Parliament-Street, July 13, 1797.

A DISPATCH, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by the Right Hon. Henry Dundas, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from Lieutenant-Colonel Simcoe, commanding His Majesty's Troops in the Island of St. Domingo, dated Port au Prince, May 8, 1797.

IN my Letter of the 13th of April I have done myself the Honor of informing you, that the Army of the Enemy under Toussaint, after the unexpected Evacuation of Mirebalais, had possessed itself of Grand Bois, while the Division of their Forces on the Side of Leogane continued to fire with Cannon against Grenier.

The Preservation of these Posts was an Object of considerable Moment. Every Method was taken, in case of their Loss, to guard the Mountain, and to dispute the Ground on which the Enemy could place their Howitzers for the Destruction of Port au Prince, the Object which was supposed to be in their Contemplation; but, as it was evident that the Army of Toussaint could not be prevented from crossing the Plain, and, under this Impression, the Baron Montalembert had obtained my Permission to evacuate the Post of Thomazeau, at the Foot of the Mountains of Grand Bois, I determined to take the Guns in the Battery against Grenier, that, in case the Armies of Toussaint and Leogane should join, they might be totally without Cannon, which could not well be brought across the Plain of the Cul de Sac, and without Cannon the Junction or Separation of their Armies was equally indifferent. Colonel Desfources was therefore placed at the Head of 2000 Troops, and such preparatory Arrangements were made as provided for the Protection of L'Arcahaye, and were well calculated to mislead the Enemy; and such Feints were directed as might distract their Attention.

The Attack was intended to have taken Place on the 15th of April, but the Wind did not permit the Arrival of Colonel Desfources with his Regiment until the 16th, when he marched early in the Morning from Port au Prince to Tourmier. The Enemy, as was their Custom, placed some Troops in Ambuscade, who were soon dispersed, and the King's Forces arrived at Tourmier, with little Loss. The Enemy had occupied two Posts on the Crest of the Mountain L'Hospitre, on each Side of Tourmier, and nearly at two Miles Distance from it, at the Habitations of Boutillier and St. Laurent. It was necessary to dislodge them from these Positions. Colonel De Peyster was therefore detached to Boutillier, from which, with his usual Gallantry and good Conduct, he drove the Enemy. The Post of St. Laurent was more obstinately defended, and, by the unfortunate Loss of Major Pouchet, who was killed in leading on the Jeremie Troops, they were thrown into Confusion; nor was the Post taken till a greater Force, with Cannon, appeared against it.

The Delay occasioned by the Defence of St. Laurent induced Colonel Desfources to postpone the Attack of the Battery till the next Day; and that intelligent Officer employed the Remainder of the Night in making such Preparations as were necessary to assure the Success of this Enterprize.

The Defence of the Cul de Sac was entrusted to the Baron Montalembert, who made a considerable Detachment to the Pass where the Road from Leogane by Grenier enters the Plain. This Detachment was skilfully conducted by Major O'Gorman. It attracted the Notice of considerable Bodies of the Enemy, and, on its Return to the Croix des Bouquets in the Evening, was attacked on all Sides by small Parties, who were repulsed.

Toussaint entered the Plain in the Course of the Day, and marched to the Side of the Croix des Bouquets, actuated, as it is said, by some vague Report of that important Post being to be abandoned on his first Appearance. His Cavalry fell in with the Advanced Posts of the Baron Montalembert's Cavalry, under the Command of Captain Comte Manoux. That Officer, collecting his Troops, immediately charged the Enemy with great Vivacity, when they fled, and withdrew, with the utmost Expedition, to the Mountain.

In

In the mean Time Captain Couchet, of His Majesty's Ships Abergavenny, with some Armed Vessels, proceeded off Leogane, which Place has been effectually blockaded since my Arrival at Port au Prince, and made various Demonstrations to draw the Enemy's Attention to that Side. I am happy in this Opportunity to express how much I am beholden to the Zeal and Promptitude with which Captain Couchet has assisted me in promoting His Majesty's Service.

On the Morning of the 17th Colonel Desfources, having made his Dispositions, marched in Two Columns, the Left directly to Grenier, under the Direction of Colonel Depeyster, in which was the British Detachment commanded by Major Clay. The Right Column, under the Direction of Colonel Vicomte D'Alzune, descended from St. Laurent.

Upon the Division of the Left arriving in the Bottom, which separated the Post of Grenier from the Enemy's Battery, it turned to the Right, and joined the Column that had marched from St. Laurent. The Fog and Haze in the Bottom prevented the Enemy from seeing this Movement. It was also concealed by the judicious Manner in which Captain Spicer of the Royal Artillery threw Shells from the Heights of Fournier from an Howitzer and Carronade, directing them against the various Ambuscades and Defences which the Enemy had thrown up to protect their Battery from any Attack in its Front or on its Right.

On the Junction of his Division into one Column, Colonel Desfources proceeded through a most difficult and almost inaccessible Country to turn the Left of the Enemy's Battery, and the Works which supported it, having left Troops on the Heights of St. Laurent to secure his Retreat, and Major Clay to protect him from any Attack that might be made by the Road from Leogane.

As the Colonel approached the Flank of the Battery, and that of the Breast-Work which defended it, he successively broke his Troops into Divisions, which kept the Enemy's Forces in Check and Suspence, until another Division, under the Command of Lieutenant-Colonel Desfources, had, to their great Surprise, possessed themselves of the Heights considerably beyond them, when, after an ineffectual Resistance, they fled on all Sides, and left Colonel Desfources in Possession of their Battery, the Work of several Months, and of the Gun which they had in the preceding Night withdrawn from it for the Defence of their Breast-Work. This critical Enterprize, I am happy to say, was effected with but little Loss, and, by it's Success, I was freed from any Apprehensions from the Junction of the Enemy's Armies.

I am perswaded this additional Proof of Colonel Desfources's Military Ability and Spirit will meet with His Majesty's Approbation. That Officer speaks in the highest Terms of the Behaviour of the Troops under his Command, of the Officers who commanded the Columns, and, in a particular Manner of the Captains Rodanes, Conegrat, and Mouchet, of the Colonial Forces, who formed his Advanced Guard, and to their Intrepidity and Conduct he attributes much of the Success of his Operation.

As the Troops were assembling to proceed to other Objects, which I thought of Importance for the King's Service, I was informed by Brigadier-General Churchill of an Attack that had been made at Irois, where, though the Enemy had been fortunately repulsed in the Assault upon that Post, they still continued to invest it, and to threaten it's Siege.

No Time was lost in detaching the Honourable Colonel Maitland with a sufficient Force to the Assistance of that Officer. On his Arrival, Brigadier-General Churchill informed him of the Repulse of the Enemy.

I have the Honour to inclose to you a Return of the Killed and Wounded upon the Attack and Destruction of the Enemy's Battery and Breast-Works, and of the Ordnance and Ordnance Stores taken and destroyed.

Return of Killed and Wounded in His Majesty's British and Colonial Troops, under the Command of Colonel Desfources, on the 16th and 17th of April 1797, at the Attack of the Enemy's Position of St. Laurent and Boutillier, from whence they were driven; and also at the Attack and Destruction of the Enemy's Battery, Breast-Works and Places of Arms near Post Grenier.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder and Aldermen of Kingston upon Hull, beg Leave to approach your Throne to express the Grief and Indignation with which we contemplated the Outrages which have been committed by many of that Portion of your Majesty's Subjects who have hitherto formed the Bulwark of their Country, but who have unhappily of late been instigated by wicked and desperate Men to abandon their Duty, and to proceed to open Acts of Treason and Rebellion against your Majesty's Person and Government.

And we most fervently pray that your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, united and affectionate People, until it shall please the Almighty to call you from your earthly Honours to the Inheritance of a Crown which fadeth not away.
