

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 14; to Saturday November 18, 1797.

St. James's, November 18, 1797.

THE following Addresses having been transmitted to the Duke of Portland, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by his Grace presented to the King; which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Gentlemen, Clergy and other Inhabitants, of the Borough of Newark upon Trent, and the Vicinity thereof, do, with the utmost Respect and heartfelt Satisfaction, most cordially congratulate your Majesty upon the Victory recently obtained by your Majesty's Fleet under the Command of Admiral Duncan; a Victory in all its Circumstances to be ranked amongst the most brilliant in the Naval History of this Country.

We feel ourselves at a Loss for Language adequately to express our grateful Sense of the very extraordinary Display of Conduct and Bravery in every Department of the Fleet; and we indulge the pleasing Hope that this Victory will not only tend to the Security of your Majesty's Crown and Government, but also be the happy Means of accelerating an honourable Peace.

[Transmitted by Thomas Manners Sutton, Esq;]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates and Council of the Town of Inverness.

S I R E !

YOUR Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates and Town Council of Inverness, approach your Throne with sincere Congratulations on the glorious and important Victory obtained by your Majesty's brave Sailors, under the Command of your gallant Admiral Lord Viscount Duncan, over the most renowned of your Naval Foes.

We earnestly pray that this severe and decisive Proof of the Superiority of your Majesty's Fleets may open the Eyes of our infatuated Enemies, and induce them seriously to wish for that Peace which your Majesty has offered them; and which they have with so much Insolence refused:

Confiding in your Majesty's paternal Care of your People, in the Wisdom of Parliament, in the Ability and Integrity of your Ministers, in the Zeal and Skill of your Commanders, and in the Spirit of the Nation, we look towards the Issue of the arduous Contest, in which the Empire is engaged, without Fear.

May your Majesty live long and happy, and may all your Subjects rejoice as much at the Success of your Arms, possess as ardent Zeal for the Constitution of our Country, and feel as strong an Attachment to your august Family, as your dutiful Subjects the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your Royal Burgh of Inverness.

Signed by our Appointment, and in our Presence, by

Will. B. Inglis, Provost.

Inverness, Nov. 6, 1797.

[Transmitted by Sir Hector Munro, K. B.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Regimented Gentlemen and Yeomanry Cavalry of the County of Somerset, beg Leave, with all Humility, to offer to your Majesty our heartfelt Congratulations on the late glorious Victory, obtained by our gallant Countrymen under the