

of this Kingdom any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, will expire upon the 10th Day of this instant June: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command; that no Person or Persons whatsoever do; at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said 10th Day of this instant June, export, or attempt to export, transport, carry or convey, or lade or lay on Board of any Ship, Vessel or Boat, in order to be exported, transported, carried or conveyed out of this Kingdom, any of the Wood called Lignum Vitæ, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act passed in the Thirty-fourth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for indemnifying all Persons who have been concerned in advising or carrying into Execution an Order of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury respecting the Exportation of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes; for preventing Suits in consequence of the same; for authorizing His Majesty to prohibit the Exportation or carrying Coastwise of Pot-Ashes or Pearl-Ashes, and for making further Provisions relative thereto." But it is nevertheless His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board any of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ which may be necessary for the Use of the said Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage; nor to prevent the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Islands of Guernsey, Jersey, Alderney, Sark or Man, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which it shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security, by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ to the Places for which it is so entered Outwards, and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that the said Wood called Lignum Vitæ has been duly landed at the Places for which it was entered Outwards.—And the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th of June, 1797.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HIS Majesty having been pleased to appoint the Right Honorable Charles Lord Romney to be Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent, and of the City of Canterbury and County of the same; his Lordship this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken thereupon; instead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

St. James's, June 17, 1797.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty;

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Common Council of the City of Gloucester, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to offer our sincerest Congratulations on the Marriage of the Princess Royal to His Serene Highness the Prince of Wirtemberg.

Interested by Duty and Attachment in every Event that is connected with the Happiness of the Royal Family, we presume to add our ardent Wishes that this illustrious Alliance may be attended with the fullest Measure of conjugal Felicity, and productive of every Consequence that can reward the parental Excellencies, which have united the milder Beams of domestic Virtue with those that have long shone conspicuously on the British Throne in our gracious Queen, and the Father of his People:

Given under our Common Seal, at the Tolsey in the said City, the 30th Day of May, in the Year of our Lord 1797.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Guild or Brotherhood of Masters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity House of Kingston upon Hull; in Council assembled.

Gracious Sovereign,

THIS Corporation having ever evinced their Attachment to the present Constitution, and to the Observance of due Subordination, as well as their Readiness in giving every Assistance towards manning your Majesty's Fleet by liberal Bounties to the Seamen entering at Hull, and ample Provision for the Support of their Wives and Families, and also a Superannuation to such Seamen as shall return disabled
