By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For the Suppression of the Mutinous and Treasonable Proceedings of the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, upon the Representation of Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty respecting the Proceedings of the Seamen and Marines on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore, We were pleased to command Our said Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty to signify to the said Seamen and Marines Our gracious Intentions, expressed in Our Royal Declaration, under Our Sign Manual, bearing Date at St. James's, the Twenty-seventh Day of May instant, in the Words following: "Whereas it has been represented unto Us, that, notwithstanding the Declarations made in Our Name, and by Our Authority, by Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, of Our gracious Intentions to recommend to the Consideration of Parliament, to augment the Wages and Allowances of the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, which Our gracious Intentions and Declarations have since been carried into Effect by an Act of Parliament; and, notwithstanding the Communication made by Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Richard Earl Howe; Admiral of Our Fleet, of Our gracious Intentions towards the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, for the Pardon of the Offences by them committed, and Our Royal Proclamation thereupon, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of May instant; and notwithstanding the Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude with which the same were received by the Seamen and Marines of Our other Squadrons, yet the Crews on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore have not only since the full Manifestation of all these Our gracious Intentions and Declarations been guilty of divers Acts of Mutiny and Disobedience of Orders, but have even proceeded to other Acts of the most heinous and treasonable Nature, by firing upon some of Our Ships in order to compel them to submit to their Direction; have threatened and taken Measures for stopping the Commerce of the Kingdom passing to and from the Port of London, and have, by Terror of their Force, compelled Two Frigates to desist from executing a particular Service, which by Our Orders they were directed to perform: We, thinking it right to warn all Our Seamen and Marines on Board the said Ships of the heinous Nature of the Offences by them committed, and of the dangerous Consequences thereof to the Spirit and Discipline of the British Navy, and to the Welfare of their Country, as well as their own Safety, do hereby earnestly require and enjoin all Our said Seamen and Marines, immediately on the Notification of this Our Royal Declaration, to return to the regular Discharge of their Duty, as has already been done by the Crews of Our other Squadrons and Fleets, stationed at Portsmouth and Plymouth, and elsewhere: And whereas We are well assured that a great Part of the Seamen and Marines on Board the said Ships at the Nore abhor and detest the Criminal Proceedings which are still persisted in on Board the said Ships, and are desirous to return to their Duty: Now, We being desirous to extend Our Gracious Intentions of Pardon to all such Seamen and Marines so serving on Board Our said Ships at the Nore, who may have returned, or shall return, upon the Notification of this Our Royal Declaration, to the regular and ordinary Discharge of their Duty, have authorized, and do hereby authorize and empower Our said Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, to signify to all such Seamen and Marines, who may have been guilty of any of the

“ the treasonable Acts aforesaid, or of any Mutiny “ or Disobedience of Orders or Neglect of Duty, “ and who have returned, or who shall, upon “ Notification hereof on Board their respective “ Ships, return to the regular and ordinary Dis“ charge of their Duty, Our Royal Intentions to “ grant to all such Seamen and Marines Our most “ Gracious Pardon, and to promise, in Our Name, “ to all such Seamen and Marines, who have so “ returned, or shall so return to the regular and “ ordinary Discharge of their Duty, Our most “ gracious Pardon accordingly: And We do hereby “ declare, that all such Seamen and Marines, who “ shall have so returned, or shall so return to their “ Duty, and to whom the said Lords Commissioners “ of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, shall “ so promise Our Pardon, shall receive the same “ accordingly, and shall be discharged and released “ from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments and Penalties “ incurred by reason of any of the Acts aforesaid, “ or by reason of any Act of Mutiny or Disobedience “ of Orders, or any Breach or Neglect of Duty “ previously committed by them or any of them; “ hereby declaring at the same Time, that all such “ Seamen and Marines who shall not take the “ henceforth be considered as liable, according to the “ Nature of their Offences, to such Punishment as the “ Articles of War and the Law have provided for the “ same.” And whereas Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor George John Earl Spencer, Our Trusty and Well-beloved Charles George Lord Arden of Our Kingdom of Ireland, and William Young, Esquire, Rear-Admiral of the White, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, did cause Our gracious Intentions expressed in such Our Declaration, to be signified to the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore, and did require such Crews to return to their due Obedience accordingly: And whereas it has been repented to Us, that some of the Crews of Our said Ships have been desirous of returning to their Obedience accordingly, but have been prevented from so doing by Violence; and others of Our Ships, in the actual Discharge of their Duty, have been fired upon, and Attempts have been made to prevent some of Our Ships from proceeding according to the Orders of their Commanders: And whereas such continued Perseverance in rebellious and treasonable Attempts against Our Crown and Dignity, after repeated Admonitions and offers of Our gracious Pardon, render it necessary for us to call on all Our loving Subjects to be aiding and assisting in repressing the same; We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our Admirals, Generals, Commanders and Officers of Our Forces by Sea and Land, and all Magistrates whatsoever, and all others Our loving Subjects, that they, in their several Stations, do use their utmost Endeavours, according to Law, to suppress all such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, and to use all lawful Means to bring the Persons concerned therein, their Aiders and Abettors, to Justice: And We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects whatsoever not to give any Aid, Comfort, Assistance or Encouragement whatsoever to any Person or Persons concerned in any such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, as they will answer the same at their Peril; and also, to the utmost of their Power and according to Law, to prevent all other Persons from giving any such Aid, Assistance, Comfort or Encouragement.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty-first Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

 Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain,

 General of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of June, 1797,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the 30th of November last, prohibiting the Transportation into any Parts out of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire upon the 10th Day of this instant June: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command; that no Person or Persons whatsoever do; at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 10th Day of this instant June, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th of June, 1797.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Charles Lord Romney to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent, and of the City of Canterbury and County of the same; his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon; instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, June 17, 1797.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our sincerest Congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal to His Serene Highness the Prince of Wirtemberg.

Interested by Duty and Attachment in every Event that is connected with the Happiness of the Royal Family, we presume to add our ardent Wishes that this illustrious Alliance may be attended with the fullest Measure of conjugal Felicity, and productive of every Consequence that can reward the parental Excellencies, which have united the milder Beams of domestic Virtue with those that have long shone conspicuously on the British Throne in our gracious Queen, and the Father of his People:

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey in the said City, the 30th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1797.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity House of Kingston upon Hull; in Council assembled.

Gracious Sovereign,

THIS Corporation having ever evinced their Attachment to the present Constitution, and to the Observance of due Subordination, as well as their Readiness in giving every Assistance towards manning your Majesty's Fleet by liberal Bounties to the Seamen entering at Hull, and ample Provision for the Support of their Wives and Families, and also a Superannuation to such Seamen as shall return disabled or worn out in the Service, cannot forbear expressing their Indignation and Abhorrence of those most daring and atrocious Acts of Disorder and Plunder now unhappily prevailing among the Sailors in many of your Majesty's Ships of War, to a Degree the most disgraceful to the Name and Profession of a British Seaman, and which, unless timely checked, threaten to overwhelm these Kingdoms into a Situation truly calamitous.

With Hearts impressed by the most ardent and sincere Loyalty to your sacred Person, and Veneration for the present Constitution and Laws, in the due and respectful Obedience of which alone depends the very Existence of this Country, we humbly presume to assure your Majesty, that every Effort that can be used by this House in it's corporate Capacity, and also by the Members as Individuals, shall be exerted in endeavouring to obtain a Re-establishment of that Subordination and Discipline among the Seamen that is so essential to preserve these Kingdoms from falling a Prey to domestic Anarchy and lawless Licentiousness, or to a foreign Enemy.

Given under our Common Seal the 10th Day of June, in the 37th Year of your Majesty's Reign.

Charles Shipman, } Wardens.
Rd. Thorley, }

[Presented by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, K. G. and Samuel Thornton, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Ship Owners, Merchants and Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Sunderland and its Neighbourhood, actuated by a sincere Affection for your Majesty's Person and Family, and a firm Attachment to the established Government of your Kingdoms, beg Leave to approach the Throne, to offer to your Majesty our most zealous Support at this very arduous and momentous Period.

Deeply sensible of the solid Advantages we enjoy under our excellent Constitution, and desirous of transmitting it inviolate and unimpaired to the latest Posterity, permit us to assure your Majesty, that we shall be at all Times ready to exert our most vigorous Endeavours to counteract every Attempt that may be made to endanger it, to oppose the Machinations of every foreign Enemy, and to disappoint the malignant Designs of internal Foes.

We will resist and discourage, as far as we can, whatever may tend to disturb the Peace and Order of Society, and will, both by Example and Influence in our several Stations, recommend Subordination and due Submission to the Laws, as the best Means of preserving the Tranquillity and Safety of our Country, and of promoting it's Welfare and Prosperity.

Animated with these Sentiments, and lamenting with peculiar Concern and Abhorrence the Arts practised by unnatural Incendiaries to sow Disaffection, and to draw your Majesty's Forces from their Allegiance, by endeavouring to raise in their Minds groundless Discontents, we will give every Aid to the Executive Power, and co-operate with Parliament in such Measures, as in their Wisdom they shall judge necessary, to bring the misguided and deluded Crews of some of your Majesty's Ships to a Sense of Duty, to that Obedience and Discipline which are so essential to the Security of the Country, which till lately ever distinguished their Conduct, and which, we trust, will again be the Character of the British Seamen.

We also beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we unite, from a Sense of Duty and Interest, in earnestly praying that your Majesty may long reign over a loyal, free and happy People, in full Enjoyment of Health and Prosperity.

June 8, 1797.

[Presented by Rowland Burdon, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portsmouth Volunteer Artillery.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portsmouth Artillery Volunteers, respectfully beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express the deep Concern and Indignation which, with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we feel at the present disgraceful, dishonorable and ungrateful Conduct of some of the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, who, instigated by the wicked Insinuations of evil disposed Persons, Enemies to their King and Country, have committed, and still commit, Acts of Insubordination and Outrage, degrading to the Character of British Seamen, hitherto as highly distinguished for Loyalty and good Conduct, as for Intrepidity in vanquishing their Enemies.

Impelled therefore by our Duty to your Majesty and to our Country, we step forward at this alarming Crisis, to manifest at once our just Abhorrence of the atrocious Conduct of the deluded Seamen, (notwithstanding your Majesty's gracious Admonition to them) and our warm Admiration of the confirmed Loyalty of your Majesty's Troops, so evident by their public Declarations and exemplary Conduct, and to avow our Readiness, residing in the first Port of the Kingdom, to support with our Lives such Measures as your Majesty in your Wisdom may deem most expedient to adopt for the Restoration of good Order and Subordination among the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, for the Honour, Dignity and Welfare of our Country.

Given this 9th of June, 1797.

[Presented by Sir William Heathcote, Bart.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portsmouth Loyal Volunteers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Loyal Volunteers of Portsmouth, respectfully beg Leave to approach your Majesty, to express the deep Concern and Indignation which, with all your Majesty's faithful Subjects, we feel at the present disgraceful, dishonorable and ungrateful Conduct of some of the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, who, instigated by the wicked Insinuations of evil disposed Persons, Enemies to their King and Country, have committed, and still commit, Acts of Insubordination and Outrage, degrading to the Character rafter of British Seamen, hitherto as highly distinguished for Loyalty and good Conduct, as for Incredibility in vanquishing their Enemies.

Impelled therefore by our Duty to your Majesty and to our Country, we step forward at this alarming Crisis, to manifest at once our just Abhorrence of the atrocious Conduct of the deluded Seamen, (notwithstanding your Majesty's gracious Admonition to them) and our warm Admiration of the confirmed Loyalty of your Majesty's Troops, so evident by their public Declarations and exemplary Conduct, and to avow our Readiness, residing in the first Port of the Kingdom, to support with our Lives such Measures as your Majesty in your Wisdom may deem most expedient to adopt for the Restoration of good Order and Subordination among the Seamen of your Majesty's Fleet, for the Honour, Dignity and Welfare of our Country.
