AT the Court at St. James's, the 3d of May, 1797.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 20th of October last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of of this Kingdom any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, (except as in the said Order is mentioned) will expire upon the 7th Day of this instant May: And whereas it is judged expedient that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whatsoever do, at any Time, during the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 7th Day of this instant May, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any Pot-Ash or Pearl-Ash, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Articles have been all duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Farwellener.

Westminster, May 9, 1797.

And to Seven Private Bills.

St. James's, May 13.

On Tuesday last His Most Serene Highness the Hereditary Prince of Wirtemberg came to the Apartments prepared for the Reception of His Most Serene Highness at St. James's.

His Highness having been invited by the Right Honorable Sir Joseph Banks, K. B. to stop, in his Way to London, at Spring Grove, and to partake of a Collation, was met at Spring Grove by the Right Honorable Lord Malmesbury, K. B. and Sir Stephen Cottrell, Knt. His Majesty's Master of the Ceremonies, and was by them conducted to London, in one of His Majesty's Coaches, drawn by Six Horses, and lodged in the said Apartments at St. James's.

Immediately after his Arrival at St. James's His Highness received a Visit from the Marquis of Salisbury, Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household.

Their Majesties and the Royal Family sent their Compliments of Welcome to His Most Serene Highness upon his Arrival at St. James's; and the Right Honorable Charles Greville, Vice-Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household, who carried the Compliment from His Majesty, acquainted His Most Serene Highness that His Majesty had appointed the ensuing Day to receive His Highness, after the Levee; when His Most Serene Highness waited on His Majesty, and afterwards on the Queen, and on the Royal Family, at the Times respectively appointed.

Before the Hour came for His Most Serene Highness to have Access to the King on Wednesday, His Highness received Visits from their Graces the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, the Lord Chancellor, and other Lords of His Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, and from many of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction, and from the Foreign Ministers; all of whom were presented to His Most Serene Highness.

On Thursday His Highness again received Visit from divers of the Nobility, and went to the Drawing Room to pay his Compliments to the Queen; and Yesterday His Serene Highness paid his Compliments to His Majesty at his Levee.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, May 11, 1797.

Whereas the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of James John Vassar, Esq; complaining of an undue Election and Return for the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, "That it appeared to the said Select Committee, that the Merits of the Petition did wholly depend upon the Right of Election; and the Parties were therefore required to deliver in Statements, in Writing, of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended. That, in consequence thereof, the Petitioner delivered in a Statement as follows: The Petitioner states, that the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts is in the Alderman, Capital Burgesses, Assistants, Landholders, and Commoners of the said Borough. That the Sitting Member, Philip Metcalf, Esq; delivered in a Statement as follows: The Sitting Member states, that the Right of Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Malmesbury in the County of Wilts is in the Alderman and Twelve Capital Burgesses only. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Petitioner the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Malmesbury. That upon the Statement delivered in by the Sitting Member the said Select Committee have determined, That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is the Right of Election for the said Borough of Malmesbury." I do therefore hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of the Act, made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament." Given under my Hand, the Tenth Day of May; One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven.

HENRY ABBINGTON, Speaker.

Admiralty-Office, May 9, 1797.

PURsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the concerned, That Information has been sent to this Office, that the Ship Concordia, of Fleusburg, in the Kingdom of Denmark, whereof Carsten Wulff was Master, bound from St. Ubes in Portugal to Amsterdam, was, on the 26th of last Month, stranded within the Limits of the Port of Rye, in the County of Suffex.

Evan Nepean.

Whitehall, May 10, 1797.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on the Evening of Sunday last; the 7th Instant, between the Hours of Eight and Nine o'Clock, as Sydney Fryer, of Holborn, Esq; and a young Lady his Cousin, were passing through the Fields leading from White-Conduit House to Islington, they discovered Three Men in the Act of Robbing a Woman; that upon approaching near them, one of the Party advanced to the said Sydney Fryer, Esq; and inhumanly murdered him, by shooting him through the Head with a Pistol; and that after rifling his Pocket of his Money, a Gold Hunting Watch with Steel Chain and Two Gold Seals, and robbing the young Lady who had accompanied him, they made their Escape.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the atrocious Murder, above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to either of the Persons concerned in the said Murder (except the Person who actually perpetrated the same) who shall discover his Accomplices therein.

PORTLAND.

And, as a further Encouragement, a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS is hereby offered to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as is before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of one or more of the Offenders, by Baxters and Martin.
