IN Pursuance of the Directions of an Act passed in the Twenty-fourth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty King George the Third, intituled, "An Act to repeal so much of Two Acts, made in the Tenth and Fifteenth Years of the Reign of His present Majesty, as authorizes the Speaker of the House of Commons to issue his Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown for making out Writs for the Election of Members to serve in Parliament, in Manner therein mentioned; and for substituting other Provisions for the like Purposes;" I do hereby nominate and appoint the Right Honourable Sir Richard Pepper Arden, Knight, Master of the Rolls, the Right Honourable Lord Frederick Campbell, the Right Honourable Sylvester Douglas, the Honourable St. Andrew St. John, William Plumer, Esq; Thomas Berney Bramstone, Esq; and William Wilberforce, Esq; being Members of the House of Commons, or any One of them, to issue Warrants to the Clerk of the Crown, in the Cases in the said Act specified. HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

THE Commissioners for carrying into Effect the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation, concluded between His Britannic Majesty and the United States of America, on the 19th Day of November, 1794, having this Day constituted their Board, pursuant and agreeably to the said Treaty, do hereby give Notice, that they are ready to proceed to Business accordingly; and they desire that all Claims under the said Article, (which so far as the same describes the Cases thereby provided for is hereunto annexed) may be lodged with their Secretary without Delay.

They further desire that all such Claims may not only state in what Manner the several Cases come within the Description of the said Article, but also, specially set forth the Nature of the Evidence by which the Claimants respectively undertake to substantiate the same.

EXTRACT FROM THE SAID ARTICLE.

"Whereas it is alledged by divers British Merchants and others, His Majesty's Subjects, that Debts to a considerable Amount, which were bona fide contracted before the Peace, still remain owing to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States; and that, by the Operation of various lawful Impediments since the Peace, not only the full Recovery of the said Debts has been delayed, but also the Value and Security thereof have been in several Instances impaired and lessened; so that, by the ordinary Course of judicial Proceedings, the British Creditors cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compensation for the Losses and Damages which they have thereby sustained: It is agreed that in all such Cases, where full Compensation for such Losses and Damages cannot, for whatever Reason, be actually obtained, had and received by the said Creditors, in the ordinary Course of Justice, the United States will make full and complete Compensation for the same to the said Creditors; but it is distinctly understood that this Provision is to extend to such Losses only as have been occasioned by the lawful Impediments aforesaid, and is not to extend to Losses occasioned by such Insolvency of the Debtors, or other Causes, as would equally have operated to produce such Loss, if the said Impediments had not existed; nor to such Losses or Damages as have been occasioned by the manifest Delay or Negligence, or wilful Omission of the Claimant."
