From Tuesday April 25, to Saturday April 29, 1797.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of April, 1797,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

THIS Day the Right Honourable Charles Henry Somerset, commonly called Lord Charles Somerset, Comptroller of His Majesty's Household, was, by His Majesty's Command, sworn of His Most Honorable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

His Majesty having been pleased to appoint George Beckwith, Esq; to be Governor and Commander in Chief of the Bermuda, or Somers Islands; Stephen De Lancey, Esq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief of the Island of Tobago and its Dependencies; and the Honourable Andrew Cochrane Johnstone to be Captain General and Governor in Chief the Island of Dominica; they this Day took the usual Oaths appointed to be taken by the Governors of His Majesty's Plantations.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of April, 1797,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the

the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant April; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant April to the Thirtieth Day of June next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of April, 1797,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by Majesty's Order in Council of the 20th Day of October last, prohibiting the Exportation out of this Kingdom of any Sort of Rock Salt, will expire upon the 29th Day of this instant April: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 29th Day of this instant April, export or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or load or lay on board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of any Port or Place in Great Britain, any Sort of Rock Salt whatsoever, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of His Majesty in Council respecting the Exportation of Rock Salt; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Rock Salt; and for making further Provisions relative thereto;" His Majesty, nevertheless, by the Advice aforesaid, hath thought fit to order, that nothing herein contained shall prevent Rock Salt being carried Coastwise under the usual Rules, Regulations and Restrictions, nor the Exportation of the same to Ireland, or to any other of His Majesty's Dominions, under the usual Conditions and Regulations, and upon Security being given, by the Exporter and Two other Persons, (of whom the Master of the Vessel shall be one) by Bond, in such Penalty as shall be directed by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, that the said Rock Salt shall be exported to some Port or Place in His Majesty's Dominions, and none other; and that a Certificate shall be produced within Six Months from the Date of the Bond, if such Rock Salt shall be entered out for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in Europe, and within Twelve Months if for any Part of His Majesty's Dominions in America or the West Indies, and within Eighteen Months if for any of the British Settlements or Factories in Asia or Africa, under the Hand of the Principal Officer of the Customs at the Port or Place where such Rock Salt shall be so landed; and if there shall be no Officer of the Customs, then under the Hand of the Chief Magistrate of the Place, testifying that the said Rock Salt has been duly landed at the Port or Place for which the same was entered out. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Downing-Street, April 29, 1797.

A Letter, of which the following is a Copy, has been received from Colonel Craufurd by the Right Honorable Lord Grenville, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Foreign Department.

My Lord,

I Have the Honor to inform your Lordship, that General Hoche has given Notice to General Werneck, that the Armistice which had been arranged for the Lower Rhine, will expire this Day.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) CHARLES CRAUFURD.

Right Hon. Lord Grenville,
&c. &c. &c.

Downing-Street, April 29, 1797.

By Dispatches from Colonel Graham, dated at the Head Quarters of His Royal Highness the Archduke Charles; at Vorderenberg, the 8th Instant, it appears, that no general Action had taken Place since the Date of his last Dispatches; and that General Buonaparte's Head Quarters were then at Bruck.

Vienna, April 11.

An Armistice for Six Days has been agreed upon between the Archduke Charles and General Buonaparte, which will expire on the 13th Instant.

Vienna, April 12.

Accounts from the Tyrol state, that Baron de Laudon had gained several considerable Advantages over the Enemy. On the 4th he had made himself Master of Botzen, and on the 5th he had advanced as far as Deuchen and Branrol.

The Enemy abandoned Millervalld, Oberau, Unterau, and set Fire to the Two Bridges between Oberau and Ampozzo, in the Night of the 4th, and retired precipitately to Pusterthal. General Laudon had in the mean Time taken the Enemy in the Rear, and had forced them to abandon the Posts of Clauser and Steben; they were also driven from Brixen, and Baron Kerpen had advanced the Whole of his Line, and had effected a Junction and fixed his Head Quarters at Brixen.

The Enemy left behind them a considerable Quantity of Provisions and Ammunition.

The People of the Tyrol are rising in a Mass, and the Commotions in the Venetian States threaten the French in the Rear.

Prince Eiterhazy is advancing through Croatia with a considerable Body of Hungarians.

Admiralty-Office, April 29, 1797.

Extract of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, Knt. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 9th March, 1797.

Enclosed I have the Honor to transmit a List of such armed Vessels as have been captured or destroyed since my last.

A LIST of Prizes captured by His Majesty's Ship La Magicienne, during her last Cruize.

La Fortune of	8 Guns, 74 Men.
Le Poisson Volant of	12 Guns, 80 Men.
Le Poisson Volant of	5 Guns, 50 Men.
Spanish Cutter of	6 Guns.

formerly called the Bawvaes, laden with Olives and Dry Goods.

By the Diligence,

La Fogouse of 6 Guns, 57 Men.

One Privateer Schooner, destroyed by the Boats of the Squadron, under the Command of Lieutenant Spread, of His Majesty's Ship Queen, who retook an American Brig she had captured in our Sight, to recover which the Boats were sent in Chace.

H. PARKER.

Admiralty-Office, April 29, 1797.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. William Arnold, Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Cowes, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated April 27, 1797:

I Have the Honor to inform you, that a French Privateer the Daphne, of Cherbourg, Bar Corps, Master, of the Burthen of 33 Tons, with 25 Men,

Two Carriage Guns and Two Swivels, has been taken and brought in here Yesterday by the Nancy Cutter, a small Revenue Cruiser belonging to this Port, Robert Willis Commander, 32 Ton Admeasurement, with Ten Men and One Swivel Gun only.

The Privateer is marked on the Stern, Vigilant, of Guernsey, a Deception often made Use of, I am informed, to decoy English Trading Vessels within Reach of the Guns of the Enemy's Cruiser.

Whereas, at the last Election for the County of Flint, Sir Thomas Mostyn, Baronet, was returned a Member to serve in Parliament for the said County; and whereas several Petitions, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said County, have been presented to the said House of Commons, and which said Petitions were appointed to be taken into Consideration upon Tuesday next the Second Day of May, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon: And whereas the said Sir Thomas Mostyn hath this Day informed the said House of Commons, by a Declaration in Writing, subscribed by him, and delivered in at the Table of the said House of Commons, that it is not his Intentions to defend his said Election or Return, and in consequence thereof the Consideration of the said Petition hath been adjourned until Thursday the First Day of June next, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day: I do therefore give this Notice thereof, in pursuance of the Statute in that Case made and provided. Given under my Hand the Twenty-seventh Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Navy-Office, April 18, 1797.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 1st of next Month, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, Commissioner Proby will put up to Sale, at his Office in His Majesty's Yard at Chatham, Several Lots of old Stores, consisting of Admiralty-Office, March 31, 1797.

Notwithstanding the Notices which have already appeared in the London Gazette, requiring all Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy, who shall be unemployed, to give Information to this Office of the Places of their Abode, many of them have omitted to comply therewith; It is therefore the Direction of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that such Lieutenants do immediately transmit hither the Information above required; and that such of them as are incapable, either from Age or bodily Infirmary, of further Service, do, at the same Time, transmit an Affidavit from a qualified Surgeon of such Inability, specifying therein the Cause or Causes thereof, that their Lordships may judge how far it may be proper to call for the further Services of such Lieutenants.

In case the same Disregard should be paid to this as hath been shewn to the former Notices, it is their Lordships Intention to mark their Disapprobation of the Conduct of such Officers in the strongest Manner, by striking their Names off the List of Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy.

Evan Nepean.

Office for Sick and Wounded Seamen,
September 15, 1796.

THE Appointment of Surgeons to His Majesty's Ships and Vessels being vested in the Commissioners for Sick and Wounded Seamen, it is the Direction of the said Commissioners, that all Surgeons, not at this Time employed in the Service, do forthwith give Notice here of their Place of Abode, and that they continue to do the same as often as they shall change their Places of Abode. It is also desired that all Surgeons, as well those employed as unemployed, do transmit to this Office a List of the Ships they have served in, and their Stations, specifying the Time they respectively belonged to each.

East-India House, April 26, 1797.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies do hereby give Notice,

That a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Thursday, the 11th of May next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Desire of Nine Proprietors, agreeably to the following Letter.

To the Honourable the Court of Directors for the Affairs of the United East-India Company.

Honourable Sirs,

We have examined the Papers which were printed by Desire of the last General Court of Proprietors, from which it appears to us, that the Board of Control have, in direct Opposition to the Sense and Remonstrance of a very considerable Majority of the Court of Directors, ordered a Disbursement out of the Company's Treasury of no less a Sum than One Million Two Hundred Thousand Pounds, in a Manner, as we conceive, not only immediately injurious to that enormous Amount, but avowed upon a Principle so alarming that it must in its future Consequences endanger the very Existence of the East-India Company.

We who are Proprietors of East-India Stock, duly qualified, do request a General Court may be convened for the Purpose of taking this important Subject into immediate Consideration; and we request that this Court may also be summoned on other Special Affairs.

We have Honour to be,

Honourable Sirs,

Your very obedient humble Servants,

KINNAIRD.
