

Spectators, who testified the greatest Joy and Loyalty on the Occasion.

At Temple-Bar His Majesty was met by the Lord Mayor, in a Gown of Crimson Velvet.

The Sheriffs in their Scarlet Gowns, and a Deputation from the Aldermen and Common-Council, being all on Horseback, when the Lord Mayor surrendered the City Sword to His Majesty, who having returned it to him, he carried it, bare-headed, before the King to St. Paul's.

His Majesty being come to St. Paul's, was met at the West Door by the Bishop of London, the Dean of St. Paul's (Bishop of Lincoln) the Chapter, and the King's and other Officers of Arms, the Band of Gentlemen Pensioners, and the Yeomen of the Guard attending.

The Sword of State was carried before His Majesty by the Earl Spencer, into the Choir, where the King and Queen placed themselves under a Canopy of State, near the West End, opposite to the Altar.

The Peers, the Members of the House of Commons, the Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction, placed themselves in the Seats which had been previously prepared for their Reception.

The Prayers and Litany were read and chaunted by the Minor Canons. Immediately after the First Lesson, the Flag Officers and Captains proceeded up to the Altar, in the following Order, and there delivered the Flags to the Dean and Chapter of St. Paul's, the Fly of each Flag being supported by the Officers, who immediately followed the Bearer of it.

Admiral Caldwell bore the Flag of the 1st of June, 1794.

Sir Thomas Pasley,	Sir Roger Curtis,
Admiral Bazely,	Admiral Gambier,
Lord Hugh Seymour,	Captain Payne,
Captain Donett,	Captain Elphinstone.

Admiral Goodall bore the Flag of the 14th of March, 1795.

Admiral Linzee,	Captain Holloway.

Sir Horatio Nelson,	Sir Charles Knowles,
Captain Whitshed,	Captain Dacres,
Captain Sutton,	Captain Towry.
Captain Irwin,

Captain Douglas bore the Flag of Admiral Lucas, taken the 17th of August, 1796.

Lord Duncan bore the Flag of Admiral De Winter, taken the 11th of October, 1797.

Sir Richard Onslow bore the Flag of Admiral Reintjes, taken the 11th of October, 1797.

Sir William Fairfax,	Sir Henry Trollope,
Captain Essington,	Captain Drury,
Captain Mitchell,	Captain O'Bryen,
Captain Bligh,	Captain Gregory,
Captain Walker,	Captain Hotham.

After which the Officers returned to the Galleries allotted to them on each Side of the Choir. The Te Deum and Anthems composed for the Occasion were sung by the Choir, who were placed in the Organ Loft. The Communion Service was read by the Lord Bishop of London and the Residentiary, and the Sermon was preached by the Dean.

Divine Service being ended, Their Majesties returned with the same State to the Queen's Palace, soon after Three o'Clock.

The Guns at the Tower and in the Park were fired Three Times, first, upon the King's setting out, secondly, during the depositing of the Flags at the Altar and the singing of Te Deum, and thirdly, upon His Majesty's Return.

The public Demonstrations of the Zeal and Loyalty of the Inhabitants of London and Westminster, for His Majesty's Person and Government, and of their extraordinary Joy for the glorious and happy Successes of His Majesty's Fleets, were suitable to so great and solemn an Occasion.
