To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commissioners of Supply; Hefetors; Justices of the Peace; and principal Tacksmen of the County of Inverness.

S I R E,

WE feel ourselves called upon, in the present eventful Situation of Public Affairs; to express our unabating Loyalty to your Majesty, and unceasing Love to our Country.

While we resent the recent Attempt of our Enemies on our Sister Kingdom of Ireland; and admire the Alacrity with which our Fellow Subjects prepared for repelling them, we humbly acknowledge the Hand of the Almighty in the Dispersion of their Force; yet, as Disappointment may sharpen their Inveteracy, and Despair may urge them to similar Assaults, we think it our Duty to assure your Majesty, that we are resolved to exert our utmost Influence to draw together the Force of this County in such Manner as to make it contribute to the general Defence of the Empire: And we shall most willingly afford every Aid in our Power for conveying Military Stores through the County, free of any Expence to Government, when Application shall be made to us by those entrusted with conducting thereof.

Signed in Name, and by Appointment of a General Meeting of the County, held at Inverness this 17th of February, 1797 Years, by Mercurii, 1^{mo} Die Martii, 1797.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of Peter Moore, Esq; and Philip Francis, Esq; complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough of Tewkesbury in the County of Gloucester, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petition did, in Part, depend upon the Right of Election; and that, thereupon, the said Committee therefore required the Parties to deliver in Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Petitioners delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Petitioners state, that the Right of Election for the Borough of Tewkesbury is only in the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the said Borough; meaning by the Word "Burgesses" such Persons as are entitled to their Freedom by Servitude or Copy, and by the Word "Commonalty" the Inhabitant Householders of the said Borough." That the Sitting Members, James Martin and William Dowdeswell, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows: "The Right of Election is in the Freemen of the said Borough, and in any Person seized of an Estate of Freehold in an entire Dwelling-House situate within the said Borough." That upon the Statement delivered in by the said Petitioners the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Tewkesbury. That upon the Statement delivered by the Sitting Members the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Tewkesbury." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election, have determined, That the Right of Election is in the Freemen at large, and in all Persons seized of an Estate of Freehold in an entire Dwelling-House within the ancient Limits of the said Borough." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in "Parliament." Given under my Hand, this First Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.
