosperity, the Frame and Principles of our free Constitution. We know that this Attack is supported by the Propagation of Opinions as well as by the Force of Arms, and it is against each of these that we profess ourselves determined to oppose a firm and adequate Resistance. Not unapprized of the Sacrifices which may be required of us in the further Prosecution of this awful Struggle, but supported under them by a thorough Conviction of the Importance of the Objects which are at Stake, and of the substantial Resources of the Country when called into Action by a just Sense of our Situation, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty that no Consideration of temporary Inconvenience which we may be called upon to share with the rest of our Fellow Subjects will deter us from offering to your Majesty such Support as may be deemed requisite for carrying on the War with the utmost Energy and Effect until the Enemy shall be disposed to treat with us on Principles of fair Accommodation, confiding with that perfect Assurance which we profess to repose in your Majesty's paternal Goodness that the Blessings of Peace will be restored to your faithful People as soon as it can be obtained upon just and honourable Terms, and established upon a Basis secure and permanent.

Signed by the Mayor and between 8 and 900 of the most respectable Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol.

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Portland, High Steward of Bristol, accompanied by Charles Bragge, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, (Lord Sheffield, the other Representative, was prevented from attending on Account of the recent Death of Lady Sheffield.)]

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Onslow to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated on Board His Majesty's Ship Nassau, in Yarmouth Roads, February 17, 1797.

BE pleased to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Espion is just arrived in these Roads; she separated from the Martin Sloop on the Night of the 14th Instant, in a heavy Gale of Wind; the latter has Charge of the Buonaparté, French Ship Privateer. I inclose, for their Lordships further Information, Captain Dixon's Letter.

Espion at Sea, February 16, 1797.

S I R,

I Have the Honour to inform you, that at Ten A. M. on the 14th Instant, the Texel bearing S. E. distant Eighteen Leagues, Chace was given to a Ship under Danish Colours on the Weather Bow, which, after making every Effort to get away, was overpressed with Sail, and at Six P. M. brought to by the Espion and Martin. She proved to be Le Buonaparte French Privateer, mounting Sixteen Six-Pounders and One long Twelve-Pounder, with a Complement of One Hundred and Ten Men, but had only Eighty-two on Board; she sailed from Cherbourg on the 1st Instant, since which she had cruized on the Coast of Scotland, and had only captured a Sloop in Ballast, which was liberated; Eight Six-Pounders were thrown overboard during the Pursuit; all the Day the Weather was extremely boisterous, and it was with infinite Difficulty and Hazard the Exchange of Prisoners was effected. One Boat belonging to the Espion was lost, but happily no Lives; and it is but Justice to the Officers and Seamen of both Ships to declare they performed the Service with manly Spirit and Determination; as during the Night it blew very hard at N. N. W. the Martin and Prize unavoidably separated from the Espion; Captain Sutton had been previously desired to stay by the Prize, and see her into Yarmouth.

The Privateer is quite new, sails remarkably fast, and is in every Respect well found as a Vessel of War.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.

(Signed) MANLEY DIXON.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Halsted, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Phoenix, to Ewan Nepean, Esq; dated at Sea, February 11, 1797.

S I R,

BE pleased to acquaint their Lordships, that the Jeune Emilie, a French Privateer Brig, of Ten Guns and Sixty-two Men, was captured by His Majesty's Ship Triton this Evening. She has been only Forty Days from St. Maloes, has taken an English Sloop called the Friendship, from Lisbon to Liverpool, with Fruit, and an English Ship Letter of Marque, of Ten Nine-Pounders and Twenty-one Men, called the Battalion, from Liverpool to Jamaica, after an Action of Three Quarters of an Hour.

I have also to acquaint you, for their Lordships further Information, that the Triton captured the French Privateer Cutter Recovery, of Fourteen Guns and Forty-six Men, on the 10th Instant, which had been a few Days from Havre, and had taken an English Smuggler, and an American Ship bound to Bombay; the latter was retaken a few Hours afterwards by the Stag.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c.
