Copy of a Letter from Captain Boorder, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop L'Espiegle, to Evan Nepean, Esq; dated Yarmouth Roads, the 27th of September, 1797.

I Have the Pleasure to inform you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that on Saturday the 23d Instant, at One P. M. being then off the Coast of Holland, the Vlic Island bearing South, Distance Eight Leagues, we discovered a Schooner about Four or Five Miles ahead of us, which we gave Chace to. The Wind being at S. E. prevented her from gaining the Vlic Passage. Finding we were coming fast up with her, and judging we were unacquainted with the Coast, she ran close in, and let go her Anchor in Eight Feet Water. Mr. Stephenson, my Master, knowing the the Coast very well, we followed until we came into less than Three Fathoms, let go our Anchor, and immediately commenced a heavy Fire on her: They however engaged us Forty Minutes, then cut their Cable and ran her on Shore: Thirteen of her Crew took this Opportunity of leaving her before our Boats could take Possession. No Time was to be lost; the Signal for an Enemy on their Coast had been made from our first firing on the Schooner; and we could plainly perceive they were bringing down Two Field Pieces against us; but, by our constant Fire of Round and Grape Shot, we in a great Measure stopped their Progress: The Tide of Flood having made, she was soon got off, without any other Damage than having received a Shot between Wind and Water, and which we soon got itopped.

The Second Lieutenant of the Schooner was killed: We had a few Shot through our Sails, and Two through our Ensign. She proves to be the D'Ondeilbaarlaid, or the Invincible Dutch Schooner, from Amsterdam, mounting 10 Guns, carrying 46 Men; left the Vlic Island only that Morning; had made no Captures; quite a new Vessel, and a remarkable fast Sailer.
