S I R,

PLEASE to inform my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that His Majesty's Ship Galatea has just brought in L'Argonaute French Lugger Privateer, mounting 2 Brafs Six-Pounders, 10 Swivels, and 36 Men; Fourteen Days out from Granville.

Captain Byng acquaints me this Lugger is quite new; had not made any Prize; that he captured her Yesterday between Cape Clear and Scilly, and that Twelve Days ago she had been chased by a Frigate and Three Cutters Three Leagues from the Lizard, but escaped under the Isle of Bas.

I have the Honour to be, &c.

R. KINGSMILL.

Gentlemen,

BEING on a Cruize off Orfordness Yesterday at Three P. M. fell in with and gave Chace to a French Lugger Privateer; at Six P. M. she struck her Colours, after attempting to board us: She proves to be the Tyger, of Dunkirk, commanded by Lewis Augustin Buen Chatening, with 2 Two-Pounders, 4 Swivels and Small Arms, and 28 Men, Burthen 30 Tons, which I have just arrived here with, and am waiting for a Party of Soldiers to escort them to Colchester. She had been only Ten Hours from Ostend.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Robert Adams, Commander of the Viper Excise Cutter, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated at Harwich, July 5, 1797.

S I R,

I Have the Honour to inform you, that the Viper Cutter, under my Command, being on a Cruize on the 2d Instant, at One P. M. after a Chace of Two Hours, captured on the Shore near Clackton, in the Wallet, Les Graces, French Lugger Privateer, mounting 1 Two-Pounder and Two Swivels, in Carriages, which were thrown overboard in the Chace, the Small Arms remain on Board. Les Graces sailed from Dunkirk on the 1st Instant, under the Command of Guillaume Gaspard Malo, and Twenty-two Men, and had taken nothing. The Enemy fled into the Country immediately on their landing, but being pursued by the Cutter's Crew, assisted to the utmost by the Inhabitants and Troops on the Coast, the French Commander, with Twenty of his Crew, were secured, and are now safely lodged in the Prison at this Place.

I have the Honour to be, &c. &c. &c.

His Excellency was then pleased to make the following Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I Have the Satisfaction of being at length enabled to relieve you from your laborious Attendance in Parliament; and am commanded by His Majesty to express the just Sense he entertains of that firm Temper and vigorous Determination which you have uniformly manifested in supporting His Majesty's Government, and protecting our happy Constitution from the Attempts of every Foreign and Domestic Enemy.

I have much Pleasure in announcing to you that the British Parliament has passed Acts for abolishing the Bounty on Sail-Cloth exported to Ireland, and for prohibiting the Importation of Cambrick from all Countries except this Kingdom.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I am to thank you, in His Majesty's Name, for your Unanimity in voting the extraordinary Supplies which the Public Exigencies demanded. However unprecedented those Supplies have been in Extent, and however difficult they may have been rendered from the State of Public Credit, you have wisely attended to the superior Consideration of national Safety. Such an Exertion is the surest Proof that you are truly sensible of the invaluable Blessings which we are contending to preserve; and that the best Means of affecting an honourable Peace, and of restoring all the Comforts of Tranquillity, are by displaying at once your Determination and your Power, and by convincing your Enemies of the Extent of your Resources as well as of the Steadiness of your Courage.

The ready Assistance which has been received from the Sister Kingdom in facilitating the Loan of the Year, whilst it is a sure Demonstration of her friendly Cordiality, cannot fail to shew how inseparable are the mutual Interests of the Two Kingdoms, and how necessary their Connexion is for their mutual Prosperity.

Your Humanity in directing your Attention to the present Distress among the Manufacturers, does not less command my Approbation than your Prudence in the Mode of conveying Relief, by increasing the Means of their Employment.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The Powers with which you intrusted me, by the Suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, have enabled me to bring to Light and to disconcert the formidable and secret Conspiracy which had been formed for the total Overthrow of your Establishments, the Destruction of Property, and the Dissolution of Government. This Conspiracy has been so fully unfolded by your Wisdom, that it can no longer spread itself under the insidious Pretence which it had artfully assumed of improving the Constitution. In the Measures, whether of Vigilance or of Coercion, which you have recommended for its Extinction, I shall not relax. It will be my Study to temper the necessary Acts of Severity and Rigour by conciliatory Offers of Clemency and Pardon; to exhort the Infatuated and Deluded to abandon their Deceivers, and to summon the Guilty to Repentance; but at the same Time it is, and will be my fixed Purpose, to proceed with Vigour against those, who, regardless of every Warning and Admonition, shall continue their desperate Efforts to involve this flourishing Country in all the Horrors of Insurrection and Invasion, of Bloodshed, and of Anarchy.

I have already the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that great Numbers, who had been unfortunately seduced, have returned to a Sense of Duty, and been admitted to His Majesty's Clemency; and I trust that, by Perseverance and Energy, every Vestige of Disaffection will be effaced, and universally give Way to the Return of that Spirit of Loyalty, which has so long been the distinguishing Characteristic of this Kingdom.

I cannot omit to congratulate with you on the unimpaired Lustre of that Spirit, which so conspicuously shone forth when the Enemy's Fleet appeared on our Coasts; nor can I too often repeat my full Sense of your Wisdom in the Establishment of District Corps. I have the most satisfactory Accounts of their Improvement in Discipline, as well as of their Exertions in quelling and preventing Insurrection; and I have myself witnessed the unexampled Exertions, good Conduct, and Military Appearance of the Corps of the Metropolis, whose unceasing and unwearied Vigilance, at a most important Crisis checked every Attempt to produce Confusion by Riot and Tumult, at the same Time that it destroyed the Hopes of our Enemies, restored Confidence to the Country in general.

Your judicious Augmentation of Pay to His Majesty's Regular and Militia Forces, which must render their Situation so highly comfortable, is at once a seasonable and honourable Acknowledgement of their Steadiness and Loyalty. The traitorous Efforts, which have been made to entice them from their Allegiance, have had a fatal Effect in a few lamentable Examples. I trust, however, they have excited in the Minds of others so timely a Repentance, and in the rest such Indignation and Abhorrence, that no future Danger can be apprehended.

Your wise Institution of a Sinking-Fund, in the Midst of financial Difficulties, cannot be too much applauded, and will prevent any ruinous Depreciation of funded Stock; and, being established before the National Debts has accumulated to any oppressive Magnitude, will tend to prevent its becoming dangerous: A Measure so truly calculated for preserving the Resources of the State, and supporting Public Credit, must secure to you the Gratitude of an enlightened People.

His Majesty is exerting every proper Effort to produce a speedy and secure Peace. It will be our Duty to assist those Efforts, by convincing our Enemies, from the State of our Preparation, and the Unanimity of our Spirit, that they can hope for no Advantage by prolonging the Calamities of War.

Wherever your Abilities, your Influence and Exertions can be most advantageously employed on your Return to your several Counties, I am confident they will be most conspicuously displayed. A constant Intercourse with your immediate Neighbourhoods must give you the Opportunity of affording to the People both Assistance and Example, of reclaiming the Deluded and Ill-disposed, and confirming the Well-affected in their Fidelity and Allegiance. A forward Spirit of Loyalty, which, in most Parts of the Kingdom, has successfully checked the Progress of Treason, will be strengthened and diffused by your Presence and Exertions. It will be my Ambition to second your Activity and Zeal, and to co-operate with your Efforts for restoring the Tranquillity and Prosperity of the Kingdom.

We have a common and sacred Cause to defend, the Independence and Constitution of Great Britain and Ireland, from which both Kingdoms have derived innumerable Blessings under His Majesty's auspicious Reign. They were purchased by the dearest Blood of your Ancestors in a Crisis not less formidable than the present. I trust we shall not fail to imitate their great Example, and that we shall be enabled, by similar Courage and continued Firmness, to transmit to our Posterity inviolate that invaluable Inheritance, which their Valour rescued, and their Perseverance preserved.

After which the Lord Chancellor, by his Excellency's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is his Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Pleasure that this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the 10th Day of August next, to be then here holden: And this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the 10th Day of August next.

Carlton-House, July 5; 1797.
