By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,

For giving Currency to a new Coinage of Copper Money of One Penny and Two Penny Pieces.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS in consequence of the unanimous Address of Our Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament assembled, praying that We would be graciously pleased to give Directions that Measures might be taken for an immediate Supply of such Copper Coinage as might be best adapted to the Payment of the Laborious Poor in the present Exigency; We have thought fit to order, that certain Pieces of Copper should be coined, which should go and pass for One Penny and Two Pennies, and that each of such Pieces of One Penny should weigh One Ounce Avoirdupois, and that each of such Two Penny Pieces should weigh Two Ounces Avoirdupois; the intrinsic Value of such Pieces of One Penny and Two Pennies, Workmanship included, corresponding as nearly as possible with the nominal Value of the same respectively; every such Piece having, on one Side thereof, Our Effigies or Portraiture, with Our Name or Title, and on the Reverse, the Figure of Britannia, represented sitting on a Rock in the Sea, holding a Trident in her Left Hand, and a Branch of Olive in her Right Hand, with the Year of our Lord.—And whereas Penny and Two Penny Pieces of Copper, of the Weight and Description aforesaid, have been coined, and will be soon ready for Delivery, according to the Orders which We have given for that Purpose:

We have therefore, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, thought fit to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby ordain, declare and command, that the said Pieces of Copper Money, so coined as aforesaid, shall be current and lawful Money of Our Kingdom of Great Britain, and shall pass and be received as current and lawful Money of Our said Kingdom; that is to say, such Penny Pieces as of the Value of One Penny, and such Two Penny Pieces as of the Value of Two Pennies, in all Payments and Transactions of Money; provided that no Person shall be obliged to take more of such Copper Money in any one Payment, than shall be of the Value of One Shilling, after the Rate aforesaid.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Twenty-sixth Day of July, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven, in the Thirty-seventh Year of Our Reign.

G O D save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 26th of July, 1797,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty-sixth Day of December, 1792, to promise and declare, that the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed to every such Able and Ordinary Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should, on or before the Twenty-eighth Day of February then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels, or Officers employed on Shore for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by his said Proclamation, to declare, that all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should so enter themselves as aforesaid, should receive the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, as His Majesty's Royal Bounty: And whereas His Majesty was also graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Sixteenth Day of the said Month of February, 1793, to promise and declare, that a Reward of Twenty Shillings for every Able and Ordinary Seaman, fit to serve on board His Majesty's Ships, should be paid to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might conceal him or themselves, so that such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's Service, on or before the Thirtieth Day of April then next, by any of His Majesty's Sea Officers appointed to raise Men on Shore, or by the Captains or Commanders of any of His Majesty's Ships or Vessels in the Ports or on the Coasts of this Kingdom: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward, hath been prolonged and extended to the Thirty-first Day of August next; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Reward should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Reward be prolonged and extended, from the said Thirtieth Day of August next, to the Thirty-first Day of October next inclusive:—Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 20th of July, 1797.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council of the Twenty-fifth of January last, prohibiting the transporting into any Parts out of this Kingdom any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, will expire upon the Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July: And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, and the Safety of this Kingdom, that the said Prohibition should be continued for some Time longer; His Majesty doth therefore, with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, require, prohibit and command, that no Person or Persons whosoever do at any Time, for the Space of Six Months, to commence from the said Twenty-fifth Day of this instant July, presume to transport into any Parts out of this Kingdom, any Pig-Iron, Bar-Iron, Hemp, Pitch, Tar, Rosin, Turpentine, Anchors, Cables, Cordage, Masts, Yards, Bowsprits, Oars, Oakum, Oker, Sheet-Copper, or other Naval Stores, or ship or lade any of the Articles above mentioned on board any Ship or Vessel, in order to transporting the same into any Parts beyond the Seas, without Leave or Permission being first had and obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon Pain of incurring the Forfeitures inflicted by an Act, passed in the Thirty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to enable His Majesty to restrain the Exportation of Naval Stores, and more effectually to prevent the Exportation of Salt-Petre, Arms and Ammunition, when prohibited by Proclamation or Order in Council." But it is, nevertheless, His Majesty's Pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to any of His Majesty's Ships of War, or any other Ships or Vessels or Boats, in the Service of His Majesty, or employed or freighted by His Majesty's Board of Ordnance, or by the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy; nor to prevent any Ship or Vessel from taking or having on Board such Quantities of Naval Stores as may be necessary for the Use of such Ship or Vessel during the Course of her intended Voyage, or by Licence from the Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, or the Commissioners of the Admiralty for the Time being; nor to the Exportation of the said several Articles to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies or Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or to the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies; provided that, upon the Exportation of any of the said Articles, for the Purposes of Trade, to Ireland, or to His Majesty's Yards or Garrisons, or to His Majesty's Colonies and Plantations in America or the West Indies, or to the Island of Newfoundland, or to His Majesty's Forts and Settlements on the Coast of Africa, or to the Island of St. Helena, or the British Settlements or Factories in the East Indies, the Exporters of such Articles do first make Oath of the true Destination of the same to the Places for which they shall be entered Outwards, before the Entry of the same shall be made, and do give full and sufficient Security by Bond, to the Satisfaction of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, to carry the said Articles to the Places for which they are so entered Outwards, and for the Purposes specified; and none other; and such Bond shall not be cancelled or delivered up, until Proof be made, to the Satisfaction of the said Commissioners, by the Production, within a Time to be fixed by the said Commissioners, and specified in the Bond, of a Certificate or Certificates, in such Form and Manner as shall be directed by the said Commissioners, shewing that that the said Articles have been duly landed at the Places for which they were entered Outwards. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, and the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

Extract of a Letter from the Right Hon. Lord Bridport; K. B. Admiral of the White, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on Board His Majesty's Ship Royal George, at Sea, July 24, 1797.

I Acquaint you, for their Lordships Information, that I this Day joined the Ships under the Orders of Sir John B. Warren, who has transmitted to me the inclosed Letters and Papers, which are Copies of Originals he sent by Express to me at Torbay, which did not arrive there till after I had quitted that Anchorage.

La Pomone, at Sea, July 18, 1797.

MY LORD,

I Beg Leave to acquaint your Lordship, that in Obedience to your Command, I continued off Ushant with His Majesty's Squadron under my Orders, consisting of the Ships and Vessels named in the Margin *, until the 16th Instant, when hearing the Report of many Guns to the Southward, I stood round the West End of the Saints, and at Day-break in the Morning of the 17th I discovered a Frigate, with a Ship, Corvette, and Brig, having 14 Sail of Vessels under Convoy, in Hodiern Bay, Eight of which were captured.

I am sorry to add, that the Ship, Corvette, and Brig escaped round the Penmarks, and the Frigate, by cutting away her Masts, and being otherways lightened, ran on Shore: A Brig, laden with Ordnance and Naval Stores, came to an Anchor near her, where it was impossible for the Anson and Sylph to follow. The Brig, however, was sunk, and the Frigate (La Calliope) much damaged in her Hull by the Shot of the abovementioned Ship, whose Officers and Men behaved with the greatest Zeal and Activity, which induces me to hope that the Enemy will not be enabled to get her off, as the Wind soon after changed to the South-West, with a great Swell upon the Beach.

I was obliged to burn La Freedom, a large Ship armée en Flute, laden with squared Timber, as the Enemy had run her on Shore at high Water, and the Crew, with the wounded, got away in their Boats.

I have enclosed to your Lordship a List of the Vessels captured and destroyed on the 17th Instant, with a Return of the Wounded on Board His Majesty's Brig Sylph

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

MY LORD,

I Have the Satisfaction of acquainting your Lordship, that I had an Opportunity of seeing that La Calliope Republican Frigate, of Thirty-six Guns and Two Hundred and Fifty Men, that was left on Shore on the 17th by the Anson and Sylph, is totally destroyed, having separated in the Midship Body, and Part of her sunk. The Crew are encamped near her to save such Stores, as may be driven on Shore.

I am particularly indebted to Captain White, of the Sylph Brig, who having anchored with Springs on his Cable within Pistol Shot of the said Frigate on the above Day, and for some Hours kept up an incessant and well-directed Fire, which was at every convenient Opportunity returned by her.

I perceived likewise the Wrecks of La Freedom, armée en Flute, laden with Timber, and the Brig with Ordnance Stores, which were driven on Shore the same Day, and destroyed.

I have the Honour to remain, &c. &c. &c.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart. Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated the 25th of July, 1797.

PLEASE to acquaint their Lordships, that His Majesty's Armed Cutter Telemachus arrived here Yesterday Evening, with La Hardi French Privateer Lugger, of Four Carriage Guns and Thirty Men: That active Officer, Lieutenant Newton, also brought in with him Two Brigs, which had been captured by a French Privateer, and were retaken by the Telemachus the 23d Instant, as reported in the inclosed Letter.

Telemachus Cutter, Spithead, July 25, 1797.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to inform you, that Yesterday, at Half past Two o'Clock A. M. off Cape La Hogue, His Majesty's Cutter under my Command captured Le Hardi, a French Lugger Privateer, mounting Four Carriage Guns, Small Arms, &c. and manned with Thirty Men; she had been out from Cherbourg about Five Hours, and had not taken any Thing; and I have the Pleasure to add, that I retook Two Merchant Brigs the same Day, that had been captured by a French Privateer.

I have the Honor to be, &c. &c. &c.

THOMAS NEWTON.

Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Bart.

Admiralty-Office, July 29, 1797.

Extract of a Letter from Admiral Sir Peter Parker, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Portsmouth, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated on Board the Royal William at Spithead, July 27, 1797.

Inclosed is a Letter from Lieutenant Garrett, of the Trial Cutter, giving an Account of his having captured Le Courier de la Mer, French Privateer, of 12 Guns and 20 Men, and captured a Brig taken by the said Privateer.

Trial, Spithead, July 27, 1797.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you that, on Monday Evening last, observing the Signal on Portland Point for an Enemy's Cruizer, I ordered the Chasse Marées to anchor in Portland Roads, and proceeded in His Majesty's Cutter under my Command in Quest of her; at Half past Two, Tuesday Morning, I discovered Two Brigs standing to the Southward, which I immediately gave Chace to, and soon perceived them to be a French Privateer and her Prize; about Half past Four I got within Gun-Shot of the Privateer, and at Five, after giving us Two Broadides, (which fortunately did us no Damage) she struck, Portland bearing N. E. by E. Three Leagues; she proved to be the Courier de la Mer, André Mouilleron, Captain, mounting 12 small Carriage Guns, and had, when she failed, 51 Men, but when taken only 20. She had been out Four Days, and had taken Three Prizes, one of which I have since retaken; having so many Prisoners on Board I thought proper to return here.

I have, &c.

HENRY GARRETT.

Copy of a Letter from S. Pellew, Esq; Collector of His Majesty's Customs at Falmouth, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Falmouth, July 24, 1797.

S I R,

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of their Lordships, that the Hind Revenue Cutter, stationed at this Port, Mr. Murray, acting Commander, has captured and sent into this Port L'Incrovable French Privateer, mounting Two Carriage Guns and Twenty-one Men, out Four Days from St. Maloes; also retaken the Sloop Three Brothers, John Collison, Master, from Neath, laden with Coals, Prize to the said Privateer, the only Capture she had made since she left St. Maloes.

I am, &c.

St. James's, July 26, 1797.

THIS Day His Majesty was pleased to invest the Right Honourable George Earl of Morton with the Ensigns of the Most Ancient and Most Noble Order of the Thistle.

The Sovereign having signed the several Instruments for that Purpose, which were presented to His Majesty by Matthew Robert Arnott, Esq; Gentleman Usher of the Order, in his Mantle, and carrying the Green Rod, the Earl of Morton was called into the Royal Presence, being preceded by His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, one of the Knights Brethren of the Order, and supported on each Side by the Duke of Roxburgh and the Earl of Galloway, the Two Senior Knights present, one of His Majesty's Gentlemen Ushers (in Place of the Green Rod) carrying the Sword of State. At the Entrance into the Royal Presence, a low Reverence was made, a second about the Middle, and a third on being advanced up to the Sovereign. The Earl of Morton being presented by the Two Senior Knights, and kneeling down, the Gentleman Usher drew the Sword of State, which he delivered to His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, who presented the same to His Majesty, who thereupon knighted his Lordship; the Earl, having kissed His Majesty's Hand, rose up, and the Gentleman Usher of the Green Rod administered the Oath to his Lordship. Then Green Rod, having received the Ensigns of the Order, presented the same upon a Crimson Velvet Cushion (kneeling) to the Sovereign, who put the Ribbon over the Earl's Left Shoulder. Upon which his Lordship had again the Honour of kissing His Majesty's Hand; after which the Earl rose up, and making three low Reverences, withdrew in the same Manner he had entered.

The Ceremony was performed soon after the Levée in His Majesty's Closet, several Great Officers of State and of the Court being present.

They further desire that all such Claims may not only state in what Manner the several Cases come within the Description of the said Article, but also, specially set forth the Nature of the Evidence by which the Claimants respectively undertake to substantiate the same.

EXTRACT FROM THE SAID ARTICLE.

"Whereas it is alledged by divers British Merchants and others, His Majesty's Subjects, that Debts to a considerable Amount, which were bona fide contracted before the Peace, still remain owing to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States; and that, by the Operation of various lawful Impediments since the Peace, not only the full Recovery of the said Debts has been delayed, but also the Value and Security thereof have been in several Instances impaired and lessened; so that, by the ordinary Course of judicial Proceedings, the British Creditors cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compensation for the Losses and Damages which they have thereby sustained: It is agreed that in all such Cases, where full Compensation for such Losses and Damages cannot, for whatever Reason, be actually obtained, had and received by the said Creditors, in the ordinary Course of Justice, the United States will make full and complete Compensation for the same to the said Creditors; but it is distinctly understood that this Provision is to extend to such Losses only as have been occasioned by the lawful Impediments aforesaid, and is not to extend to Losses occasioned by such Insolvency of the Debtors, or other Causes, as would equally have operated to produce such Loss, if the said Impediments had not existed; nor to such Losses or Damages as have been occasioned by the manifest Delay or Negligence, or wilful Omission of the Claimant."
