Extract of a Letter from the Right Hon. Lord Bridport, K. B. Commander in Chief of the Channel Fleet, to Ewan Nepean, Esq; Secretary of the Admiralty, dated on Board His Majesty's Ship Royal George, at Torbay, the 13th of September, 1797.

S I R,

Herewith you will receive Copies of Letters, with the Papers therein referred to, from Commodore Sir John Borlase Warren, which I transmit for their Lordships Information.

I am, &c.

BRIDPORT.

La Pomone, at Sea, August 12, 1797.

My Lord,

I Beg Leave to inform your Lordship, that on the Morning of the 11th Instant, a Convoy of the Enemy, with a Ship Corvette, a Brig and Schooner Gun-Boats, Two armed Luggers, several Chasse Marees and Brigs, were discovered standing to Sea, out of the Pertuis de Breton, from Rochfort: I attempted to cut them off or destroy them with La Pomone and Jason, who attacked a Fort, in order cover the Sylph, who was anchored near the Two Corvettes, having left the Triton in Chace to Windward; the Enemy, perceiving our Intention, anchored at the Entrance of the River of Sable D'Olonne, close under the Fort, the Ship Corvette and Gun-Boat with Springs upon their Cables.

At Eleven, being near enough, the Firing commenced and continued for an Hour, when the Gun-Boat slipped her Cables to run on Shore, but funk before she got into the River, near the small Vessels, and the Corvette remained fast a-ground, but deserted by her People and much damaged: As I did not think it possible to set her on Fire with the Boats of the Squadron, there being little Wind, and the Tide of Flood setting us upon the Coast, we hauled our Wind to the Southward.

I have the Satisfaction of acquainting your Lordship that it has occasioned a Delay for some Time of the Enemy's Supplies arriving at Brest, as one of the Vessels is destroyed, and it is doubtful if the other can be repaired to as to be of any Use in future.

The Ships of the Squadron have sustained very trifling Damages. A Return of the Killed and Wounded in each Ship is inclosed.

I have only to lament that a more favorable Moment did not present itself to afford the Officers and Men an Opportunity of distinguishing themselves; but the Enemy must have suffered considerably on Board the Vessels and in the Fort, from the Number of Shot that struck them.

Some hot Shot were fired from a Battery of Five Guns, which set Fire to the Sylph, but any ill Effects were prevented by the Exertions of the Officers and Men of that Vessel, who cut them out, and behaved otherwise with much Spirit and Zeal.

I have the Honor to remain,

My Lord,

Your Lordship's most obedient humble Servant,

(Signed) JOHN WARREN.

P. S. Since I began this Letter, not having an Opportunity of sending it to your Lordship, I have received Information from Three Vessels who had left Sable D'Olonne subsequent to the above Affair, and the following is the Result of these Reports:

" The Ship Corvette is in the Harbour, but so damaged as to be unfit for Service."

" The Gun-Boat remains funk and destroyed."

" The Enemy lost several killed and wounded in the Two Vessels."

" In the Fort Five Soldiers were killed and Two Guns dismounted, and some wounded; Two or Three Houses much shattered."

We were off Sable D'Olonne on the 26th, and saw the Ship in the Harbour.

Extract of another Letter from Commodore Sir John B. Warren, K. B. to the Right Hon. Lord Bridport, dated on Board the Pomone, at Sea, the 23d of August, 1797.

I Beg Leave to inform your Lordship, that on the 23d Instant, I chased and drove upon the Coast of Isle Dieu, L'Egalité Armed Chasse Marée, of Four Six Pounders and Eight Swivels, and which we afterwards got off.

La Pomone, at Sea, September 6, 1797.

My Lord,

I Beg Leave to inform your Lordship that I continued steering for the Mouth of the Garonne, and on the 27th Ultimo, being to the Southward of the River, a Number of Vessels were seen in the South West Quarter. I made the Signal for a general Chase, and continued until Night, when, from the Triton being far advanced a-head, and the Jafon to Windward, the Ships kept the Enemy in Sight after the Approach of Night. Owing to the Exertions of Captains Gore and Stirling, Five of them were captured.

At Two A. M. being near the Shore, a Cutter was seen at Anchor, that had accompanied the Convoy, and One of the Boats of this Ships was sent to her; but being ordered to keep off, and seeing she was a Vessel of Force, returned. I stood in after her, and upon our firing a few Shot, One of which cut away her Mast, she split her Cable, and run among the Breakers upon the Coast of Arcasson, and into a most tremendous Surf that broke on Board her, and must have stove her to Pieces, She at last grove through, and I fancy several of her Crew were drowned, and, as the Tide left her, she fell over; the Remainder of her Men, about 90 in Number, got on Shore. She was called Le Petit Diable, a very fine Vessel, pierced for 18 or 20 Guns, and 100 Men Complement.

The Prizes are laden with Ship-Timber, Rosin and Tar, and were intended to fit out Privateers from the Enemy's principal Ports upon the Coast.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) JOHN WARREN.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Thomas Wolley, Commander of His Majesty's Ship Arethusa, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Spithead, September 13, 1797.

I AM to acquaint you, that on the 20th of August, being in Latitude 30 deg. 49 min. and Longitude 55 deg. 50 min. having in tow a Ship under Prussian Colours from Surinam, which I have detained, suspecting her to be Dutch Property, we perceived, at Day-Light, Three Sail to Windward of us, One of which, deceived by our Appearance, bore down upon us, under French Colours, to within Half Gun-Shot, when she began to fire, which she continued for more than Half an Hour before she attempted to escape. We were, however, fortunate enough to have disabled her in that Time as to render her Endeavours fruitless. On striking she proved to be La Galeté, French Corvette, of 20 French Eight-Pounders and 186 Men, commanded by M. Guinée, Enseigne de Vaisseau. She is a very handsome Ship, and quite new, this being her first Voyage. She left France in April last for Cayenne, which last Place she sailed from about Four Weeks before we fell in with her, in Company with the L'Espoir, a Brig of 14 Guns, who kept to Windward during the Action, and stood away as soon as she saw the Part of the Galeté. They had not taken any Thing. I am sorry to have to add a List of Killed and Wounded.

Return of Killed and Wounded on Board His Majesty's Ship Arethusa in the Action with La Galeté, French Corvette, on the 20th of August, 1797.

1 Seaman killed.

Mr. W. D. Morton, Captain's Clerk; lost his Leg.

2 Seamen wounded.

Return of Killed and Wounded on Board La Galeté, French Corvette, M. Guinée, Commander.

2 Seamen killed;

8 Ditto wounded.

They further desire that all such Claims may not only state in what Manner the several Cases come within the Description of the said Article, but also specially set forth the Nature of the Evidence by which the Claimants respectively undertake to substantiate the same.

EXTRACT from the said ARTICLE.

"Whereas it is alleged by divers British Merchants and others, His Majesty's Subjects, that Debts to a considerable Amount, which were bona fide contracted before the Peace, still remain owing to them by Citizens or Inhabitants of the United States; and that, by the Operation of various lawful Impediments since the Peace, not only the full Recovery of the said Debts has been delayed, but also the Value and Security thereof have been in several Instances impaired and lessened; so that, by the ordinary Course of judicial Proceedings, the British Creditors cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compensation for the Losses and Damages which they have thereby sustained:

sustained: It is agreed that in all such Cases, where full Compensation for such Losses and Damages cannot, for whatever Reason, be actually obtained, had and received by the said Creditors, in the ordinary Course of Justice, the United States will make full and complete Compensation for the same to the said Creditors; but it is distinctly understood that this Provision is to extend to such Losses only as have been occasioned by the lawful Impediments aforesaid, and is not to extend to Losses occasioned by such Insolvency of the Debtors, or other Causes, as would equally have operated to produce such Loss, if the said Impediments had not existed; nor to such Losses or Damages as have been occasioned by the manifest Delay or Negligence, or wilful Omission of the Claimant."

By Order of the Board,
Griffith Evans, Secretary.

Philadelphia, Commissioners Office;
No. 3, South - Sixth - Street,
May 29, 1797.

THE Subscriber having been appointed by the Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of His Britannic Majesty General Agent for assisting British Creditors, and such particular Agents as they may specially authorize, in prosecuting their Claims before the Commissioners for carrying into Effect the Sixth Article of the Treaty of Amity, Commerce and Navigation between His Britannic Majesty and the United States of America, hereby gives Notice, that he has opened his Office, at his House, the South-East Corner of Chestnut and Fifth Streets, Philadelphia, where he is ready to receive all Claims, or Instructions for Claims, with the Vouchers and Documents thereof, for the Purpose of bringing forward the same, agreeably to the Rules and Orders which the Board may think proper to prescribe.

And as it will be for the Interest of all concerned, that the several Claims be so stated, and supported, as to prevent the Delay which would arise from the Necessity of obtaining further Information, or additional Materials, from Persons residing at a Distance, the General Agent thinks it his Duty to add, (for the Direction chiefly of those, who, not having employed particular Agents, may leave the Prosecution of their Claims to his Charge and Management) that all such Claims ought in particular to set forth—

1st. The proper Description and Situation of the Creditor or Claimant, and original Debtor, respectively.
2^d. The Date and Nature of the original Contract or Debt.

3^d. When, in what Manner, and to what Extent, the Creditor or Claimant was prevented or impeded, by the Provision, Operation or Defect of Law, the Decisions and Practice of Courts, or Restraint of Execution, from recovering Payment of the Debt in Question.

4th. The Loss and Damage incurred or sustained, in consequence of such Impediments, whether the same may have arisen from the Insolvency, Change of Situation, or Death of the Debtor, the Loss of legal Remedy from Lapse of Time, or other Causes impairing the Value and Security of the Debt, which would not have so operated if such Impediments had not existed.

And 5th. The particular Grounds and Reasons on which the Claimant maintains, in the Terms of the Treaty, "that by the ordinary Course of Judicial Proceedings the Creditor cannot now obtain and actually have and receive full and adequate Compensation" for the Losses and Damages so sustained.

The General Agent thinks it his Duty further to suggest, that the several Claims ought to be accompanied and supported by the Affidavits of the Claimants duly sworn and regularly attested, both as to the Existence of the Debts claimed, and such other Circumstances as may be within their own Knowledge respectively. And wherever the Claimants, in stating the Nature of their Evidence, (which must in every Instance be the best of which the Case is capable) have occasion to refer to the Testimony of Witnesses, it will be proper to apprise the General Agent of the Names and Places of Residence of such Witnesses, and the Facts to be established by their Testimony.
