By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For the Suppression of the Mutinous and Treasonable Proceedings of the Crews of Our Ships at the Nore.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS, upon the Representation of Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty respecting the Proceedings of the Seamen and Marines on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore We were pleased to command Our said Lord Commissioners of the Admiralty to signify to the said Seamen and Marines Our gracious Intentions, expressed in Our Royal Declaration; under Our Sign Manual, bearing Date at St. James's, the Twenty-seventh Day of May instant, in the Words following:

"Whereas it has been represented unto Us, that, notwithstanding the Declarations made in Our Name, and by Our Authority, by Our Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, of Our gracious Intentions to recommend to the Consideration of Parliament, to augment the Wages and Allowances of the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, which Our gracious Intentions and Declarations have since been carried into Effect by an Act of Parliament; and, notwithstanding the Communication made by Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor Richard Earl Howe, Admiral of Our Fleet, of Our gracious Intentions towards the Seamen and Marines of Our Fleet, for the Pardon of the Offences by them committed, and Our Royal Proclamation thereupon, bearing Date the Eleventh Day of May instant; and notwithstanding the Sentiments of Duty and Gratitude with which the same were received by the Seamen and Marines of Our other Squadrons, yet the Crews on Board certain of Our Ships at the Nore have not only since the full Manifestation of all these Our gracious Intentions and Declarations been guilty of divers Acts of Mutiny and Disobedience of Orders, but have even proceeded to other Acts of the most heinous and treasonable Nature, by firing

"upon some of Our Ships in order to compel them to submit to their Direction; have threatened and taken Measures for stopping the Commerce of the Kingdom passing to and from the Port of London, and have, by Terror of their Force, compelled Two Frigates to desist from executing a particular Service, which by Our Orders they were directed to perform: We, thinking it right to warn all Our Seamen and Marines on Board the said Ships of the heinous Nature of the Offences by them committed, and of the dangerous Consequences thereof to the Spirit and Discipline of the British Navy, and to the Welfare of their Country, as well as their own Safety, do hereby earnestly require and enjoin all Our said Seamen and Marines, immediately on the Notification of this Our Royal Declaration, to return to the regular Discharge of their Duty, as has already been done by the Crews of Our other Squadrons and Fleets, stationed at Portsmouth and Plymouth, and elsewhere: And whereas We are well assured that a great Part of the Seamen and Marines on Board the said Ships at the Nore abhor and detest the Criminal Proceedings which are still persisted in on Board the said Ships, and are desirous to return to their Duty: Now, We being desirous to extend Our Gracious Intentions of Pardon to all such Seamen and Marines so serving on Board Our said Ships at the Nore, who may have returned, or shall return, upon the Notification of this Our Royal Declaration, to the regular and ordinary Discharge of their Duty, have authorized, and do hereby authorize and empower Our said Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, to signify to all such Seamen and Marines, who may have been guilty of any of the treasonable Acts aforesaid, or of any Mutiny or Disobedience of Orders or Neglect of Duty, and who have returned, or who shall, upon Notification hereof on Board their respective Ships, return to the regular and ordinary Discharge of their Duty, Our Royal Intentions to grant to all such Seamen and Marines Our most gracious

" Gracious Pardon, and to promise, in Our Name, to all such Seamen and Marines, who have so returned, or shall so return to the regular and ordinary Discharge of their Duty, Our most gracious Pardon accordingly: And We do hereby declare, that all such Seamen and Marines, who shall have so returned, or shall so return to their Duty, and to whom the said Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, or any Three of them, shall so promise Our Pardon, shall receive the same accordingly, and shall be discharged, and released from all Prosecutions, Imprisonments and Penalties incurred by reason of any of the Acts aforesaid, or by reason of any Act of Mutiny or Disobedience of Orders, or any Breach or Neglect of Duty previously committed by them or any of them; hereby declaring at the same Time, that all such Seamen and Marines who shall not take the Benefit of this Our gracious Pardon, shall from henceforth be considered as liable, according to the Nature of their Offences, to such Punishment as the Articles of War and the Law have provided for the same." And whereas Our Right Trusty and Right Well-beloved Cousin and Councillor George John Earl Spencer, Our Trusty and Well-beloved Charles George Lord Arden of Our Kingdom of Ireland, and William Young, Esquire, Rear-Admiral of the White, being Three of the Lords Commissioners of Our Admiralty, did cause Our gracious Intentions expressed in such Our Declaration, to be signified to the Crews of Our Ships at the North, and did require such Crews to return to their due Obedience accordingly: And whereas it has been represented to Us, that some of the Crews of Our said Ships have been desirous of returning to their Obedience accordingly, but have been prevented from so doing by Violence; and others of Our Ships, in the actual Discharge of their Duty, have been fired upon, and Attempts have been made to prevent some of Our Ships from proceeding according to the Orders of their Commanders: And whereas such continued Perseverance in rebellious and treasonable Attempts against Our Crown and Dignity, after repeated Admonitions and offers of Our gracious Pardon, render it necessary for us to call on all Our loving Subjects to be aiding and assisting in repressing the same; We have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our Admirals, Generals, Commanders and Officers of Our Forces by Sea and Land, and all Magistrates whatsoever, and all others Our loving Subjects, that they, in their several Stations, do use their utmost Endeavours, according to Law, to suppress all such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, and to use all lawful Means to bring the Persons concerned therein, their Aiders and Abettors, to Justice: And We do hereby strictly enjoin and command all Our loving Subjects whatsoever not to give any Aid, Comfort, Assistance or Encouragement whatsoever to any Person or Persons concerned in any such mutinous and treasonable Proceedings, as they will answer the same at their Peril; and also, to the utmost of their Power and according to Law, to prevent all other Persons from giving any such Aid, Assistance, Comfort or Encouragement.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Thirty-first Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, and in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

GOD save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 21st of June, 1797,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman; fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirtieth Day of this instant June; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of this instant June to the Thirty-first Day of August next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

THE following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honorable Henry Dundas, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department, has been by him presented to the King; which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Magistrates, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of the Royal Burgh of Banff.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Magistrates, Common-Council and Inhabitants of your Royal Burgh of Banff, humbly beg Leave to approach the Throne, in order to renew to your Majesty our solemn Assurances of the most inviolable Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's sacred Person and Government.

We sincerely lament the late Disturbances and Mutiny in a Part of your Royal Navy, and that British Seamen should have ever suffered themselves to be deluded by the Machinations of hidden Agents of our inveterate Enemy, into Acts of Treason and open Rebellion against the best of Sovereigns and the most indulgent Government. We trust, however, that your Majesty, in Compliance with the unanimous Sense and Wishes of this great and loyal Nation, will take such vigorous Measures as shall speedily restore the necessary Discipline of the Navy, and bring the Instigators and Ringleaders of the present unprovoked Rebellion to condign Punishment; and we do solemnly pledge ourselves to support and assist your Majesty, in all such Measures as shall be requisite for this Purpose, with our Lives and Fortunes.

We are determined on this and on every other Occasion to maintain the sacred Fabric of the British Constitution, fully convinced that to it alone we owe the inestimable Blessings we have hitherto enjoyed; and we sincerely hope and pray that your Majesty may be able, in spite of all Enemies, to transmit it unimpaired to our Posterity.

Signed in our Name and Presence, and by our Appointment, by the Chief Magistrate.
