SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 26, 1797.

Whitehall, February 26.

LETTERS, of which the following are Extracts, have been this Day received from the Right Honorable Lord Milford, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Pembroke, by His Grace the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department.

*Haverfordwest, February 24, 1797,
Six o'Clock A. M.*

SINCE I had the Honor of writing last to your Grace by Express, I have received Information of the French Ships having sailed and left Three Hundred Men behind, who have surrendered themselves Prisoners. The great Spirit and Loyalty that the Gentlemen and Peasantry have shewn on this Occasion exceeds Description. Many Thousands of the latter assembled, armed with Pikes and Scythes, and attacked the Enemy, previous to the Arrival of the Troops that were sent against them.

*Haverfordwest, February 24,
Nine o'Clock, P. M.*

IHAVE the Honor and Pleasure to inform your Grace, that the whole of the French Troops, amounting to near Fourteen Hundred Men, have surrendered, and are now on their March to Haverfordwest.

I have taken the first Opportunity of announcing this good News to your Grace, and shall have the Honor of writing again to your Grace, by To-morrow's Post.
