Regiments and Individuals who cannot attend to receive Payment in London, and the Heirs of deceased Persons, will be paid on granting the proper Authorities, agreeable to the Forms required in the following Regulations, which are necessary to be so particular to guard against the Impositions attempted by frequent Forgeries of Powers of Attorney and Wills, for the fraudulent Purpose of receiving Prize-Money of Absentees and deceased Persons (by those who are not legally entitled thereto) viz.

For a Regiment, One Power of Attorney to the proper Regimental Agent thereof, residing in London, (who will sign the Prize Lists) to be signed and sealed by each Individual, alive and present at the Time, for himself only; and to be witnessed by the Commanding Officer and Paymaster, or Adjutant, of such Regiment; who are to make Oath before a Magistrate, that they saw each Individual, whose Name is subscribed thereunto, sign it for himself only, and that none signed the Name or Names of another or others, whether present, absent, or deceased.

Serjeants, Corporals, Drummers and Private Soldiers, who may have been discharged, or are not present with the Regiment they belong to, may grant Power of Attorney to the said Agents, to be witnessed by a Clergyman of the Parish wherein they reside at the Time, and also by a Magistrate, before whom they are to make Oath (which is to appear on the said Power) that he or they is or are the identical Person or Persons named therein, and that he or they are actually entitled to share Prize Money for the Capture of the said Islands in 1794, or for such of them as they may be entitled to. The Heirs of deceased Officers and Serjeants, or of Persons joining in the same Classes with them, cannot be paid without administering; but, after doing so, they may receive either personally, or by Power of Attorney accompanying the Letter of Administration. The Heirs of deceased Corporals, Drummers, and Private Soldiers, are to make Oath before a Magistrate, that he or they is or are the legal Heir or Heirs of the Person or Persons whose Prize Money he or they claim; which Affidavit is to be produced to me, together with a Certificate, signed by a Clergyman and Church-Warden of the Parish wherein they reside, that they believe them to be the right Heirs of the Person or Persons whose Prize Money they claim; upon which they may receive personally or by granting Powers of Attorney.

Regiments in Ireland, who have not Agents in London, may grant Powers of Attorney to any Regimental Agents in London.

All absent Officers can, of course, receive their Prize Money upon granting Powers of Attorney to their Regimental Agent.

The greatest Part of the Prize Money for said Captures is not yet entirely extricated from Law Suits so as to be quite ready for Distribution, nor is the King's Grant yet obtained for it. The Moment it can be proceeded on, Notice thereof will be given to the Captors.

Letters, Post-paid only, addressed to me as above, will be duly answered.
